

St. Jean Baptiste Notes.

St. JEAN BAPTISTE, Sep. 30.—Last Thursday we had a visit from His Honor Lieutenant Governor Chapleau, of Quebec. The distinguished party arrived at St. Jean Baptiste station at 2 p. m., in their private car. The party was composed of His Honor Lieut-Gov. Chapleau, Madame Chapleau and Hon. Joseph Royal, ex-lieutenant governor of the N. W. T., Hon. Mr. LaRiviere, M. P., Hon. J. E. P. Prendergart, Messrs. J. H. Dubuc and Henry Royal, barristers of Winnipeg, Judge and Madame Prud'homme, Senator and Madame Bernier and Mrs. Judge Dubuc. The distinguished visitors were received at the station by the Reeve of the Municipality of Montcalm, Mr. P. Parenteau, and a large number of ladies and gentlemen. Among the ladies present to welcome Mrs. Chapleau, we noticed Mrs. (Dr.) Lanthier, Mrs. P. Parenteau and Mrs. A. Beaubien. The first reception was served at Mr. Reeve Parenteau's residence and from there to the C. M. B. A. hall where an address was presented to His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor by the scholars at the convent. At 6 p. m. a banquet was tendered to the party, many ladies and leading gentlemen taking part. After the banquet an address was presented to His Honor by the citizens of St. Jean Baptiste, at a mass meeting which took place in the C. M. B. A. hall at 8 p. m. After the meeting the distinguished party went to their car in company with a very large number of ladies and gentlemen and preceded by a torch light procession composed of young scholars of this place.

THE PASTOR'S WIFE.

AN INTERESTING INTERVIEW WITH MRS. (REV.) F. B. STRATTON.

Threatened With Paralysis—Weak, Emaciated and Unable to Stand Fatigue—Pink Pills Restore Her Health.

From the Napanee Beaver.

The Rev. F. B. Stratton, of Selby, is one of the best known ministers in Bay of Quinte conference, of which body he is the President. During the two years Mr. Stratton has been stationed at Selby, both he and Mrs. Stratton have won hosts of friends among all classes for their unassuming and sincere Christian work. Some time ago Mrs. Stratton was attacked with partial paralysis, and her restoration having been attributed to the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a reporter of the Beaver was sent to interview her. In reply to the reporter's question Mrs. Stratton said that she had been greatly benefited by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and was perfectly willing to give her experience that those similarly afflicted might be benefited. Mrs. Stratton said that before moving to Selby she had been greatly troubled by a numbness coming over her sides and arms (partial paralysis) which, when she moved, felt as though hundreds of needles were sticking in the flesh. For over a year she had been troubled in this way, with occasionally a dizzy spell. She was becoming emaciated and easily fatigued and was unable to get sleep from this cause. The trouble seemed to be worse at night time. Mr. Stratton had become greatly alarmed at her bad state of health, and it was feared that complete paralysis would ensue as Mrs. Stratton's mother, the late Mrs. Weaver, of Igersoll, had been similarly stricken, at about the same age. Knowing a young lady in Tremont, where Mr. Stratton had been previously stationed, who had been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, it was determined to give them a fair trial. When Mrs. Stratton began using the Pink Pills she was very thin and her system badly run down, but after taking the pills for a time, all symptoms of paralysis disappeared, and she found her health and strength renewed and her weight increased. Mrs. Stratton is about fifty years of age, and a more healthy, robust, and younger looking lady is seen at that age.

In reply to the reporter's inquiry as to what Pink Pills had done for his wife, Mr. Stratton said, "Look at her, look at her, doesn't she show it," and the reporter could not but admit the truth of the statement. These pills are a positive cure for all troubles arising from a vitiated condition of the blood or a shattered nervous system. Sold by all dealers or by mail from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N. Y., at 50 cents a box, or 6 boxes for $2.50. There are numerous imitations and substitutes against which the public is cautioned.
