From the men the largest possible service at the lowest possible cost. The remedy which will prove largely effective is the reform of our industrial system in which no man will be driven to sell his services at the terrible risk and the slavish hours and burdens now common to railroad employment.

RALPH SMITH'S FAREWELL
At Nanaimo recently the members of the Miners' union, and a friend of Ralph Smith, M. P., gave a farewell smoker in his honor.

He had made up his mind that so long as his services were appreciated by his constituents no material benefit that could be offered was big enough to take him from their interests.

BOOTS and SHOES
In order to make room for our Spring Goods we will clear off the stock of our Winter Goods at a sacrifice. All lines of Felt Boots and Slippers, shoes, etc., at less than bargain hunters' prices.
