POLICE COURT TODAY

A Fighting Case—Working on Sunday Charged in Another

George Alberts, colored, and William Headman, both arrested on drunkenness charge yesterday, were before Judge Ritchie in the police court this morning and were remanded to jail until enquiries can be made as to where they procured the liquor.

Thomas McCann and William Ramsey, charged with assaulting James Haney on Sept. 2, pleaded not guilty to the charge. Haney swore that he got into a fight with McCann and that Ramsey held his hands while McCann punched him. Mrs. McCann told of seeing the fight and said that Haney was partly responsible for it. The two prisoners took the stand and denied the charge. The case was adjourned until tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock. Haney was allowed out on a $20 deposit.

Alexander Diggs, reported by the I. C. R. police for driving across the tracks in front of the I. C. R. depot in Mill street, when told not to do so, was fined $30. The case against S. H. Seely, charged with blocking the traffic in Mill street on Wednesday last, and refusing to move his team when ordered to do so by the police, was adjourned until tomorrow morning in order that some witnesses may be secured. Eric Wilbur and Louis Harowitz, charged with working in a factory in Doost street on Sunday morning, Sept. 10, pleaded guilty to the charge. Samuel K. Coen, the proprietor of the factory, was also in court. He said that he had been out of town and did not know that the men were working. Both the defendants said that they were getting out a rush order and worked only about two hours. The case was adjourned until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

DEATH OF JAMES BRYSON

Former St. John Man Had Long Been a Resident of New York

Sad news comes over the wires to Daniel Bryson of Waterloo street—the death of his brother James in New York last night. He had not been in good health for some time, and he died a little, but a few nights ago caused grave fear for the outcome of his illness.

Mr. Bryson was born in St. John some seventy years ago. He learned the dry goods business in the employ of the well-known firm of Doherty and McTavish, and about forty-five years ago removed to New York, where he rose to be one of the principal men in the large house of Taft, Welles & Co. He married in the States and is survived by his wife, two sons—George and William, in New York, and one daughter also in the American metropolis. There are also a brother and sister—Daniel and Miss Mary, in St. John—and a brother, William, in New York.

Mr. Bryson never lost touch with his old home and his friends of younger days. He made frequent visits to St. John and acquaintances were always happily renewed. Many here will regret to hear of his death. The funeral will be held in New York.

GLOUCESTER FISHERMEN REJOICING

Money That Was to Be Spent in Factories and Plants Here if Reciprocity Carried, Now Stays in States

Boston, Sept. 22.—(Special)—News of the defeat of the Laurier Government came as a great relief to the Gloucester fishing vessel owners. Although the enactment of the reciprocity pact would have spelled 'doom' in capital letters to Gloucester's extensive fish industry in the opinion of most men connected with the fisheries, they had expected a victory for the government party in Canada.

BOTH SIDES CLAIM THE CARLETON SEAT

Liberals Say 15 for Carvell; Conservatives Seven for Smith

Woodstock, Sept. 22.—Liberals claim fifteen majority and Conservatives seven for their man. It is impossible to decide until declaration day.

Woodstock, N. B., Sept. 22.—The Liberals put up a great fight, having to contend with the C. P. R. influence and a big campaign fund.

Fredrickton, N. B., Sept. 22.—Crocket's majority in York will exceed 1,000. He carried every parish and every poll except Fredericton No. 2, his home district, and Cork and Brockway. His forces were well equipped with the news of war. By vigorously waving the old flag they were able to stampede many voters in the rural districts against reciprocity. Dr. Asherton put up a manly fight against tremendous odds, and has earned the gratitude of the Liberal party.

Jubilant Conservatives Serenade Liberals

St. Andrews, N. B., Sept. 22.—Sorrow in the Liberal camp and jubilation among the followers of Mr. Borden are the chief features of the day after the defeat. The result was a surprise to both parties, almost as great a surprise as the provincial landslide. Last night the victorious Conservatives serenaded prominent Liberals at their homes, the men being employed for the purpose. The serenade was received good naturedly. Mr. Hart has received many congratulations upon his victory.

Chatham, N. B., Sept. 22.—Liberals are jubilant over Loggie's victory, tempered by the disquieting reports which came from other centres, a great crowd gathered at the telegraph and telephone booths in Chatham at nearly 2 a.m. to learn all particulars. Mr. Loggie is being warmly congratulated for some time, and he had a little, but not even his warmest supporters expected. Chatham's fine majority of 37, was a fine testimonial of their faith in him.

JEWISH NEW YEAR

Two Days Celebration Ushered in With Sunset Today—Feast of Rosh Hashono

Hearty congratulations for a happy New Year are being bestowed upon each other today by the Hebrews throughout the world, and in St. John, for with the sunset will be ushered in the Jewish feast of Rosh Hashono, the celebration of which will last during two days. During these two days' work is prohibited among the Jewish people and the great feast is observed with solemnity. This evening at 7 o'clock the services will begin in the Hebrew Avenue Synagogue, when Rabbi Bernard L. Amdur will deliver a sermon on "The Holy Temple of Character."

The festive connection with this day have no bearings on historical events, yet a singularity and inherent distinction of life, and most complete their spiritual, is observed, and it carried with it much important aspects, being a period for serious meditation, a time when all accounts and transactions must be carefully inquired into, when a meditative glance must be made into the past as well as the future. The Hebrew people are held accountable at this time for all transactions of life, and must complete their spiritual accounts of the past, and reckon on the balance. If there are any short-comings to adjust in the future, if the past must be undone, these essentials have to be considered, and every effort must be made to elevate the state of their fellow men.

The observance of Rosh Hashono is based upon Lev. 23:24 in which it is commanded of the Israelites: "In the seventh month (Tishri), on the first of the month shall you have a Sabbath, a memorial day, a holy convocation." In this the Jews throughout the world are thus commanded to observe the feast of New Year's, and hence of this, celebrations in honor of the event were extended to each other today.
