THINGS OF VALUE.

"My mother-in-law has gone to the mountains." "You look pleased."

"Yes; but to admit she has found something that she can't walk over."

There never was, and never will be, a universal panacea, in one remedy for all ills to which flesh is heir—the very nature of many cures being such that were the germs of other and differently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient, what would relieve one ill, in turn would aggravate the other. We have, however, in Quinine Wine, when obtainable in a sound unadulterated state, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use, the latent systems are led into congeniality and strength by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restorative. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and, by tranquillizing the nerves, disposes to sound and refreshing sleep—imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which, being stimulated, courses throughout the veins, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result, strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased substance—result, improved appetite. Northern & Lyman of Toronto, have given to the public their superior Quinine Wine at the usual rate, and, raised by the opinion of scientists, this wine approaches nearest perfection of any in the market. All druggists sell it.

"I might have known better than to trust my money to that broker."

"Why so? I've seen appearances against him?"

"No, comfounded him! I've disappeared."

A PLEASANT MEDICINE—There are some pills which have no other purpose evidently than to set painful internal disturbances in the patient, adding to his troubles and perplexities rather than diminishing them. One might as well swallow some corrosive material. Farnesie's Vegetable Pills have no such disagreeable and injurious property. They are easy to take, are not unpleasant to the taste, and their action is mild and soothing. A trial of them will prove this. They offer peace to the dyspeptic.

"Mamma," said little Johnny at the breakfast table the other morning, "this butter is awful old, isn't it?"

"Why do you think it is old, dear? asked his mother."

"Oh, yes," replied Johnny, "I just found a grey hair in it."

Great Things From Little Causes Grow.—It takes very little to derange the stomach. The cause may be slight, a cold, something eaten or drunk, anxiety, worry, or some other simple cause. But if precautions be not taken, this simple cause may have most serious consequences. Many a chronically debilitated constitution today owes its destruction to simple causes not dealt with in their infancy. The digestive apparatus in a healthy condition and all will be well. Farnesie's Vegetable Pills are better than any other for the purpose.

Listen to my son! he pleaded. She glanced down at his nammoth cheeks and smiled. "It is loud enough to hear without listening."

Totally Deaf.—Mr. S. R. Crandell, Fort Perry, writes: "I contracted a severe cold last winter, which resulted in my becoming totally deaf in one ear and partially so in the other. After trying various remedies, and consulting several doctors, without obtaining any relief. I was advised to try Dr. THOMAS' EUCALYPTI AND GINGER."

He—I love the ground you walk on! She—I don't blame you. It's worth $900 a front foot.

So rapidly does lung irritation spread and deepen that often in a few weeks a simple cough culminates in tubercular consumption. Give heed to a cough, there is always danger in delay, get a bottle of Bickie's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, and cure yourself. It is a medicine unsurpassed for all throat and lung troubles. It is compounded from several herbs, each one of which stands at the head of the list as curing a special ailment in connection with consumption and all lung disease.

"After all" asserted the youthful machine politician, "I believe in 'ring' methods."

"Oh, George!" she cried, "this is so sudden."

Prescriptions

Are something that require the utmost care in dispensing. It has been my aim for the past nineteen years to procure the purest drugs and chemicals and then use the utmost care to dispense every prescription to the physician's entire satisfaction. When you feel ill do not run away with the idea that some quack nostrum would be best, but consult your family physician. Find the real cause of your trouble and have your prescriptions accurately dispensed from the purest drugs by the most competent dispensers of the reliable Pharmacy.
