PLAY THE MAN

"Quit you like men; be strong,
Gird your loins about with truth
Life will not be always smooth
Singing lightsome songs of youth;
Play the man.

Fear not what the world may say,
Hold the straight and narrow way,
In the open light of day,
And play the man.

It needeth courage to be true,
And patiently the right to do,
Loving him that wrongeth you,
Play the man.

Trust in God and let them mock
They will break as they have broke,
Like the waves upon the rock,
Play the man

NEW LEADER IN N. B.

St. John, N. B., Jan. 11—At the Provincial Opposition convention here today, Hon. C. W. Robinson resigned as leader and a committee, headed by W. E. Foster, was appointed to select a new leader.

An American paper says: This year seems to have witnessed in many places a return of the old-fashioned gripe. There is no remedy for it or no preventive so sure as plenty of good air, sufficient exercise, good food, proper sleep and much fresh water. Incidentally, one does not need to put himself in the place where those who are ill will cough in his face.

KAISER O. K. AGAIN.

Berlin, Jan. 16—The following official communication was issued today:

"After a complete recovery, Emperor William returned Sunday afternoon to the war theatre."

A white man walking along a road where an old colored man was whitewashing a fence, noticed that the brush he was using contained very few bristles.

"Look here, Rastus," exclaimed the man, pausing and looking at the operation, "why don't you get a brush with more bristles in it?"

"What fo', Mistah Smith, what fo'?" returned Rastus, glancing from the fence to his questioner.

"What for?" expressively replied Mr. Smith. "Why, if you had a brush with more bristles in it you could do twice as much work."

"Dat's all right, Mistah Smith," said Rastus, negatively shaking his head, "but I haint got twice as much work to do."

"I suppose you made New Year resolutions?" "No," replied Senator Sorghum. "I can't waste material in that selfish manner. When I think of anything in the line of reform, I make it the subject of a speech."—Washington Star.

Dis is painful ter me, mum, said the ragged visitor.
What do you mean? asked the charitable housewife.
Askin' you fur a bite ter eat?
Then why do you do it?
Because goin' widout would be a whole lot more painful.

She—Before I give you my answer I must know more about you. Are you aiming at anything worth while?
He—You seem to have a very poor opinion of yourself.—Boston Transcript.

THE AGONIES OF NEURALGIA

A Nerve Trouble, Always Due to Weak, Watery Blood.

Only those who have been attacked with neuralgia can form the faintest idea of what its victims suffer. A tingling of the tender skin, a sharp sudden stab from some angry nerve; then piercing paroxysms of pain that is neuralgia. The cause of the trouble is disordered nerves, due to weak, watery blood. The cure is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which make new, rich, red blood, and thus soothe and strengthen the disordered nerves and cure neuralgia. Mr. Louis Martin, Mildmay, Ont., says:—"I am writing to let you know the great benefit Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been to me. Two years ago I was a physical wreck. My nerves were all unstrung and I suffered tortures from neuralgia, in the head and throughout the nervous system generally. I was almost unfit for work, and the greatest difficulty I doctored for about five months and in this time took over forty dollars worth of medicine without any benefit. More, I was actually growing worse, and finally had to take to my bed. My nerves got so bad that I could not turn over in bed without help and the pain was something awful. As I am a farmer you can easily see that necessary work was being neglected, so I sent for a brother who was in Alberta, to come and take charge of the work. When my brother arrived he at once urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, telling me of some cures that had come under his observation. I got half a dozen boxes, and before they were all gone there was no doubt they were helping me. Altogether I used nine boxes of the Pills and by that time I was a well man, and it is impossible to say how thankful I was for my release from pain."
You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from any dealer in medicine or by mail, post paid, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
