Sir,-

With reference to that portion of your letter of the 10th May which refers to the resolution passed by the Walpole Island Council to the effect that Moses Shipman be paid $4.25 for taking Albert Soney to the Garna Hospital, I beg to say that if it was not necessary for Shipman to accompany Soney, the latter's expenses will not be paid. It is desired that you will request Dr. Cathcart to make a definite statement in the matter and that you will forward the same to the Department.

Your obedient servant,
