

CANADIAN PAPER MILL

plying the motive power, electricity. The wood is taken from the water and either stacked in the wood pile shown on side of river or sent to facilitate handling the railroad tracks run into the mill itself. In the background may be seen the homes of those employed in the mill and