EVERY PARISH UNITED BAPTISTS SELECTED SUPPLIED WITH OFFICERS FOR SIXTH DISTRICT A CLERGYMAN

Bishop Richardson Made This Announcement at Diocesan Committee Meeting.

The Church of England diocesan quarterly meetings continued in session yesterday afternoon in the Church of England Institute. At the meeting of the committee on the up-keep of the Cathedral, circular letters and envelopes were directed to be sent out to all the diocesan parishes as appointed by the Synod. Routine business was carried on at the meeting of the Board of Finance, presided over by the Bishop of Fredericton.

A meeting of the Board of Missions was held last evening, which was chiefly general business. Reports were received from the secretary of the sub-committee. A grant was made towards the work of visiting in the hospital and the mission work at East St. John under Archdeacon Raymond. During the meeting the Bishop said that every parish in the diocese was supplied with a clergyman.

The committee on theological study and the Board of Education will meet this morning and the sessions will close with a meeting of the executive.

The annual meeting of the Sixth Baptist District was continued all day yesterday in the Tabernacle church, Haymarket Square. The meetings were all well attended especially that one held in the evening when the church was crowded.

The evening session commenced at 7.15 o'clock with a song service followed by a devotional service led by Rev. W. F. Parker. After the reading of the minutes three excellent addresses were given on missions.

Rev. J. B. Ganong, newly appointed secretary for home missions, in speaking on that subject laid emphasis on the fact that home missions were too important to be neglected. Only with continued effort and perseverance could it be hoped to hold out and accomplish the great work at hand.

W. S. Tedford, a native of Windsor, N. B., and at present a missionary in Ravagada, India, gave an interesting address on foreign missions. He spoke at some length on political and domestic conditions in that country and his talk on the work of the mission proved most interesting.

Rev. Dr. H. T. DeWolfe of Acadia Seminary and University, Wolfville, N. S., spoke on the Grand Ligue mission. He made a strong appeal for young men to train as ministers and missionaries in a work so much needed now.

The election of officers for the ensuing year definitely decided on, in last evening's meeting, are as follows:

New Officers.
Chairman of the district—Rev. O. N. Chipman, Hampton.
Vice-chairman of the district—Rev. G. B. McDonald, Sussex.

During the morning session, opening at 9.30 o'clock with devotional exercises led by Rev. F. P. Dennison, reports from the clerks of the different churches in the district were presented and laid on the table for discussion. The following committees were appointed:

The nominating committee consisted of the following: Rev. F. H. Wentworth, Rev. O. N. Chipman, Rev. F. P. Dennison, Mr. R. M. Hopson and Mr. Michael Kelly.

Rev. W. Camp, Rev. F. W. Parker and Mr. A. H. Patterson were appointed a committee on resolutions, and the committee of arrangements was made up of Rev. F. P. Dennison, Miles Jenkins and Mr. S. Bestie.

Rev. O. N. Chipman, Rev. Mr. Tingley and Mr. A. H. Patterson were appointed a committee to discuss the various reports.

The meetings will be continued to day, beginning at 9.30 o'clock.

ANKLE CAUGHT AND BADLY CUT

Charles Kennedy Had Leg Injured in Bight of Tow Line.

Charles Kennedy, aged 43 years, a resident at 21 Kennedy street, North End, met with a serious accident while at work on a scow in the harbor shortly after six o'clock last evening. The scow was loaded with mud and the tug was about to tow it to the dumping grounds. Kennedy in some manner got his left foot caught in the bight of the tow line, and when the tug started on its way the rope Kennedy's foot was almost cut from his leg.

As quickly as possible the injured man was cleared from the rope and was taken in a small boat to Partridge Island where Dr. William Warwick rendered first aid to the injured man and then had him removed to the General Public Hospital for further treatment. A report from the hospital late last night was to the effect that Kennedy was very badly injured about the ankle but it was hoped that amputation of the foot would be unnecessary.

BAND MUSIC FOR THE WOUNDED SOLDIERS

Letter from E. Kitchen, a Bandsman in 12th Battalion.

Mrs. George Kitchen of Main street recently received a letter from her grandson E. Kitchen, who is a bandsman with the 12th Battalion, 4th Brigade of the Canadian Forces, which has been stationed at Shorncliffe, England. Bandsman Kitchen says he likes Shorncliffe much better than Salisbury Plain, that the brigade to which he belongs is the base brigade and it is expected that they will remain at Shorncliffe for some time.

The bandsman says it is not likely that the band of the brigade will go to France. There are 29 men in the band and it is kept busy playing concerts. He says that Folkestone is a summer resort only two miles from the camp and the band plays Sunday concerts there to the delight of large crowd of people.

The camp at Shorncliffe looks out on the Channel and on a fine day they can see the coast of France. A few days before writing a German airship sailed near the camp but did not do any damage.

He says there is a hospital near the camp and it is full of Canadian wounded soldiers, and the poor fellows enjoy the concerts by the brigade band.

PERSONAL.

ST. JOHN SOLDIERS IN SHEET IRON HUTS

Letter from Sergeant Gifford Tells of Arrival of 26th Battalion in England.

Sergeant W. L. Gifford, a nephew of W. F. Lewis of Brittain street, in a letter to his uncle, tells of the doings of members of the 26th Battalion on the trip across the Atlantic and the landing in England. The letter was written on June 25 and its part is as follows:

"We had a splendid trip, stopping at Halifax one day, but could not get off the boat. You can hardly believe how smooth the Atlantic was. I was seasick for a couple of days but soon got over it and enjoyed the remainder of the voyage fine.

"These letters are subject to censorship, so you will have to wait till I get back to tell you of the most interesting things.

"I slept on deck all the way and had a great rest. We arrived in Plymouth and entrained yesterday noon and arrived here this a.m. via London. The sail up Plymouth harbor is a wonderful sight, full of interesting and warlike views. We saw some of the battleships of Nelson's time.

"Our train was a small toy affair, but it could go with some speed and comfort.

"We are in sheet iron and wooden huts, each containing about thirty men. There is no time made over soldiers here now, and we travelled through with lights out and no one here seemed to know we were coming."
