

W. GRANT SMITH CHOSEN HEAD OF CANADIAN CLUB

Mayor-Elect White Speekee
At Annual Meeting—More
Interest Urged

Features of the annual meeting of the local Canadian Club in the Admiral Beatty hotel last evening were the election of W. Grant Smith as president and an address by Dr. W. W. White, mayor-elect of the city, who spoke most interestingly on the geological formations of the city and also touched on Saint John's early history.

The reports for the year were submitted by the various officers. Lieut. Col. E. C. Weyman, retiring president, deprecated the lack of interest shown by some of the members, as evidenced by the attendance, which averaged about 80 out of an enrolment of 487.

D. Gordon Willet read the secretary's report, showing that the club had had a successful year.

The financial statement given by the treasurer, W. L. Walsh, showed total receipts for the year of $1,694 with expenditures of $1,253.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Officers were elected as follows: President, W. Grant Smith; first vice-president, J. M. Magee; second vice-president, Capt. A. J. Mulcahy; secretary, D. Gordon Willet; treasurer, William M. Walsh; literary correspondent, W. T. Denham; finance and property committee, F. T. Barbour, Richard O'Brien, Eli Boyaner; additional members, Geoffrey Stead, W. A. Harrison, Dr. L. DeV. Chipman, George M. Robertson, Henry R. Ross; nominating committee, W. J. S. Myles, H. A. Porter, H. O. McInerney, K. C. G. A. Henderson, M. E. Agar, C. B. Allan and J. Hunter-White.

SKETCHES CITY'S HISTORY

In closing, Dr. White sketched the early days of the city from the time when it had been a wilderness inhabited by a few savages. He told of the feuds between LaTour and Chamblay and the heroic defense of Saint John

W. J. ELLIOTT, MISSING MAN, BELONGED HERE

Relatives Seek Word of Mine
Owner Believed To Be Drowned

Announcement yesterday from Dawson City that William J. Elliott, "Rocky Mountain Bill," had been reported missing, caused relatives here much concern. A telegram sent to George Black, M. P., at Ottawa, a former partner, brought reply that he had no information regarding Mr. Elliott's death and advised communicating with the Mounted Police at Dawson.

The press despatch said that Mr. Elliott was believed to have fallen through the ice somewhere between Mayo and Dawson and was thought to have been drowned. The police had been searching for him but without success.

BORN IN PROVINCE

He was born in New Brunswick 68 years ago and has three brothers and one sister residing in Saint John and one brother, Fred C. Elliott, living in Glassville, Carleton county, N. B. The sister and brothers residing in Saint John are Mrs. Peter Chisholm, R. A. Elliott, J. S. Elliott and George A. Elliott. His wife is at present visiting her people in Jedburgh, Scotland.

Only last week Mrs. Chisholm received a letter from her brother, written in March from Dawson City, telling of his purpose to leave in April for Keno. He said that he was in excellent health at that time. She is at a loss to account for his having left his winter quarters in Dawson alone, as the despatch seems to indicate.

HERE THREE YEARS AGO.

William J. Elliott had visited in Saint John about three years ago and Mrs. Chisholm was expecting that he would be here again this summer when she hoped to accompany him on an overseas trip to join his wife.

William J. Elliott went west 80 years ago and was one of the pioneers to go into the Yukon in the Klondike rush. He was owner of mining property of considerable value at Keno Hill and was the original staker of Keno City townsite. He was formerly business partner with George Black, Federal member for the Yukon.

During the war Mr. Elliott served overseas for four years. When the news of the outbreak of the war reached the Yukon he walked more than 600 miles to enlist in the Yukon battalion that was speedily mobilizing at that time.
