tev. Henry Dickie, Janet k, Scotland, to John R. . Dyson Hague assisted by hev. Wm. B. Armstrong, Pryor. Rev. James A. Porter as-in D. We:more, William Porter.

v. Geggie, William Rupert terson, of Upper Stewiacke.

ED.

urke, o. s Sears.
Tait, 74,
ohnston.
orpey, 37.
Brunt, 25.
Geezer, 54.
Hennigan.
Dwyer, 73.
bie Mitchel'.
McKay 17. McBride, 75.
McIntosh, 27,
A. Botsford, 39.
McAdam, 55.
d A. Ferguson.
ge Hamilon, 54.
h H. Mellish, 16. h H. Mellish, 16.

ock T. Vye, 84.

dt H. Wilson, 32.

ite M. McCarthy.

rietta G. Gale, 16.

George A. Shtes,
S. Normansell, 70.

Mary Crosby, 73.

(argary Larkin, 87.

ret Ann Fraser, 31.

m Abel Tingley, 49.

deatrice Salkus, 15.

line L. Ketchum, 55.

ora McEachern, 76.

ames A. S'ubbert, 40.

ia Maria Ketchum, 69.

widow of John Antworth,

31, Elizabeth, widow of Francis, son of Alex and Rev. Mr. Archilles, J. y Hudson.

TOBACCO GANY Hamilton

NESS.

IPTION ottles of medicine sent Free ad Post Office address. T, selaide Street, Teronto, Offi

those who are quick to exavent theories, and to find motives where there may be only purely accidental coincidence. So it en in this case, and the rumors are the greater from the fact that Mr. Cogswell was one of the best known and most land. He was a devont churchman, of quiet disposition, with cultivated tastes, and of a gentlemanly bearing which impressed all who met him. His courteous demeanor provoked no antagonism, and be had no enemies. He was considered scrupulously exact in his business transactions, and his word had only to be given to be accepted without doubt. He lived a peaceful and apparently a happy lite amid pleasent surdings. His home, "Marshlands," was on Bridge street, near the business centre of the village. It was a roomy mansion on a gentle slope of grass land, while the handsome trees made beautiful the street which ran along the front of the grounds. On this street near the gate of the grounds was the shall wooden building used as an office.

Mr. Cogswell was a man about 70 years old, and had been known for a long period as the agent of the great Crane estate. He had a number of other business interests, however, and chief among these was the Enterprise foundry, or the Colonal, as it He was also interested in several of the Moncton enterprises of the past and present, some of which have proved rather unfortunate investments for all concerned. It was as the agent of the to the general public, for the name of that estate is largely interwoven with the history

The Hon. Wm. Crane was a pioneer Sackville merchant and one of the noted public men of New Brunswick, half a century or so ago. He represented West-morland for many years, and was the owner of a very large amount of real estate. A man of great wealth, he had many singular characteristics, some of which are current as traditions, though it is forty years or so since he died. His residence was the substantial stone mansion at the head of Bridge street, known in later years as the residence of Josiah Wood, M. P. It is called Crane's corner to this d y an English lady, whose marriage to him seems to have been the one romantic incident of his life. While on a business trip to England, he was taking a ride in the county, when he was thrown from his horse and broke his leg. The accident happened near the residence of a gentleman who had him taken thither and cared for until he recovered from his injuries. During his ter of the house, to who whom he was afterwards married. On the death of Mr. Crane, his widow and children r turned to England where the hirs of the estate

One of these heirs, Mr. William Grand, recently arrived in Sackville, and was to have a business conference with Mr. Cogswell on the day the latter mysteriously disappeared. This coincidence has naturally occasioned talk, whether justly or not. It is One of these heirs, Mr. William Crane. alleged that Mr. Cogswell's business affairs have been in a very unsatisfactory condition, and that he has been much worried and depressed of late. A severe illness, some time ago, seemed to affect his mind to a

SACKVILLES MYSTERY.

**THE STRANGE DISAPPEARABES O'
**DIVADO OOSSWALE.**

One of the Mondy merning, about 10 o'clock, and has not since been seen, though himself ook willing searchers have been engaged night and day setching to find some trays of him. A hat, believed to be his, was logalf losting on the city and first believe is that Mr. Cogswell has gone to his believe that Thomas Patterson is correct when says he saw Mr. Cogswell to chaplence.

