ATHLETIC.

McGill Second.
Lake Placid, N. Y., Dec. 29.—Dartmouth won the President Harding trophy for college outdoor sports in competition at the Lake Placid Club today with a total of twenty points. McGill was second with thirteen points and New Hampshire, third, with ten points.

RING.

Dundee's Victory.
Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 30.—Johnny Dundee, junior lightweight champion, last night easily outboxed Tommy O'Brien of California in a ten-round no-decision bout, which went the limit. Newspaper critics were unanimous in awarding the honors to Dundee. Dundee weighed 131½ and O'Brien 134 pounds. Dundee had an apparent advantage in nearly every round, and in the seventh drove O'Brien to the floor with a right blow to the head. O'Brien's best rounds were the fourth and eighth. Both finished strong.

Moran in Title Bout.
Paris, Dec. 30.—For the first time in the history of French boxing, a United States referee, Hiram Johnson, Jr., of California, will be the third man in the ring when Frank Moran and Marcel Nilles meet today to settle the heavyweight championship of France. The title is claimed by Nilles. The winner will be matched against Joe Beckett.

Victory for Smith.
Atchinson, Kansas, Dec. 30.—Jeff Smith of Bayonne, N. J., middleweight, was given the newspaper decision in a 12 round bout with Billy Britton of Kansas City, here last night.

Healey to New York?
Halifax, N. S., Dec. 30.—Frank Marshall, manager of "Nedder" Healey, local welterweight, has announced that if the ban on professional boxing in Halifax is not lifted, he will take his charge to New York and engage in few bouts there.

UURLING.
Annual Match.
Arrangements have been completed for the annual president vs. vice-presidents match by St. Andrew's Curling Club. The games will take place on Monday, play commencing at 10:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. The teams will be

"MR. X" SAYS:

A bachelor may be lonesome at times, but he doesn't have to play second fiddle to a pink-eyed poodle.

Thousands of unwanted children have lived to write their names in flaming letters in the Autograph of the World.

Many a woman's idea of home is, that that is the place she may go when she wants to change her frock.

Between mother's bridge parties and father's poker nights, little Gladys and Buddy have to be introduced to Dad and Mom every week-end.

If some children knew who their parents were, they'd have more faith in Darwinism.

With Our New Year's Compliments
The Story Will Grip You:

LADY JOCELYN LEIGH, a pretty, dainty miss, is the ward of the disolute King James I of England. Lord Carnal the King's foppish, black-hearted favorite, admires the beauty of Jocelyn and covets her. The King is influenced to favor the match, though Jocelyn hates Carnal. When Carnal slays Jocelyn's brother in a duel, she determines to flee from him at any cost.
A ship loaded with young women destined to be the brides of the settlers of the new colony, Jamestown, is about to sail for America. Jocelyn boards this ship secretly, arriving in Jamestown, she finds that she must, like all the other fair voyagers, marry a settler. Captain Ralph Percy, a youthful soldier of fortune and the virtual military leader of Jamestown, is attracted to Jocelyn and marries her to get her out of her predicament.
She has earned to love Ralph when Lord Carnal unexpectedly appears in Jamestown in pursuit of Jocelyn. She is captured by Carnal, but Ralph rescues her and they flee to sea, though Carnal manages to get on the same ship. The vessel is seized by pirates. Ralph succeeds in making himself the pirates' leader, but when the pirates wish to force him to attack a British man of war, he refuses to be disloyal to his country and blows the pirate ship to atoms, after making sure of Jocelyn's escape. Carnal, Ralph and Jocelyn get away in a small boat together, and are picked up by the man of war and taken to London.
There Ralph is thrown into prison, and Carnal persuades the King to announce the nuptials of himself (Carnal) and Jocelyn, to take place immediately after Ralph is executed. A rival of Carnal's for the King's favor succeeds in releasing Ralph from prison, and gets the King's consent to a duel between Carnal and Ralph, the winner to get the girl.
In a great sword fight Ralph kills Carnal and wins Jocelyn.

"The Ladder Jink"

A SIX-REEL
JOY
DISPENSER

Most persons believe in signs and omens to a greater or less extent. Just what part they play in the life of a human being is uncertain, but Arthur Barnes, a bank teller, found that for one day the jinx raised havoc with him, and it all came about because he walked under a ladder. His girl was superstitious and he wasn't.

The day started all right and brought him luck—he was promoted to cashier, but the next instant his troubles began and those troubles have been woven into a comedy that is sure to hold the interest from the first flash.
