

POOR DOCUMENT

MC 2034

MONDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1905.

One thing as much as another that gratifies us is to have men who know clothing come here and buy 20th Century Brand, fine tailored garments. Commercial travellers come continually in contact with many different makes of clothing and know "what's what." When they put the stamp of approval on our Suits and Overcoats it makes us more enthusiastic than ever in favor of 20th Century Brand. Our method of handling Ready-to-wear clothing, in wardrobes, and the light expense attached to the department, enables us to give superior value at the prices of ordinary Ready-made. Suits and Overcoats, $10 to $25; some special lines at $3.50.

THE REMEDY IN A NUTSHELL.

To the Editor of the Star: Sir,—In dealing with the bad boys of this city I think it would be a good thing to adopt the Curfew Law to compel all boys and girls below fourteen years of age to be in their homes by nine o'clock at night, unless their parents or guardians. This the police could do and then they would have less trouble with them. It is a scandalous thing for children to be out at night and their parents not know where they are and they are stealing every time they get a chance. It has been tried in several American cities and worked well and I don't see why it would not work here. This would work well with a compulsory school law, such as they have in Halifax. CURFEW.