Sackville in a Data Luc, and the believis that Mr. Cogswell has gone to his death, though in what manner has yet to be explained.

Sackville is a place gossip readily circulates, and all kinds of rumors and suppositions have been current. To give publicity to these in the absence of positive knowledge would be premature, if not unjeat. Few men can disappear mysteriously and leave no grounds on which detrice that the below of the theory and to the below of the theory and the company with Paddy Ryan in the dramatic outly and leave no grounds on which detrice that the observation of the below of the below of the theory and the positions have been current. To give publicity to these in the absence of positive knowledge would be premature, if not unjeat. Few men can disappear mysteriously and leave no grounds on which detrice that the below ould not be the below ould not be the below of the theory that the body out into the bay. Like all the diddivers the theory that the body out into the bay, the diddent the theory was the body out into the bay, the diddid from the company with Paddy Ryan in the dramatic outly and leave no grounds on which details of the body out into the bay, the diddid ivers at the head of the bay, the diddid notives where there may be and to find motives where there may be an at a contract to the proposition of the advance in the contract of the contract of the company with Paddy Ryan in the dramatic outly and leave no grounds on which details of the proposition of the advance in the contract of the contract of the contract of the proposition of the adv the body out into the bay. Like all the tidal rivers at the head of the bay, the Tintamarre is narrow and deep, with a switt circuit. They desired to anjoy the privi-Tintamarre is narrow and deep, with a switt rush of water when the tides are entering or leaving.

circuit. They desired to 'njoy the privileges of self government, and they were willing to shoulder the responsibilities.

> after the dinner hour had passed. Inquires were then made, but there was no trace of him around the village, and when it was learned he had failed to keep a business ap-pointment he had made for ten o'clock that morning his tamily and triends became greatly alarmed. In a man of such regumust mean that something very unusual had happened. Upon turther inquiry it was learned he had been seen walking on the mursh in the vicinity of the river, during the learned he had been seen walking on the mursh in the vicinity of the river, during the learned he had been seen walking on the mursh in the vicinity of the river, during the learned he had been seen walking on the must be lore the district meeting which was held recently, and there they asked to be established into a separate circuit.
>
> They met with opposition from the lar and punctual habits such circumstance s ing the forenoon. As it was not an un-usual thing for him to wal x on the marshes, and his health not being good, it was thought at first he might have taken ill and would be found prostrated on the ground, but a thorough patrolling of the marsh made by hundreds of willing friends failed to find him. It was then believed he must in the day. One report was that he was walking on the railway track, but a man so well known as he could not go far in any direction without being recognized by many different parties. It seems certain he did not go away by any train. The almost positive conclusion is that he is no longer alive. Acting on this beliet a very diligent search of the river and shore is being made by large and well organized Should the worst that is feared prove to be true, there will be an earnest and widespread teeling of sorrow. How Mr. Cogswell met his death, it he is dead, may never be known. Even should the body whether his fate was the result of some ac cident, such as might betsll anybody, or whether, laboring under temporary aberration, he compassed his own fate. In any case, his loss will be regretted, and a very deep sympathy will be left for the family so suddenly and terribly bereaved.

upon them. In one house there are two pussies each of which is a genius in its way.

time like a trained dog and brings them into the barn-yard. The younger cat, unsed to the novelty of motherhood, deserted her own kittens to adopt a hatching of deserted kittens lay. In another house the old tom-cat eats raw potatoes and consid-

A Holiday Pointer.

Taose wishing a pointer on how to enjoy the holiday, July 1st, should read the sail from St. John to Hampton, and it the law in great things it is culpable also should be patronized by all pleasure seek-

The Orangemen go to Partridge Island Dominion day and promise an excellent days outing for all who attend. The boats considerable extent, and while he had always been a little peculiar in his ways, he had of late acted in such a marked way as to occasion some slight anxiety among those who knew him best.

Dominion day and promise an excellent Paul's, Halifax. It gives a large percentage of the total contributions to the enterage of the contributions to the enterage of the church of England in Nova are to make half hourly trips and a good prises of the church of England in Nova programme of amusements has been arranged.

