Dear Editor,
The letter in your issue of November 1990, begs a response that was narrow. My hope is that there may be people who think it is factually correct. Did Mr. Malone's demonstrations take place during the summer months? I am aware of the 1000 camps all around the country. Support was rising in sections of the population. The entire content is exaggerated, if not false. There is no general populistic tendency to do to understand mutual respect and intelligent membership. I will simply regard as racist and the... Books and information every aspect of library. Perhaps expand his horizon.
