Both patients are doing well.

An inquest into the death of Martin Kelly, who died in the patrol wagon while on the way to Toronto police headquarters on Saturday evening, was held at the morgue on Monday, when a verdict of death from natural causes, accelerated by intemperate habits, was rendered. The jury urged that some further restraint should be exercised in the giving of intoxicants to known inebriates, and that increased oversight should be given the idle and intemperate characters who frequent the King Street Mission and institutions of a similar kind.

BASE BALL.

SHARKEY WILL UMPIRE.

Word was received from President Pousford this morning to the effect that he had appointed Sharkey to umpire the game here on Thursday and at Woodstock Saturday.

WOODSTOCK TOMORROW.

Ingersoll and Woodstock will play at Victoria Park tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock. This will be the last chance Ingersoll will have at Woodstock this year on their own diamond and a determined effort will be made to defeat them. Eddie Taylor will pitch for Ingersoll and Steiger will, no doubt, do the twirling for Woodstock.

WOODSTOCK WON IN THE TENTH.

Carey's lucky two-bagger and Burn's clean single won yesterday's game for Woodstock in the tenth innings. The game was one of the best seen here this year and was witnessed by a fair crowd. Read and Bussey were the opposing pitchers and while the hits were about an even break, the "slobber-ball artist" kept the hits scattered better than Read. Bussey was given big league support. McDonell got what looked like a two-bagger in the second from Robert's bat, and in the same innings Carey made a beautiful running catch of a short fly from Bell's bat. Anthony also cut off a hit in the fifth by a fast fielding stunt.

The Ingersoll players made three errors, but not one of them figured in the run column, the leaders therefore earned their victory. Cross' circus stop of a hot grounder in the fifth saved his team two runs.

Ingersoll started out well, scoring one in the first on singles by Ross and H. Taylor and Cross' sacrifice. Bussey gave them only three hits during the next six innings. In the eighth, Read, first man up, walked. Ross hit safe, advancing the pitcher to second. Cross' bunt advanced both runners a base. Williams singled between first and second, scoring both Read and Ross. Williams went to third on a passed ball, but died at the third corner, the next two batters being retired. In the ninth after Bell and Robert were out Graham drew a base on balls, purloined second. Read singled over second, but Graham was thrown out at the plate. With two down Graham should have had a better lead off second and scored when Read singled.

Two hits and an infield out gave Woodstock their first run in the third. Reid's single, Daniel's double and an infield out game them two more in the fourth. For five innings the best the leaders could do was to get one man as far as third base. In the tenth they won the game by a double and a single. The score:

Two base hits—Daniels, Carey, H. Taylor. Sacrifice hits—Cross 2, Daniels. Left on bases — Ingersoll, 7; Woodstock 8. Base on balls—off Bussey 3, off Read 1. Struck out — by Bussey 7, (Cross, H. Taylor, E. Taylor 2, Robert, Graham); by Read 4, (Reid, Daniels, De Tamble, Bussey.) Time (including stop)—2.10. Umpires —Arnold, Sharkey.

ARNOLD HAD TROUBLE.

The inevitable happened at yesterday's ball game. Arnold came here to umpire and he got into trouble. Trouble of some kind was sure to come and the most surprising thing in connection with the occurrence is that Arnold was not seriously hurt. The better judgment of some of the Ingersoll players and spectators saved the "little fellow" a "ducking in the pond." Arnold was told not to come to Ingersoll. After his "work" at Woodstock on Labor Day he could not expect a very cordial reception from Ingersoll fans, and he should have stayed away. The trouble started when Ingersoll was at bat in the third. Bussey objected to using the ball which was in play, claiming that some drug had been put on it. The ball was thrown out of the diamond two or three times by Bussey and was returned by some of the Ingersoll players. Then Burns got the sphere and threw it "out of the park." H. Taylor, who was acting captain of the Ingersoll team, went out to the umpire and demanded that the ball be put back in play. Arnold refused to use it and threatened to put Taylor out of the game. At the threat Taylor tweaked the official's nose. Then Bussey "butted in" and he and Taylor "mixed it." In an instant the spectators rushed out on the diamond and a general mix-up ensued, but fortunately no one was seriously hurt. Arnold got out of the crowd which was jostling him about, and made a race for a buggy, which was driven by a Woodstock man. The driver whipped up the horse. The crowd realized what would happen if the umpire got away —he would forfeit the game to Woodstock. A number of them gave chase and when Arnold saw that the rig would be headed off he jumped and "took to the highway," on foot, the crowd following some distance behind. He was finally overtaken. Fortunately a couple of "cool heads" got him first and they assured him that he would not be hurt, if he would return and finish the game. Some of the more excited ones in the crowd would have cuffed his ears, but they were persuaded to keep in the back-ground and let the "cooler heads" run the show. Arnold was brought back to the diamond and he showed "all kinds of nerve." He was going to forfeit the game to Woodstock. He, however, changed his mind and agreed to ask Sharkey, who was in the stand, to finish the game for him. This was agreed to by the Woodstock team, and the game proceeded without further trouble.

As soon as the game started Arnold got out of the park and he was last seen walking east on Charles street, presumably to Woodstock, where he has more friends than in Ingersoll.

The whole affair was unfortunate but nothing else could be expected, and as stated above, the most surprising part of it is that Arnold did not get roughly handled.

When the trouble started "Red" Murray of the Woodstock team, took to his heels and made a new record for foot racing, out the front gate and down Canterbury street. When play was resumed the Woodstock players found they were shy a third-baseman. Steiger was put in the field and De Tamble played third. When Murray returned he tried to get back in the game but Sharkey would not allow it.

The Woodstock Board of Health purpose taking up with the city council the question of garbage disposal. At present there is no system for doing the work, and, in the opinion of the health authorities, it is not conducive of the good health of the city. It is probable that the work will be under the control of the sanitary inspector and the work done by contract.

Guard Against Germs

Keep Well by Strengthening the Stomach in Summer With Mi-o-na.

Everyone with weak digestion should use Mi-o-na at this season and so strengthen the stomach that disease germs can have no effect whatever. This remarkable remedy puts the whole digestive system in so healthy, clean and sweet a state that fermentation of the food cannot exist, that any disease germs which may enter the stomach will be destroyed and food will be so rapidly assimilated that a rapid and healthy increase in flesh will result.

Nervousness and sleeplessness come more often from a weak stomach than from any other cause, headache, backache and rheumatic pains are directly caused by an acid condition of the stomach. Mi-o-na corrects all this, and nervousness, kidney trouble, or rheumatism, is quickly cured.

Ask John E. Gayfer to show you the guarantee under which he sell Mi-o-na. Price 50c. It costs nothing unless it cures.

Treat with scientific physicians and be cured. Avoid quacks. E. A. Sidney, of Toledo, says: "At the age of 14, I learned a bad habit and at 19 contracted a serious disease. I treated with a dozen doctors, who all promised to cure me. They got my money and I still had the disease. I had given up hope when a friend advised me to consult Drs. K. & K., who had cured him. Without any confidence I called on them, and Dr. Kennedy agreed to cure me or no pay. After taking the New Method Treatment for six weeks I felt like a new man. The drains ceased, wormy veins disappeared, nerves grew stronger, hair stopped falling out, urine became clear and my sexual organs vitalized.