Sootia. This church annually gives between $12,000 and 13,000 for religious leaving.

Mr. Cogswell appeared to be in his usual health of body and mind when he latt his home Monday morning. He gave no intimation of where he was going, nor was and the church has been progressive. Rev. Mr. Shenton, of Exmouth street, exercises when affairs of the church, supervision over the affairs of the church, and though they have found nothing objectionable in his connection with them, they have felt that they would sooner be free from oversight.

They considered the matter carefully and to find him. It was then believed have disappeared in the river.

As usual in such cases, there are rumo s in their told.

At the district meeting therefore, they are strengusly. Many be-

At the district meeting therefore, they opposed the step strenously. Many belonging to other city courches were in tavor of dividing the Exmouth street circuit, and they supported the request of the Zion church people. The district meeting concurred with the proposition to establish a new circuit, and mide a recent reliable to the same than the hard an offer of $1,300 from the Cincing scheme for reduction of cflicial salaries. So they recommended that the salary be reduced to $1,000 and commissions and that the harbor master pay his own clerk. The first was the proposition to his first appearance as a boxer was at the Dudley street, opera house, Boston, when he was nineteen years old. Here is how he describes the events.

"I was working at tinsmithing then, and had no tights nor had made any arrangements for boxing, but simply took off my controlled to $1,000 and commissions and that the harbor master pay his own clerk. The city was the evident gainer to the extent of $500.

Captain Taylor's clerk is credited with the proposition to his first appearance as a boxer was at the Dudley street, opera house, Boston the city, to pay every be reduced to $1,000 and commissions and that the harbor master pay his own clerk. The city was the evident gainer to the extent of $500.

Captain Taylor's clerk is credited with a city of pay every some the city, to pay every the head of the city, to pay every was the city was the evident gainer to the extent of $500.

Captain Taylor's clerk is credited with a city of pay every the head of the city, to pay every event the city to pay every the head of the city, to pay every the head of the city to pay every event the arrangement of the harbor master pay his own clerk. The city was the evident gainer to the extent of $500.

Captain Taylor's clerk is credited with a city to pay every the head of the cit meeting concurred with the proposition to establish a new circuit, and made a recommendation to the conference to that

The members of the quarterly board of Exmouth street have been busy presenting their side of the case. They have held days, when it was decided to send a delegation to Marysville to oppose the move. It has been learned that the conference did not pass the recommendation of the district, meeting, to establish a separate circuit. The matter come before them early in the week and there were present nembers of the Exmouth street quarterly board to oppose the measure. The whole proposition was to form into one circuit Zion church Millidgeville and one of the city missions with Dr. Wilson as pastor.

the circuit.

most live ones to St. John methodists that has come before the conference.

HALIFAX. June 27.—The last of the batch of non-license paying hackman came she could be kept from carrying the old turkey's brood away to the box where the Monday. McPhee was not on the list of protected culprits; he pleaded "guilty" and was fined $5. After imposing the magistrate gave a parting shot at the mayor and those who had been instrumental in old tom-cat eats raw potatoes and considers them a delicacy. In still another, the head of the feline family lights on the door knob when he wants the door opened. Altogether Carsonville makes a specialty of cats; and yet there are not many old maids to justify this cat-idolatry. for interfering with the first administration of law and that some civic dignitaries in Halifax might find themselves in peril if joy the holiday, July 1st, should read the steamer Clifton's announcement in the issue. No excursion can surpass the beautiful the fact that if it is wrong to seek to evade

> Low Churches Stand High, Hylifax, June 27.—The most liberal episcopal church in this diocese is St. Paul's, Halifax. It gives a large percent-victories, Sullivan issued his challenge "to fight any man breathing, for any sum from wharves. $1,000 to $20,000, catch weight. This challenge is especially directed to Paddy Ryan "

JOHN L. SULLIVAN.

