An appeal to subscribe to the Victory loan was given by L. P. D. Tilley, who told the people that there were still some people in the city who do not not think the Dominion of Canada is as safe a trustee for their money as is a bank. He said that the people of St. John have in the banks over fourteen millions and they are only asked to invest four million of it, and they get the best of the deal. He said that some people talked as though it was giving the money to the government. the money to the government instead of lending it, and at first class interest, too. When the speakers had finished, the chairman called for three cheers for the andidates, and they were given with a will and a tiger, too. The spirit of the North End people in regard to this question is unmistakable. Then three cheers were given for the king, and the meeting broke up. There was a large crowd present and the hall was crowded up at the back. The meeting was by far the most enthusiastic that has yet
