

NEAR FORGIVENESS, BUT ENDS HIS LIFE

Solomon Guggenime Receives Cheering News From Family, Then Jumps to Death

Close to End of Resources - Nephew of Wealthy Oil Operator Had Tried to Redeem His Past by Hard Work

New York, July 18.—Solomon Guggenime, thirty-one years old, a cigar salesman, living at the Hotel Brenobis, Seventh Avenue and Fifty-sixth street, committed suicide there by cutting both wrists and then jumping five stories to a rear court.

Through his experience as a wholesale tobacco dealer in San Francisco, Guggenime was trying to get back on his feet again, but with little success. Recently he wrote to his uncle telling him of his progress, and on Friday night the uncle replied. The letter told the young man of the family's pride in his efforts, and when Guggenime finished reading it he turned to Howard Quinn, the hotel clerk, and said: "That's the best news I ever received."

SENTENCE OF HANGING FOR MRS. GILLIGAN

Keeper of Aged People's Home Convicted of Poisoning Inmate

Hartford, Conn., July 17.—Mrs. Amy E. Archer-Gilligan was found guilty of murder in the first degree in the Superior Court here, and was sentenced to be hanged on Nov. 6 next. She was convicted of killing Franklin R. Andrews, a contract inmate of a home for aged people at Windsor conducted by Mrs. Archer-Gilligan, and it was charged that she killed him in order that she might be relieved of caring for him after receiving the money for his support.

Japanese Win Far Eastern Championships

Defeat Chinese and Filipinos in Great Athletic Meet; Are Good Runners

Tokyo, July 14.—The third Far Eastern championship athletic games were held here for five days, and China, the Philippines and Japan were represented. At the first championship games held at Manila in 1913, the championship went to the Philippine team, and at the second, held in Shanghai in 1915, the Chinese team won the championship.

While the championship was won by the Japanese with an overwhelming score, the Philippine team showed good form, and in the first two days a neck and neck fight was made by the two teams for the championship. But on the last day the Japanese team won 47 points in swimming events, decathlon, first place in tennis, both single and double, and carried the championship with the total score of 126 points. The Philippines were second with 78 points, and the Chinese were third with 48 points.

The Japanese took first place in volleyball and football, but lost almost all running events. However, in the three mile high jump they carried the three places. High jump and pole vault were the events in which the Chinese excelled. This, the Chinese, vaulted 10 feet 6 inches in the pole vault, but in practice he cleared 10 feet 11 inches.

The Japanese were close to the world's records, and if the weather had been clear and the course better they might have been the world's records. The final score obtained by the Japanese, Filipinos and Chinese teams at the games was as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Event and Score. Includes 100 yard run, 220 yard run, 440 yard run, 880 yard run, 1000 yard run, 1500 yard run, 2000 yard run, 3000 yard run, 4000 yard run, 5000 yard run, 10000 yard run, 15000 yard run, 20000 yard run, 25000 yard run, 30000 yard run, 35000 yard run, 40000 yard run, 45000 yard run, 50000 yard run, 55000 yard run, 60000 yard run, 65000 yard run, 70000 yard run, 75000 yard run, 80000 yard run, 85000 yard run, 90000 yard run, 95000 yard run, 100000 yard run.

Evers Joins Phillies And Will Replace Bancroft at Second

Johnny Evers is now a member of the Philadelphia Nationals. He signed with Pat Moran, manager of the Phillies, a few days ago, when the Boston management gave him permission to negotiate with that club.

All the athletes, Japanese, Philippine and Chinese, after the conclusion of the Far Eastern games, are confident that they can compete with the best of the Occidental athletes in the next world's Olympic. What they lack is proper coaching and training. With sufficient practice they may be able to win at least in some of the events at the world's Olympic games.

Stymie Rule Not Favored

Western Idea Found Wanting in Recent Championship Tournament

Chicago, July 12.—The new rule of the Western Golf Association abolishing stymies was tried and found wanting in the western amateur championship at Midolthian. The rule was changed by the Board of Directors before the final round, in which Francis Outmet yesterday won the title from Kenneth F. Eddy of Chicago.

