Iroquois Post—"The Easter services in the Methodist Church, were of a most interesting and helpful character. In the morning, the pastor, Rev. T. J. Vickery, preached an excellent sermon suitable for the occasion. In the evening the servce the service was under the auspices of the W. M. S., when a most inspiring program was presented to a large congregation. An impressive responsive service, entitled—"We Would See Jesus" was conducted by Mrs. Vickery. The address of the evening was given by Mrs. Wm. G. Towriss of Athens, who chose as her subject—"The Uplifted Christ." The speaker, possessed of a charming personality, delighted her audience, not only with her eloquence, but more by the earnestness of her message, in which she did, indeed, held un "The the earnestness of her message, in which she did, indeed, hold up "The Light of the World." Hemlock Corners

(By C.C. Slack)

Your Correspondent has been asked the following questions.

When he was going to sober up? When would sugar-making start? When he intended to settle up last

If the girls in Delta bobbed their hair and how they put the time in there?

If their was any prospect of a wedding or a birth in the town of Atheanum in the next ten years?

How some folks get through the win-ter? The "Gink" that asked that ques-is at present under the Doctor's care.

Pious Morall is shingling his hog-pen. We did not think that rain-water would Al Spoung spent the week-end at the Corners. He was the guest of Chick Hennery's. It is expected that Al will rob Chick's roost of a chicken soon.

Tillie Tellit, having ran out of hear-says to broadcast has gone to Frankville to start something there. We pity the people of that burg.

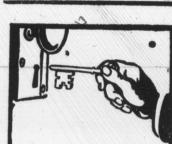

Mooney A. Shine is on the sick list. Your correspondent has often been laid low by Mooney, s decease but has always recovered. We would reccomend as a tonic Raney's Hog-town Balm put up by the Farmer's Government. We regret that the engagement is anwe regret that the engagement is an-nounced of Miss Kate Pussy, eldest flapper of Mr. & Mrs. John Pussy, to Mr. Thomas Catt. The voilence to take place as soon as Tom gets out of jail. It is expected that the fur will fly.

If A. Pimple had divided up the Jag he carried last Saturday with your cor-respondent, it would have been better for us both.

Miss Wiggle, who has been attending the convention of Brat Pursuaders at Burdock Ally, returned to the Corners last night. She appears none the worse

Much satisfaction is expressed by the residents over the death of B.A. Hogg, who died at his late residence on Weed Lane. Mr. Hogg was all hog. The Wom-Institute erected a street lamp in front of Hogg's dump, furnishing Lamp, Oil, Wick and Chimney. Hogg kept it lighted for a month and sent in an account for the matches. He was the champion Hogg of nine Provinces. Hogg formally came from Toronto.

A clinging wedding took place last week at the residence of Mr. & Mrs. B. A. Bean, when their only misfit was married to Mr. Hy. Stalk of Garlictown. It was a scented affair. Miss Bean was very popular at the Corners especially with the Jazzers. Her wedding dress consisted of four ounces of the finest wall paper. She carried a bunch of early radishes and the guests carried away the presents that were of any use. The wedding Grand March was played by her Fag-smoking brother on the Jew's Harp The presents were numerous and worth-The presents were numerous and worth-less. Evidently Mr. Stalk will find him-self in the soup before many moons. We extend our sympathy to Mr. Stalk and all concerned.
