The S. S. Concert and Christmas tree held in the Methodist Church on Friday evening and a good number attended. After a well rendered program, Santa arrived to delight the hearts of the children, distributing gifts to all members of the school.

The dentist was telling about his luckiest patient. He came into the surgery and began immediately to tell me he had no faith in gas, ether or cocaine. "The tooth's been giving an awful lot of trouble," he said, "and all you've got to do is to hunk it out—hunk it out." I congratulated him on his pluck, and asked him to sit down in the chair. "Oh, no," he exclaimed, "it's not for me—it's for my wife. She's in the waiting room."

Happy New Year

We hope for you one and all that 1925 will bring you every blessing, the best of Health and abundance of Prosperity.

WE THANK YOU

The Year's Record

New sales records were established in 1924, the growing popularity of Molr's products being directed particularly to the packaged chocolates, biscuits and 5c bars.

Sales of the chocolates have now reached the point where they are in boxes as well as in bulk the most popular brand in Canada.

In 1925 every effort will be made to beat this by making them, if at all possible, even better.

MARRIED

On the 18th inst a very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Payson, Torbrook Mines, when their only daughter, Laura May and Mr. Alvin Johnson of Torbrook were united in marriage by Rev. J. G. Hockin, Middleton, in the presence of about forty guests.

Precisely at 8 p. m. to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Carman Moore, Middleton, the bride who was tastefully gowned in white Swiss crepe de chene with pearl trimmings and the conventional veil adorned with orange blossoms that was worn by her mother 38 years ago and carrying a bouquet of carnations and maiden hair fern was given away by her father, Little Muriel Roop, niece of the groom, who was prettily dressed in pink, very gracefully performed her part as ring bearer.

The happy couple after they had plighted their troth took their place under a white bell suspended from the centre of a very pretty arch of evergreen and white roses, and received the good wishes and congratulations of all present, after which a dainty lunch was served, and all too soon, the ones on the outside made it very interesting until the newly wedded started for Annapolis by auto, enroute for Massachusetts, where they expect to spend two weeks with relatives and friends.

As the bride ascended the stairs to don her travelling costume she showered her bouquet on her four brothers who had been her former school girls, the Misses Naomi Banks, Zella Spinney, Helen Nelly and Margaret Armstrong, who vied with each other for the first rose as it fell.

The presents which consisted of many useful articles such as silverware, linen, pyrex, aluminum, cash, willow rocker, etc., bespeak the high esteem in which they were both held. We wish them not only the compliments of the season but a long, happy and prosperous life.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. Ernest Nelly of Nictaux, on Monday, December 29th, when Nina May Nelly was given in marriage by her father to Willard Chever Ruggles. Rev. W. D. Wilson officiating.

The bride wore a gown of brown georgette with parisian trimmings, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Only the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties were present.

The wedding gifts consisted mostly of cheques and money.

Prof. J. H. Moore of Annapolis, uncle of the bride, played the wedding march.

A delightful wedding breakfast was served.

The young couple left on the noon train for Fort William, Ont., where they will reside.

THE HARVEST SEASON

Teacher—Now, Bobbie, tell us when is the harvest season?

Bobbie—From November to March.

Teacher—Why, Bobbie, I am surprised that you should name such barren months. Who told you they were the harvest season?

Bobbie—Pa, He's a plumber.