A Wanderer Who Wandered HALIFAX, June 27 .- That was a melancholy occurrence at the Wanderers' grounds on Saturday afternoon, when two or three of the club members, acting with Detective Power, discovered a fellow member stealing from the pockets of clothing belonging to men at play on the field. And the young man is well connected too. For some time articles had been missed, and a trap was set on this occasion. While the pavilion was apparently vacant, eyes in ambush were keen. Soon they saw a club-man at a pocket where they had placed marked money. They sprang from their hiding and the detective took the young man. No proceedings will be instituted and it is sincerely to be hoped that this will be a lesson which will never be forgotten by the young fe'low. It is never too late to mend; let him turn over a new leaf

An unusual pressure on the columns of of Paggaess this week compells the omission of the social and personal notes from

WHERE A REFORM HIT.

THEY SHOT AT CAPT. TAYLOR AND HIS CLERK SUFFERS.

There was a great cloud of dust on the first day of May 1894, when his worship the mayor made his inaugural address. The era of reform had come and there The era of reform had come and there was to be a general sweeping and garnishing of all the civic departments. His worship suggested, as a "pleasing duty," a thorough enquiry into every department of the city government, with a view to the abolition of all unnecessary offices and expenditures, but ventured the opinion that no "cheese-paring" should be made in the salaries of faithful, competent and hard working offlials.

The investigation was to be made at the months in the task of finding out what was going on in the various departments and among the efficials. Having done this they, with an appreciation of the fitness of things, sent the council two valentines, of that other young man who not long ago left Halilax after a residence here of about three months. He lived in great style, were comictones, for they showed that all 14th of Feburary last. The valentines were comic ones, for they ahowad that all the investigation, had ended in finding nothing 3; which needed investigation. Only one official had his salary pared, and he was the harbor master. R'IF BUF
That gentleman is Captain Charles S.

That gentleman is Captain Charles 5.

Taylor, who has held the position for more than 21 years, and has been at least a "faithful and competent," if not a "hard working" cflicial. Before the committee $10 to $20 per head on his guests in the They considered the matter carefully and at length decided to take action. They therefore went before the district meeting which was held recently, and there they asked to be established into a separate circuit.

They met with opposition from the members of Exmouth street church, who preterred that things should be as they were. They were alraid that their strength as a church would be diminished by the separation of Zion into a new circuit. People might be drawn away from their congregation, and they lelt that with the large church they have, accommodating 1,200 and they lelt that with the large church they have, accommodating 1,200 and they lelt that with the large church they have, accommodating 1,200 and they lelt that with the large church they have, accommodating 1,200 and they lelt that with the large church they have, accommodating 1,200 and they lelt that with the large church they have, accommodating 1,200 and they lelt that with the large church they have, accommodating 1,200 and they lelt that with the large church they have, accommodating 1,200 and they lelt that with the large church they have, accommodating 1,200 and they lelt that with the large church they have, accommodating 1,200 and they lelt that with the large church they have, accommodating 1,200 and they lelt that with the large church they have, accommodating 1,200 and they lelt that with the large church they have, accommodating 1,200 and they lelt that with the large church they have, accommodating 1,200 and they lelt that with the large church they have, accommodating 1,200 and they lelt that with the large church they have, accommodating 1,200 and they lelt that with the large church they have, accommodating 1,200 and they lelt that with the large church they have, accommodating 1,200 and they lelt that with the large church they have, accommodating 1,200 and they lelt that with the large church they have, accommodating 1,200 and they lelt that with the large church the deficit and otherwise in the city. These commissions of recent got after him he was in receipt of a salary shape of a loan to him.

> ments for boxing, but simply took off my coas, rolled up my shirt sleeves, and put on the gloves. When we put up our hands hash and the first thing I did was to punch him as hard as I could, knocking him clean over the piano which was on the stage. Tais was the first actual experience of the stage. The same than the same t mine at boxing, and I never lorget this experience, nor do I think he will."
>
> In December, 1880, after several minor
>
> mittee began its work of reform. It was little enough for the work of daily attendence at the effice and miles of weary tramp-should be kept as quiet as possible. The ing to collect revenues from the public > taken the view that his clerk should have Ryan declined to notice him as a foeman his salary reduced as well. He therefore worthy of his knuckles, and Sullivan set lowered the total of it to $400, at which it the same stage in St. John will be an event of unusual interest to many classes of citizens.

