RECENT WEDDINGS

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Dewar, Campbellton, their youngest daughter, Nursing Sister Evelyn Jean, was united in marriage to Corp. William Woodside, of Kensington, P. E. I. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Hugh Miller, assisted by Rev. Wellington Camp.

A Scottish wedding of much interest took place last evening at the residence of William Burton, 43 Cannon street, when Rev. J. A. MacKeigan united in the bonds of matrimony James Johnson, of this city, and Miss Margaret Fairley, of Uphell, Midlothian, Scotland. The groom is a veteran of the 28th battalion and a well-known soccer player as a member of the East End Club. After the ceremony a pleasant time was spent by the numerous guests in Scottish songs, dances, bagpipe selection and games. Refreshments were served by E. J. McLaughlin. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were the recipients of many handsome presents of cut-glass, silver, etc.

A quiet wedding took place last evening at the residence of the bride's parents, 51 Kennedy street, when Rev. J. A. MacKeigan united in matrimony Frederick Allison Langille, of Tatamagouche (N. S.), and Miss Elsie Myrtle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacNutt, of this city. The groom is a well-to-do farmer of Tatamagouche and he and his bride left for that town on the midnight express.

A quiet wedding took place on Wednesday at the Cathedral when Rev. Father Oram united in marriage Ruby Veronica Carroll and John Harold Simpson, both of St. John. Mr. and Mrs. Simpson will make their home in St. John.

Boston, Jan. 2.—The marriage is announced at Braintree of Miss Hazel Estelle Belyea, of Cross Creek (N.B.), a daughter of Rev. James G. A. Belyea, of that place, who died within a few days. The bridegroom is Leonard McCready Sherwood, of Edmundston, a Canadian soldier, who recently returned from France, after serving there three years in a Canadian siege battery. The ceremony had been set for a later date, but the death of the bride's father caused a hurried change in the plans of the young pair so that they were married New Year's eve. Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood left for Cross Creek.

RECENT DEATHS

The death of Mrs. John S. Duthie, of McKimleyville, N. B., occurred a few days ago, leaving her husband and three children. She was thirty-three years of age.

Miles E. MacVicar, aged fifty-one years, died on Dec. 30 at The Range, Queens county, N. B. He was recently injured by a deal falling upon him while he was at work loading a car with lumber. Internal injuries resulted in his death.

The body of Mrs. Annie Wiggins, widow of James Wiggins, who died last week in Boston, was brought to her old home in Gagetown, N. B., for burial. Her death was due to injuries received in a fall on ice.

The death of Clyde Case, aged twenty-seven, took place in Needham, Mass., on Dec. 26. He belonged to Hatfield's Point and had gone to Needham to work for the winter, intending to return to his farm in the spring.

The death of Mrs. E. Powers, daughter of Police Magistrate Marsh, of Fredericton, took place in Boston recently.

Wilkin Elliott died at his home at Cole's Island, Queens county, Dec. 27, at the advanced age of eighty-three. He leaves one son and one daughter.

HITS MINE AND SINKS; FIVE OF CREW DROWNED

GOOD FEATURES AT OPERA HOUSE

Snappy New Vaudeville Acts and James J. Corbett in "The Midnight Man."

The Three Blighty Girls, in their class singing and dancing revue, direct from London, scored a great success at the Opera House last evening. The three young Scotch lassies won the audience from the moment they appeared behind the footlights and as they concluded each number on their programme they were given prolonged and well merited applause. Their act is one which will undoubtedly make a favorable impression all over the circuit. They sing well and are exceptionally clever dancers.

The Doughter's also won well merited applause in their skit "Dealers in Nonsense," coupled with their comic songs and breezy chatter. They are clever performers and, although their act is in reality made up of nonsense, it is amusing and well "put over."

The Clark Sisters, in their vocal and piano offering, won rounds of applause. They sing "jazz" songs, one comic and one sentimental song, and all are well received. One of the young women is a talented pianist and her playing was a feature which was not lost on the audience.

Charles Deighan gave a clever demonstration of strong man feats and balancing. His act is exceptionally good and his performance was greatly enjoyed.

Alexander and Caprice, in a comedy skit, won considerable applause. They sang and danced and interspersed jokes.