The rule, as originally framed, required that the nearer ball be played first when both balls were on the green, thus avoiding stymies. The plan worked well in metal play, as the average of an eighteen-minute time was taken when both balls were on the green. When the match play started, however, the contestants were lost in their clamor for a change in the rule, and President Charles F. Thompson, agreeing with the players, had a new rule drafted.

Roush, of Reds, Is a Real Comeback

The comeback story is one of the most common among the many stock baseball yarns. Somebody always is coming back and the incident invariably gets a good deal of publicity in the syndicate stuff.

Roush, Cincinnati slugger, offers a most unusual exception. Roush had to overhaul his scheme of play most radically before he was able to get a chance to show strong nerve to even secure a hearing. The new spectacular outfielder broke into the game as a right-hand infielder. He went like a regular fellow in his first try-out with the Chicago White Sox several years ago, but he threw his arm out at the elbow one day and was soon turned clean left hand for throwing purposes, but he went at the task in determined fashion, and soon was able to get some distance and accuracy. The fact that he decided to switch his ambitions to an outfield job with a long throw showed how determined he was. And that he can throw with the best of them now is eloquent of the fact that he worked his left arm to accomplish the reform attempted.

The greatest trouble of all, however, was to make anybody believe he was any good as a left-hander, and even when the Reds disbanded the impression existed that he could not possibly be whole again, but finally he secured a trial with the Giants and was traded to Cincinnati in the deal involving Christy Mathewson. It is hardly necessary to say that Manager Mathewson was willing to admit that he thus accidentally secured his chief offensive asset, with the possible exception of Fred Toney, in securing the making of his new great team.

Military Matters

Two recruits were secured in the city yesterday. They were: Horace Victor Richardson, London, England, C. A. S. C. and Leo John Chambers, Marysville, Royal Navy.

The men of the 62nd overseas draft are engaged at present in making their quarters cleaner, if possible, than has been the case, and the walls are being treated with a disinfectant. Sergt. Major Warren is carrying on a series of lectures for the N. C. O's.

Word has been received in the city that James McDonald Gilchrist, who in May of 1915 joined the Royal navy as a sub-lieutenant, and has been on patrol work in the North Sea ever since, has been promoted to a full lieutenant and will have command of his own vessel.

Lieut. Gilchrist is a Queens county man and is the son of Mrs. E. Lloyd. In 1908 he graduated from the U. N. B., and has been in Montreal until the time of his enlistment.

The return of Sergt. Charles Moore, M.M., a veteran of the original 26th, to France will be celebrated by the War Veterans of the city, and a delegation will give him a send-off at the Montreal train tonight. Sergt. Moore was wounded and sent home on furlough, but having recovered will go to the front to his old unit.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Cooksey-Blanchard. A very pretty wedding took place this morning at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, when Annie Blanchard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Blanchard, of Bathurst, was united in marriage to a returned soldier of the 68th battalion, Archibald Cooksey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Cooksey, of Harvey Bank, Albert county.

The bride looked charming in a Belgian blue suit with hat to match, and carried a white prayer book. She was attended by Mrs. Walter Gaynor, and Harry J. Gaynor supported the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Cooksey left on the early train for the bride's home, where they will spend the summer. They have the good wishes of a host of friends.

Fowner-Galliger. Sydney, N. S., July 17.—An interesting marriage ceremony was performed in St. George's Episcopal church in Halifax, July 16, at 7 p.m., when the contracting parties were Percy E. Fowner, representing McCready and Son, Ltd., St. John, and Isabel M. Galliger, of Halifax. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. W. Warner. The bride was attired becomingly in a traveling suit of grey serge, with hat to match and looked charming. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Fowner left for Sydney (N. S.), where for a short time they will be the guests of the groom's parents. After their honeymoon they will tour the maritime provinces. St. John city will be their future home.

Motor Barges. A train of barges driven by motor traction has reached the Regent's Canal with loads of coal from the Midlands. These (says the London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian) were the first motor barges to navigate the English canals for any distance, and the beginning of a development which the Board of Trade is watching with interest. In their journey of 100 miles from Cannock Chase to St. George's wharf, King's Cross, the motor barges navigated seven canals, and managed all the locks with ease, leaving the horses on the towpath pulling after them in vain. The motive power is a small motor driven by a mixture of paraffin and petrol. This is fixed to the stern, and can be transferred from one barge to another in a few minutes.
