ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., SEPT. 25, 1901.

THE KHAKI MEN.

The South African soldiers who insisted on wearing their khaki uniforms when they received their medals at Ottawa certainly showed a clear sense of the fitness of things than the department which ordered each to wear the uniform of the militia corps to which he belonged.

Probably the men at St. John will feel like obeying the order if it is insisted on, but if they do the result may be more spectacular than edifying. A man who does not belong to any corps will of course be free to wear what he chooses. As the men are called up in alphabetical order it might happen that the first would appear in the uniform of the hussars, the second in civilian costume, the third in artillery uniform, the fourth in khaki, the fifth in civilian dress, the sixth in the dress of the engineers or infantry—and so on.

One can imagine the incongruous effect of such a parade. It is said that his royal highness has a keen sense of humor, and perhaps he is fond of comic opera. One can imagine a lurking smile stealing away and losing itself in the royal beard as the varied costumes passed in review before him.
The effect would be much more pleasing and the men no doubt, better satisfied if they were permitted to appear in khaki uniform. It is an important of the South African contingent, and not as hussars, artillerymen, infantrymen or civilians that they receive the honor to be conferred.

The order issued by the militia department must doubtless be obeyed by all returned members of the contin-gent who belong to militia corps, but those who are not now in such positions should not be ordered to dress in a manner to suit Gen. O'Grady-Italy.
Would it not be a courteous act for those entitled to medals to be excused from parade with their respective corps in order that all might turn out in a body and receive their medals in the uniform in which they were earned?
Let the costume suit the event.

MAJOR MAUDE'S OPPORTUNITY.

In addition to the other momentous duties devolving upon Major Maude, as a result of the royal visit, there seems a probability that he will have to deal with a question requiring deep theological acumen, and one that also seems to threaten international complications.

It appears that in Ottawa last Sunday the Duke and Duchess each placed a sovereign on the plate. These coins were removed by two wardens of the church, who wanted them as souvenirs, and who put two American five-dollar gold pieces in their place.
The theological question to be decided is whether the intent of the royal pair was not defeated by the substitution. As a sovereign is only worth $4.87 the church coffers would seem to be enriched by at least 25 cents by the exchange, but the latter was made without the knowledge or consent of the Duke or Duchess, and, therefore, the question arises whether or not the wardens have not been guilty of sin.

Another important phase of the question remains to be considered.
There appears, on the surface of the transaction, an implication that in the opinion of these wardens the sum of $4.87 in British money is worth as much in the eyes of the Lord as $5 in Yankee gold. As the facts have been published in the press there seems little doubt that they will come to the knowledge of President Roosevelt and his advisors, and the British foreign office may therefore be interrogated on the subject.

It will thus be seen that the task before Major Maude is no light one.
The Star hopes that he will be able to settle the theological question to the satisfaction of the ecclesiastical authorities and also to avert war. He has already displayed so much ability that one Ontario paper hopes he will be created a duke. If he can deal with this new trouble successfully he ought to be made an ambassador, with at least twenty-six letters after his name.
That would exhaust the alphabet, but he would deserve them all.

The British colonial office is said to have become aroused to the consideration of the trend of emigration from the old country. The fact that the large portion of the emigrants go to the United States rather than to British colonies, is regarded as an undesirable state of affairs, and a dispatch informs that the government may in the near future, see its way clear to co-operate with the colonial governments in offering inducements to intending emigrants to go to British instead of foreign countries.

A cable from London says that a number of persons interested in the Australian trade have determined to visit the Australian exhibition in London in 1902. In addition to other products a special effort will be made to remove the British prejudice against frozen meat. The exhibition, it is explained, is intended to develop a permanent establishment which is to be devoted to the promotion of the Australian trade.

OTTAWA.

OTTAWA, Sept. 24.—There was something like consternation in the census office today when it was learned that one of the clerks, named R. F.
Jamieson, who hails from P. B. Island, had been sent to the hospital suffering from smallpox. All the clerks employed in the same office, about 50 in number, will be vaccinated and the offices in the building are being thoroughly fumigated tonight.

One more fortunate grief member has stepped from the house of commons to the bench, Fortin, M. P., having been appointed a superior court judge of Quebec.

