Et quandoquidem Mos quidam, non Lege aliquâ ratus, in quibusdam Magnæ Britannię & Galliæ Urbibus, obtinuit, viz. ut unusquisque pro Introitu & Exitu genus quoddam Tributi solvat, An-

BE it known unto all Men, That whereas in the 9th Article of the Treaty of Commerce, concluded this Day between the most Serene Queen of Great Britain, and the most Serene the most Christian King, by Their Majesties Ambassadors Extraordinary, and Plenipotentiaries, mention is made of some Heads of Matters, which being proposed on the part of Great Britain, have not as yet been mutually adjusted; and therefore it was thought fit to refer them to be discussed and determined by Commissioners: We therefore the underwritten Ambassadors, that it may certainly appear what are those Heads of Matters which are to be referred to Commissioners, have resolved to give a particular Description of them in this Writing; Declaring that they are the same, and no other than what follow.

I.

NO Manufactures of either Kingdom, and the Dominions belonging thereunto, shall hereafter be subject to be inspected and confiscated, under any pretence of fraud or defect in making or working them, or because of any other Imperfection therein; But absolute freedom shall be allowed to the Buyer and Seller to bargain and agree for the same, as they shall see good; Any Law, Statute, Edict, Arrest, Privilege, Grant, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

II.

And forasmuch as a certain Usage, not confirmed by any Law, has obtained in several Towns of Great Britain and of France; That is to say, That every one for coming in, and going out, shall pay
