BELIEVES SHEEP RAISING IN NEW BRUNSWICK WOULD BE PROFITABLE INDUSTRY

London Financial Man is of Opinion That Our Farmers Are Not Alive to Possibilities Here—Thinks Good Land Company Would Do Much Profitable Work—The Oil Wells.

That the farmers of New Brunswick are not alive to the possibilities here is the opinion of W. Leonard Palmer, of the Financial News, London, who is visiting Canada in order to learn first hand of its conditions, its prospects present and future. He is an able writer and his journal is a leader among the publications of finance. He believes that sheep farming could be carried on in New Brunswick most successfully, and with tremendous profit, and he does not understand why our people here are so slow to begin the development of what he feels sure would be a splendid industry.

Mr. Palmer has spent some time at Moncton, and visited the oil wells in that vicinity. He believes Moncton has a great future, and is satisfied that natural gas can be found near there to an almost unlimited extent. He intends to travel right across Canada, visiting all the important cities and towns, and will send exhaustive reports to his paper on the possibilities for the investment of British capital in the Dominion.

Suggests Land Company.

In addition to the sheep raising industry, Mr. Palmer has in mind another way in which extensive agricultural development should be brought about in New Brunswick.

"This, he thinks, could best be done by a land company which would buy up large tracts of run down lands, as well as new lands, divide them into sections, and bring out from the old country first class sheep, whose life and farming conditions at home were akin to the conditions to be encountered. In this connection, he said: 'It seems to me that much could be gained by doing this, not only to the promoters, but to the settlers as well. By

DOUBTS WISDOM OF OUR YOUNG MEN WHO ARE GOING WEST

Former St. John Man, With Forty Years' Experience in Other Lands, Declares They Are Leaving Behind Far Greater Opportunities Than They Are Likely to Find Elsewhere.

Tuesday, April 11. Forty years is a long time to be absent from one's native place. Even the slowest village will change considerably in that period. Charles Magee, of Detroit, Michigan, who was born here and who arrived at the Dufferin hotel Saturday night and left again last evening, outside of Truro, Officer McMahon, met but few whom he knew or who remembered him. Magee, who changed so long ago, the city itself changed so that he scarcely knew it. The only places which he distinctly remembered anything about were the King and Queens squares, and he was half inclined to think they had grown smaller since his time. Mr. Magee's father, forty or more years ago, was a prominent sheep chandler in this city. After he died, Mrs. Magee sold out and moved to the west, where she had some relatives living, taking her family with her. Before leaving, however, Mr. Magee had served his apprenticeship with Howe & Lordy, upholsterers, and one of the pleasures of his visit was to call on Jonas Howe and shake hands with him and talk over old times.

Arrived in the west, Mr. Magee worked hard and at the present time occupies a

OBITUARY

D. J. Nicholson.

Halifax, N. S., April 11.—Daniel J. Nicholson, died early this morning in the Victoria General Hospital, Dalhousie college, of pneumonia. He was a native of Scotland. About six weeks ago, he contracted measles, went out on his recovery, and caught a cold which developed into pneumonia. His parents arrived last night, only a short time before the bright young student passed away.

Mr. Nicholson was only 24 years of age, before he died in all departments. Last year he was entered for the football team. He won the prize presented to the all round champion in athletic events in the college. He was about six feet two inches in height, and well proportioned. He was born at Middle River, C. B. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Nicholson of that place.

Mrs. Isabella Aiton.

Newcastle, April 11.—The death of Isabella, widow of James Aiton, occurred suddenly yesterday morning, deceased, who had been in the best of health the day before, having passed quietly away in her sleep. She lacked but one month of 88 years.

Mrs. Aiton was a native of Edinburgh, Scotland, where she was born in May, 1823. About 1844 she married James Aiton, and with him came to Kings county (N. B.), where the next year her husband was fatally injured in an accident. By him she had one child, Mrs. Janet B. Steeves, who now lives in Pettaucodet. About two years afterward she became the wife of James Aiton, who lived till 1901, when he passed away. She was the mother of three children, Mr. John, Pollet River and other places, and Mrs. Aiton finally settled in Newcastle. They had ten children, of whom only one, Hugh Daniel Aiton, of Redbank, survives. "Thirteen grand-children and 21 great-grandchildren are living."

Mrs. Aiton had many sorrows. After the sudden and tragic death of her first husband, she was left with a young family, and she had to work for her support. She was a very strong, and I believe that if the right people took hold of it here, they would have no difficulty in getting British capitalists interested. Mr. Palmer added that he had talked with some prominent men in St. John, Sussex and Moncton, and he thought it possible that something would be done along this line.

Sheep Raising.

"I doubt there is another territory in the world so admirably adapted to sheep raising as these hilly counties along the coast. You would have a ready market both for your wool and your lambs. It is appalling to me that such splendid opportunities should be neglected. Where else can the young men who are leaving New Brunswick expect to find such chances?"

Mr. Palmer said it ought to be a matter of regret to the people of New Brunswick and the other maritime provinces that this end of Canada is not better advertised in the old country. He did not wish to belittle our representatives in England, but mentioned the fact that the men who were falling far behind the western provinces in this respect, especially British Columbia. He thought there was room for great improvement. He left last night for Fredericton, and today will interview some members of the local government.

Frederick L. Clements.

Boston, Mass., April 12.—(Special.)—Flags are displayed at half mast this afternoon for the death of Frederick L. Clements, of the province of New Brunswick, and widely known in the provincial lobster trade. He died suddenly of paralysis of the heart, this morning. He was born in Yarmouth (N. S.), 18 years ago, and was a member of the Canadian Club. Interment will be at Yarmouth.

William G. O. Steen.

Thursday, April 13. The death occurred yesterday of William G. O. Steen, in the home of his brother, James L. Steen, 24 Chapel street, after a brief illness, in the 38th year of his age. He was a native of this city, but had spent much of his life in the United States. Cancer of the stomach was the final cause of death. He is survived by three brothers and four sisters, James L. Steen, in the States; and Henry in Queens county. Mrs. N. Dodd, of Visard street, in this city; Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Charles Hillman, in the States, are the sisters.

Advices from up river points are to the effect that the ice is still solid, and that the crossing continues good at many points. A gentleman who arrived in the city Tuesday after driving a considerable distance on the ice, expressed the opinion that the shore will still be free to all at the 27th of the same month. The object of holding an early camp for the artillery is so as to give them an opportunity of going to Petawawa for the annual training.

The special committee appointed by the Horticultural Association met Monday and decided to throw the fishing at Lily lake, as open as the new laws allow. Fishing from the shore will thus be free to all at May 1 until October 1 and may be continued unless the privilege is abused. The matter was fully discussed at the meeting and the committee expressed the opinion that the fishermen would refrain from breaking down the bushes along the shore, setting fires or otherwise injuring the park.