Capt. J. J. Bull and Maj. L. G. G.
McLennan, of the 6th Regiment, are authorized to attend the Canadian school of musketry for the course of instructions which commenced on the 2nd instant.

St. Louis Davies said good-bye to the militia department of marine and fisheries this afternoon. Mont-new judge will be sworn in at the opening session of the supreme court next Tuesday.

As a result of the visit to Cape Race light station, of Col. Anderson, chief engineer of the marine department, and in accordance with his recommendation the fog whistle there will be changed on November 1st to give double blasts of five seconds at intervals of one minute. Thus there will be a blast of five seconds, silent five seconds, blast five seconds, silent forty-five seconds.

Consequent upon the death of John Hawley, for many years chief clerk in the department of marine and fisheries, Cameron Stanton has been appointed to the vacancy.

W. C. Gordon, private secretary to Mr. Louis Davies for the past three years, has been appointed a first class clerk.

The harbor commission of Mont-new have asked for an investigation into the grounding of the warship Indefatigable in the St. Lawrence river last week. Almost the last official act of the late Davies was to cause a telegram to be sent to Admiral Be-ford appraising him of the request and asking whether in the event of a court of enquiry being ordered the officers and men of the warship could be counted upon as witnesses.

THE TWO SCOURGES. ALCOHOL AND MORPHINE. AN ANTIDOTE DISCOVERED.

A recent remarkable discovery in medicine which has been found to annihilate the appetite for alcoholic drugs, and also to destroy the morphine habit, is a discovery of a good deal of attention among those interested in temperance work. The medicine is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless and absolutely free from narcotic.
It leaves no after effects and can be carried in the pocket and taken in absolute privacy, thus dispensing with the publicity, loss of time and expense of an institute treatment.

The medicine has been tested and is vouched for by "The Vicar of St.
Michael's," Rev. Father Quintin, Rev.
Joseph Egger, Rev. R. L. Fitzgerald, Rev. Father Strubbe, Rev.
Father McAllen, Rev. M. Gaughan, Rev. Father O'Connell, Rev. Father Gault, Rev. Father Augustus, Rev. W.
Ham, S. S. J., Sister Ethelburga, and many others.

Full particulars regarding this medicine can be obtained by writing to Mr.
Dixon, No. 31 Wilkes Street, Toronto, Canada.

MELODY-PARKER.

A very happy event took place at the residence of Samuel W. Belyea, Middle street, Carleton, last evening, when his granddaughter, Miss Amanda B.
Parker, was wedded to J. Ernest Melody, of the Sun mechanical shop, and proprietor of the King's Dining Room.
The ceremony was performed by Rev.
B. N. Nobles. About fifty of the friends of the young couple were present, and the wedding was a most pleasant occasion.

LOCKE "NOT FIT."

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 24.—Some time ago Sidney Locke, one of the most prominent men in western Nova Scotia, killed his three children at Lockeport by shooting. He was arraigned today before Judge Meagher and a jury on a charge of murder.
Evidence was put in to show that Locke was insane. This jury after being out fifteen minutes, returned a verdict of not fit, meaning that owing to insanity the prisoner was not in a condition to be tried. He will be left for the governor to confine in some place until such time as he becomes fit to stand trial.

PERSONAL.

Miss Grace Irvine, daughter of John Irvine of Millville, left for Carleton place for a visit on Saturday. Miss Irvine will spend some time in Boston and will then go to New York. She is the daughter of Frederick Irvine of the City of New York.

Mr. W. H. Smith, who has been in Halifax and Toronto, returned home yesterday. Mr. Smith was in Montreal during the recent session of the royal functions in connection with Her Majesty's visit.

CANADIAN CASUALTIES.
MONTREAL, Sept. 24.—The Star's London cable says: Canadian Capt.
J. H. (John) Douglas was killed at Oster's Rock on Sept. 18. Capt. J. H.
Douglas was a member of the 1st Battalion of the Canadian Trenchers.

HALIFAX LOVE STORY.

A Young Woman, a Harvard Graduate, a Detective and a Revolver.
Make the Story.

