

appellation, the period for which it is engaged to serve, and whether for General Service or confined to the District in which it is raised, to be distinctly stated in General Orders. The Government reserving to itself the right of disbanding any Corps, previous to the expiration of its period of service, paying the men such remuneration as may be deemed expedient. No Volunteer Corps will be considered entitled to receive Pay, until its formation has been announced in General Orders.

12. Adjutants, not Subalterns of the Corps to which they belong, to have the rank of Ensign on appointment.

13. No Second Majors will be allowed in Volunteer Corps.

No Colour Serjeants will be allowed in the Volunteer Artillery or Infantry, and no Troop Serjeants Major in the Volunteer Cavalry.

A Full Staff will only be allowed in Corps exceeding 250 men. In Corps of less strength, a Subaltern on the Establishment will be appointed to act as Adjutant, with an allowance of two shillings currency per diem, in addition to his pay. The Acting Pay Master and Quarter Master is provided for by Paragraph No. 5. A Serjeant on the Establishment will act as Serjeant Major and Quarter Master Serjeant, with an allowance of six pence currency per diem in addition to his pay.

14. Officers, Non-commissioned Officers and