USED CAR DEPARTMENT

Easy Payments if Desired

Storage Free Until Spring

Show Rooms, 45 Princess St.

Used cars in good condition are more than ever in demand this year, which is due to a measure to the great increase in the price of new cars, owing to war conditions and the difficulty of obtaining them in the future.
We have many factories which formerly built automobiles having been turned into munition and aeroplane plants.

We were fortunate in securing last fall a number of good used cars at exceptionally low prices, and during the last few months our mechanics have been employed in overhauling and refitting them. In the list below are many exceptionally good values at the prices shown.

1917 BIG FOUR OVERLAND
TOURING CAR.
Lately overhauled and refitted.
Guaranteed in first class running order; mileage low, and only used by us few months last fall for demonstrating. Complete with standard Overland equipment. Price $950.00

PIERCE-ARROW 7-PASSENGER
TOURING CAR.
In excellent condition and in good running order. The Pierce-Arrow is admitted to be one of the finest automobiles built in the United States.
Comfortable seating capacity for seven people. Would make an ideal livery car, or by removing body a good three-quarter ton delivery truck.
Price $400.00

REO 5-PASSENGER TOURING CAR.
This car was given the best of care by its former owner, and is in first class running order. The equipment is complete, and it is a bargain.
Price $400.00

REO 4-PASSENGER CONVERT-IBLE CAR.
This car has a removable tonneau and makes a good appearing run-about for two passengers, or a comfortable touring car for four. In place of tonneau there is ample room for good sized trunk body. This car has been overhauled and is in excellent order with good tires.
Price $375.00

FORD 5-PASSENGER TOURING
CAR.
This car has just been overhauled and running gear overhauled. It is in good running order and equipped with extra tool box, horn, etc.
Price $300.00

INTERSTATE 5-PASSENGER
CAR.
This car has a good motor and in running order. The equipment is quite complete; would make a powerful livery car or truck by removing body. The motor alone is worth the price asked.
Price $195.00

OVERLAND 4-PASSENGER COUPE.
This car has just been thoroughly overhauled and refitted, and is fitted with a handsome body with slat glass windows, which may be lowered in fine weather. The fittings include silk curtains, folding seat, electric light in roof, dark blue leather bound carpets, etc. All worn parts have been renewed and a complete set of four new fenders fitted.
Price $550.00

The above are only a few of the many good used cars which we have on our lists for sale. If interested call at our showrooms, and we will arrange to show them to you without any obligation to buy; or if unable to call, advise us by mail what type of car you would like to see and the price you are willing to pay, and undoubtedly we will have a car to suit your requirements. We hold cars until spring and pay all storage charges on payment of a small deposit.

STOCKS WERE STEADY.

New York, Feb. 16.—(Wall street)— Stocks were steady at the opening of today's trading, in no instance deviating more than a fraction from yesterday's final quotations. Investment rails and shipings were moderately active.

WHYSS IN ROYAL LINE.

He Can Trace His Ancestry Back to King George III.

The London Observer: It is curious that Sir Roslyn Whyss, the new first lord, should be in the same royal line as the late Brigadier-General Pitt-Clarence, to whom is now generally given the credit (if it may be allowed to one man) of having saved the situation at the first battle of Ypres. Both trace descend from William IV's association with the actress, Mrs. Jordan, the one through the eldest son, George, afterwards created Earl of Munster, and the other through the daughter, Augusta, who married a son of the Marquis of Ailes. So it happens that King George and Sir Roslyn Whyss are both great-grandsons of George III.

Spreading Corruption.

"You will have to graft these trees before they will pay," said the country man.

"Aha," moaned the city man. "Even old Dame Nature has learned the trick." plant at Nashville, Tenn., the Du Pont Engineering Company will receive a cheque for $2,000,000.

at intervals, as the sight is subject to change, and frames will often get ently that we may adjust them and see that they are in proper condition.