HALIFAX, Sept. 24.—Halifax has a sensation in which a runaway young woman, a Harvard university graduate, Detective Power and a revolver played important parts. The Harvard graduate, whose name is William, Dr.
Tullo, and whose place of residence is Boston, came here yesterday. He was dramatically in love with a young woman, named Eva Gordon, and he came to Halifax to find her. He had learned that she had left Boston to get clear of him, and he decided to follow her.
She arrived here Sunday evening. He came armed and finally located the girl at the residence of her relatives.
He was very much excited when he called at the house. He threatened the young woman that if she did not marry him he would shoot her. The girl did not want to marry him and left Boston to get clear of him.

When he called at the house where Miss Gordon took refuge here, he demanded to see her. He was told that the girl was not in the house. He then made use of threats and the occupants of the house took from his remarks that falling marriage he would shoot the girl. They sent for Detective Power, and this morning the couple made up and took the D. A. R. train for Boston. Miss Gordon deciding to marry Dr. Tullo immediately on their arrival there.

SUCCESSFUL MASS MEETING.

A very successful mass meeting, under the auspices of the local union of Christian Endeavor, was held last evening in Esplanade street Methodist church. The attendance was very large. After a service of song there was scripture reading by Rev. Mr.
Sellar, prayer by Rev. Mr. Potheringham, a solo by Harry Brown, an address by Rev. C. E. Bowman, subject, Spiritual Forces, selections by male quartette, consecration service, led by Rev. Mr. Eberman. Rev. Mr. Potheringham took occasion to refer to the work of the Lord's Day Alliance, with which the Endeavorers have expressed deep sympathy. He told of their effort to have a commission appointed to investigate the present condition of affairs, the appointment of Premier Tweedie to hold such an investigation, and the effort they will make to see that in the future the law is properly observed.

NOVA SCOTIA BRIG ABANDONED.

BOSTON, Sept. 24.—The British brig May, telegraphed to the Admiralty, was abandoned at sea on Sept. 13 and the crew taken on board the barkentine Kromlin, which arrived here today. The Kromlin was from Buenos Ayres, and fell in with the distressed brig in 42° 23' north, 66° 35' west.
The brig had four feet of water in her hold and was slowly sinking. She was from Lunenburg, and was carrying a cargo of fish and lumber, sailing Aug. 23. Capt.
Lyle reports that on Sept. 13 a hurricane battered the brig and she was unable to begin to open, and heavy seas continued to flood the cabin so that the crew were kept at the pumps continually for eight days, when the Kromlin was sighted.

HIJ PUNISHMENT.

The man who had recked the boat and turned it bottom upward was clinging desperately to its slippery keel.
Half an hour passed away.
"I can't hold on any longer!" he gasped.
"Then suppose you let yourself down and wade out," suggested the other men, who had been standing on the ground all the time, and apparently struggling to keep his head above water. "It's only four and a half feet deep here—I am sorry to say."—The Chicago Tribune.

STUPID OF HIM.

(The King.)
She—if you could have one wish, George, what would it be?
He—it would be that—that—that—Oh, if I dared tell you what it would be!
She—Oh, please go on. Do tell me.
He—I dare not; but, oh, if I, only could!
She—Well, what don't you? What do you suppose I brought the wishing subject up for?

SMALLPOX AT HALIFAX.

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 24.—Two cases of smallpox were discovered in a Lockport street house in the west end.
They contracted it from two seamen who lodged there and who afterwards were found on a D. A. R. train. The children have been sent to the infectious diseases hospital.

BIG CATTLE SHIPMENT.

TORONTO, Sept. 24.—The largest shipment of export cattle ever made from this city was sent out today by Joseph Gould. It consisted of 58 cars, or two full train loads. Over a thousand head, averaging 1,400 pounds, valued at $48,000. The shipment goes to Boston and thence by the steamer Northman to Liverpool.

LIFE OF GLADSTONE.

John Morley is getting on but slowly with his life of Gladstone. He has thus far done little besides sorting the accumulation of papers at Hawarden.
"Imagine a life of nearly ninety years full to the utmost capacity!" says Mr.
Morley in response to an inquiry as to the progress he is making.

HE WAS HAPPY.

"Too good for me," Brown called on you last evening. I don't suppose you got a chance to open your mouth.
—Jame—Oh yes, frequently; but it didn't do any good. He didn't pay any attention to my yawns.—Philadelphia Press.