The fifth offering of "The Midnight Man" featuring James J. Corbett, ex-heavyweight champion of the world, was exciting and continues to hold interest. The champion had many opportunities in this episode to demonstrate his ability that won for him the world's title. The programme will be continued today and Monday and should attract large audiences.

THE AFTERMATH OF THE 'FLU EPIDEMIC

Reappearance of Many Cases Leads to Discussion on Subject

The reappearance of "flu" at many points brings up the old question as to whether it is a new disease or a new form of some very common ailment. The general consensus of medical opinion is that it is a germ disease of a virulent type which first attacks the membranes of the nose and throat and then spreads to some vital organ where it develops very quickly and does fearful work.

The symptoms of "flu" are about the same as those of a cold in the head, and for that reason it is now positively unsafe to allow a cold to go without attention. Treatment should be started as soon as the head starts closing up, the nose starts running or the sufferer starts sneezing. Let these conditions run for 24 hours and acute trouble is liable to develop, possibly resulting in an attack of pleurisy, pneumonia or kindred ailments.

If Grip Fix is taken when the cold is starting relief may be expected in a single night. Even if the cold has reached the gripe stage, 48 hours' treatment is usually effective. Grip Fix contains nothing but the drugs your physician would order, a full list of which is given on every box. It comes in capsule form, and in a night will leave the closed up condition of the ad, overcome the fever, allay the muscular soreness and tone up the system.

Be prepared. Have Grip Fix in the house. Be sure to get the original Grip Fix. It's on sale at all druggists at 85c. per box. Vancouver Drug Co. Limited, Special Agents.—(Adv.)

Theodore Roosevelt Hunter and his brother, William Howard "Taff" Hunter, two negro boys of Greensboro, N. C., confessed to breaking into and robbing a jewelry store in Greensboro.

THE BOY SCOUTS

THE BOY SCOUT.

Trinity Troop.

"We must apologize to our readers," writes Trinity troop correspondent, "that no news of this troop has appeared in this column of late but there have been no meetings during the Christmas vacation, consequently we have had nothing of interest to record. However, we have not been altogether idle for we had our Christmas Sunday school treat last Tuesday and contributed to the programme. Our junior organization, the Wolf Cubs, ably led by Siker R. Kelly, gave a well presented demonstration of the five principal bodily exercises and later in the evening King Scouts P. Walsh, E. Walsh, Pritchard and Whelpley amused the audience with a sketch entitled 'A Helping Hand'."

"In this connection we cannot refrain from mentioning the excellent time given by the Girl Guides entitled 'The Fourth Guide Law,' which was without doubt the best item in the evening's programme. The guide movement has taken firm root at Trinity and since it is so closely related to the scout movement we cannot but be pleased and interested in its success."

"We are looking forward on Tuesday next to the presentation of the prizes won by the troop in the Wallace-Nesbit first aid competition, held last November, in which our troop came a close second to St. Jude's. The event will take place at 8 p. m. in Trinity school room, instead of St. Jude's, where our headquarters are more central and after the presentation both troops will give a short display of their drill and first aid work, together with some competitive games. We take this opportunity to invite all interested in scouting to be present."

Centenary Methodist.

There was no scout meeting on Friday evening, so the troop met from the Centenary Methodist Church, where they enjoyed themselves for the entire evening and all went home satisfied that to have an evening from scout work was not at all out of place. But after the first of the year they are planning to give an entertainment for the parents of the boys to show them what they have done in scout work and probably will have some surprises in store for them.

DEATH OF REV. W. PEARSON

The Christian Recorder, of Philadelphia, official newspaper of the African Methodist-Episcopal Church has the following in its issue of December 23 about a former pastor of St. Philip's church in St. John:

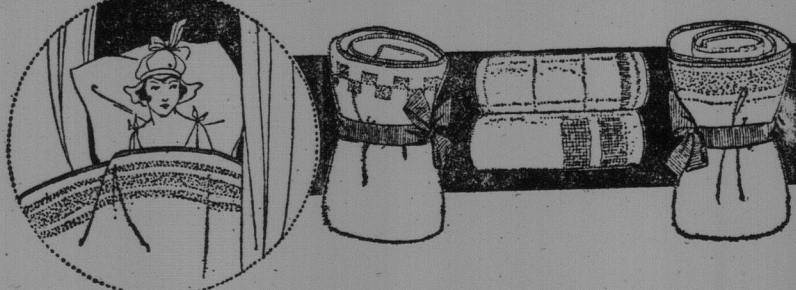

Rev. William B. Pearson was born May, 1, 1862, in Jamaica, British West Indies. His parents were Josiah and Betsy Pearson. After the completion of his grammar school course at St. James, B. W. L. he entered Calabar College, of Kingston and finished; from here he entered the Theological School of Oxford, England, there finishing with honors.

