LOCAL NEWS

Rev. A. L. Fleming, late of Toronto, arrived in the city yesterday. He will be, for a time at least, rector in charge of St. John's (Stone) church in this city.

At a meeting of an organization which will be known as the Canadian Imperial League, held in the old Masonic hall in Brussels street last evening, by-laws were adopted. Dr. James Manning presided. There are about sixty members at present.

Robert Reid, provincial secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association, received word that E. M. Trower, Dominion secretary, and J. A. Beaudry, Dominion treasurer, are in Halifax this week and will be passing through St. John next week. On Tuesday they are due here and will address a meeting of the St. John retail merchants.

Last night at Centenary church a Halloween festival was held by the members of the Epworth League. The programme was under the direction of A. E. Blake, president, and Miss Beattie Holder, vice-president of the social department. Miss Vera Maxwell told fortunes and Lieut. Frank Smith rendered several songs.

A horse owned by Frank Hazen and driven by John McLeer, backed over Walker's wharf yesterday. The tide was low and the horse fell twenty-five feet. The horse finally was extricated from the mud without being seriously injured.

In the police court yesterday afternoon Frank Garson, Jr., was charged with having stolen property in his possession. The property was stolen milk cans. Garson was remanded to jail. It is said the cans were stolen by boys. Mrs. Hilland was before the court charged with fraudulently obtaining money. She was sent to the Home of the Good Shepherd for a few days.

The twenty-sixth annual meeting of the Log Cabin Fishing Club was held on Wednesday night. The reports of the officers showed that the club is prosperous. The officers elected were: K. J. MacRae, president; J. H. Noble, vice-president; E. W. Paul, secretary; treasurer. These officers with C. A. Gurney, S. C. Drury, R. J. Armstrong and John Ross, form the managing committee.

The Girls' Red Cross Circle and Mission Band of the Marsh bridge Mission gave a concert last evening in Thorne Lodge hall. There was a good attendance and the following took part in the programme: Bessie Kincaid, Dolly Mosier, Lillian Neave, Teddy Mosier, Amy Hayes, Miss C. Shepherd, Edith Finley and Wynnie Dunlop.

Exchange of Prisoners.
Amsterdam, via London, Nov. 8-The foreign office representative in the Reichstag, according to a Berlin despatch, has announced that the proposals for the release of civilian prisoners of every age in the belligerent countries has failed owing to enemy opposition. "If the negotiations later succeed," he said, "we bind ourselves not to accept in the army those returned."

For burns and light scalds coat immediately with mucilage and the smarting will cease almost instantly. If the burn is deep keep covered with a paste made of cold water and flour, not allowing the paste to get dry until the smarting ceases.

In a probate suit in Dublin it was stated that the testator, an old lady, fell into the fire and was badly burned a few days before making the will. Her arms were injured, and she affixed her mark to the will by taking the pen between her teeth.