>
> worse off then ne was before the reduction. Probably the committee had an idea that they were reducing the harber master's salary to the extent of $500, not and Queen Squares, and the question arises the same of the same stage in St. John will be an idea that they were reducing the harber master's salary to the extent of $500, not and Queen Squares, and the question arises the same stage in St. John will be an idea that they were reducing the harber master's salary to the extent of $500, not and Queen Squares, and the question arises the same stage in St. John will be an idea that they were reducing the harber may be a supplied to the same stage in St. John will be an idea that they were reducing the harber may be a supplied to the same stage in St. John will be an idea that they were reducing the harber may be a supplied to the same stage in St. John will be an idea that they were reducing the harber may be a supplied to the same stage in St. John will be an idea that they were reducing the harber may be a supplied to the same stage in St. John will be an idea that they were reducing the harber may be a supplied to the same stage in St. John will be an idea that they were reducing the harber may be a supplied to the same stage in St. John will be an idea that they were reducing the harber may be a supplied to the same stage in St. John will be an idea that they were reducing the harber may be a supplied to the same stage in St. John will be an idea that they were reducing the harber may be a supplied to the same stage in St. John will be an idea that they were reducing the harber may be a supplied to the same stage in St. John will be an idea that they were reducing the harber may be a supplied to the same stage in St. John will be an idea that they were reducing the harber may be a supplied to the same stage in St. John will be a supplied to the same stage in St. John will be a supplied to the same stage in St. John supposing that he would make his clerk bear part of the burden. They may have puted to be wealthy, he would manage to to that of the chamberlain without finding it necessary to make a reduction of the salary of his subordinate. He has done so,

> > As already stated the committee found the the commissions in 1893 were $1,083. Last year they were $1,106. This year there is every reason to believe they will be much large s, because of the unusual number of large vessels in port so far this season. It is estimated that the big ship Liverpoot, for instance, will pay about $500, while the Scottish Lochs, Senator and Attilla have yielded from $300 to $500 each, and doubting less others might be mentioned on the same category. This will be a good season for the harbor master, but none the better

PRICE FIVE CENTS

on that account for his clerk, unless (ap-

tain Taylor voluntarily raises the latter's:
salary. That, of course is a private matter with which the city has nothing to do.
The work of collecting the revenues, amounting to about $30,000 being chiefly done by the clerk, it seems a pity that the investigating committee had not considered that aspect of the subject in connection with the voluntion of the harden meeting. with the reduction of the harbor master's had no better result than to deprive a poor clerk, of a porticu of his none too large salery, without altering the fact that the harbor master is still one of the best paid! and least worked officials of the city.

DID NOT TALK ABOUT IT-

Halifax Makes a Distincton Between The Englishman [And The German.

HALIFAX. June 27.—The papers rang The investigation was to be made at the earliest possible moment. A committee was therefore appointed and spent nine months in the task of finding out what was on the strength to this story that he had: when he departed there were many mourn-ing creditors. One difference between the German and the Englishman was that when the latter departed his friends lost no time in paying all the debts of the fast-living should be kept as quiet as possible. The German is not wanted back while the

According to yesterday's Sun, the police The Crane estate, at present time consists chiefly of valuable marsh and farm land. Some years ago, idering the course of certain litigation, the money value of estate at 20,000 currency or about $2,10,000 and $2,120,000 currency or about $2,100,000 and $2,120,000 currency or about $2,100,000 and $2,120,000 currency or about $2,150,000 and $2,120,000 currency or about $2,150,000 and $2,150,000 and $2,150,000 and $2,150,000 and $2,150,000 and $2,000,000 es whether the police acted on Ald. Millidge's idea and chased the dog until it bear part of the burden. Iney may have had an idea that, as Captain Taylor was re-puted to be wealthy, he would manage to would do so and went to the beach to drown.

> "Go Across the Bay on Dominion Day." The Bay of Fundy S. S. Co,, will runs salary of his subordinate. He has done so, however, and that is how the only reduction of the tax reduction council has worked and all who have not yet attended one of This reduction affects the harbor master only as regards his fixed salary, which is now $1,000 where it was formerly $1,200. His commissions are as large as before, and possibly they will be larger this year. As already stated the committee found the the commissions in 1893 were $1.000.