a Rousing Public Meeting

-Will Conduct a Forward Movement for Settlers and Hanley, N. B., Feb. 9-A rousing public meeting, for the purpose of organizing the Stanley board of trade, was held in Douglass' hall, Stanley, Thursday evening, Feb.

8, more than 100 ratepayers being present.

Rev. A. L. Skerry was elected chairman, with E. W. Douglass as secretary. The chairman, in his opening remarks, referred to the very bright future of New Brunswick, and pointed out that Stanley with all her natural resources, consisting in part of forest and mineral wealth, undeveloped water powers for industrial pur-poses, and being surrounded by a country unsurpassed for agricultural and stock-raising industries, should be one of the most prosperous and populace towns in New Brunswick.

this community offers inducements to investors and settlers second to none in the Dominion of Canada.

The chairman's remarks were very heartily endorsed by the meeting generally. One of the speakers, in referring to the agricultural advantages in this community, recalled the fact that at the colonial exhibition held in London the first prize medals were awarded for wheat and oats to residents of Stanley.

to organize a Stanley board of trade and a large majority of the ratepayers present-paid their annual fee and enrolled their names as members of the board.

The following officers were then elected: R. Stanley Douglass, president; George F. Dunham, vice-president; Howard T. Dougless, secretary; James G. Douglass, treasurer; David J. Griffiths, Rev. A. L. Skerry, Joseph Thorburn, E. W. Douglass, Dell Hossack, Dr. Allan Sterling, Peter K. Pringle, Fred Glover, additional executive.