He was married to Miss F. Levis, daughter of Sarah and the late Adam Gale, at Rock Hill, St. James, on August 27, 1884. There were seven children born to the union, of which three survive—Mrs. Satyra Bennett, of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Ozalene, of the home in Cambridge; and Mr. Leonard Vincent Pearson, of Chicago, Ill. He struggled to give his children an education—Mrs. Bennett, a graduate of Wilberforce University, Ohio; Dr. Leonard, graduate of the High School of Cambridge, Mass., and Ozalene, now pursuing her high school course in Cambridge, Mass.

He was converted and joined the church in the year A. D. 1870. At an early age he came to America and joined the New York Conference, under Bishop Brown, and was assigned to the charge of Huntington, N. Y. He has served in several sections of the A. M. E. Connection, principally North, West and East. Some of the charges he pastored are as follows: Huntington, N. Y.; Chatham, N. Y.; Allentown, N. J.; St. Paul, Cambridge; Worcester, Mass.; Ann Arbor, Mich.; Wabash, Ind.; Providence R. I.; and Chelsea, Mass., where he fell at his post of duty. He was one of the thoughtful writers of the papers of the Church; he held several clerical positions of responsibility in the different conferences where he has served.

Reverend Pearson was indeed a man of profound learning, a strong power and one of the most forceful ministerial characters of his day. He reposed strongly in the consolation of his blessed Master in his last days, looking forward to his eternal triumph. Thus he passed away at his home, 26 Meade street, Cambridge, Mass., Friday morning, December 5, surrounded by his wife, daughter and friends, as a valiant soldier, reading, preaching and singing the victorious songs of the blessed. He leaves to mourn his loss a devoted and faithful wife, a son, two daughters and a host of friends.

His funeral took place Sunday, December 7, 1919, at the St. Paul A. M. E. Church, at 2 p. m. The funeral sermon was delivered by the Rev. M. W. Thornton, pastor of the Charles Street Church, Boston, Mass.; Rev. M. A. N. Shaw, pastor of Twelfth Baptist Church, a countryman of the deceased, joined in expression of this great character.

The following-named brethren of his conference were present and took part in the program: Rev. W. H. Lacey, pastor Bethel A. M. E. Church, Lynn, Mass.; Rev. S. P. Perry, of Plymouth, Mass.; Rev. D. O. Walker, New Bedford, Mass.; Rev. G. A. Singleton, Boston University; Rev. W. F. Waits, Chelsea, Mass.; Rev. Green, of Charles Street, Boston.

Resolutions of condolence were read from the church at Chelsea, the ministers of Boston, District and societies. The St. Paul Choir furnished music.

"Servant of God, well done. Rest from thy loved employ; The battle fought, the victory won, Enter thy Master's Joy."

C. B. LAWYER.

JEAN DUPUY DEAD.

Jean Dupuy, whose death is announced from Paris, was one of the most prominent figures in French public life and in the journalism of the French capital. He had been three times minister and once president of the council of ministers. More recently, during the war, he had been a member of the war council, a consultative body co-operating with the ministry. He was also a senator from the Houtes Pyrenees.

M. Dupuy's chief activity had been as director of the Petit Parisien. He also took an active part in the organization of the press of Paris, being president of the Syndicate of Paris Newspapers, and one of the foremost who maintained the rights of the press as against rigid censorship during the war. He was born Oct. 1, 1844, at Saint Palais, Gironde, France.

Rockwood Lodge, Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, held an important and well attended business meeting last night in the Temple of Honor hall, Main street. William E. Furze, the president, was in the chair and considerable business was transacted.
