The Mayor—We appear to get all ur street plant from the States. Could to these machines be obtained in lanada?

Com. Agar said there were no factories in Canada manufacturing street plant that he knew of, and it was defided to purchase the dryer.

Routine Business.

A letter was received from B. L. Grow on behalf of the organization of eithern opposing the paving by-law, saking permission to appear before the commissiners and state their views.

The Mayor suggested that the council receive the delegation Monday afternoon, and the matter was left in his hands.

A letter was received from the Victorian Order of Nurses, expressing thanks for funancial support.

Chargea Against Police Chief.

Crushed Stone Plant.

Mr. Smith, who is promoting a company to operate a crushed stone plant, appeared before the city and asked has whether his company would be able to get any contracts from the city for spread and the particular of the sound that it now cost the city to sum a street. He thought this was cheaper the manufacturing exception of the sound streets. He thought this was cheaper the manufacturing exception of the sound streets. A communication was received from the Social Service Council of Canada Nonaday and the sound streets.

The matter was laid over for future asking the city to send representatives to a convention at Toronto and was referred to the Mayor.

Chargea Against Police Chief.

Premier Fiemming's letter saying the government could not see its way to dismiss the chief of police without a fair investigation, and stating that if specific charges of a serious character were preferred against the Chief the government would order an investigation was presented.

Com, McLellan said he would have a resolution prepared by Monday for the consideration of the council. It would then be up to the council to act, or he would take action on his own account. Cortainly he would make specific charges.

The Mayor said that though council had acted collectively in endorsing the report sent to the government, yet since the automony of each department was recognized, the matter was one that properly concerned the Commissioner of Safety.

Com. McLellan thought the council should stand by him. From his point of view the charge of inefficiency was serious enough.

Harber Exhibition.

Council adjourned.

SARDINE COMPANY'S PLAN.

A letter was received from the Assistant Deputy Minister of Marine, stating that there would be an exhibition of maps and statistics in regard to harbors in London, England, and suggesting that if St. John wished to be represented, it would have to foot the bills. The matter was referred to the commissioner of harbors.
