

hardened sinners were much affected thereby, and began to cry as loud as they had done ; so that we had nothing to do but to stand and see the wonderful work of God. All this time many were crying for mercy. Among these were four young men who remained on their knees for five hours together.

LAUGHING.

1. Journal, July 29, 1759. Vol. II., p. 497.—Patty Jenkins was so overwhelmed with the love of God that she sunk down, and appeared as one in a pleasant sleep, only with her eyes open ; yet she had often just strength to utter, with a low voice, ejaculations of joy and praise ; but no words coming up to what she felt, she frequently laughed while she saw His glory.

2. Journal, April 5, 1782. Vol. IV., p. 224.—Being then asked to visit a dying woman, I no sooner entered the room, than both she and her companions were in such an emotion as I have seldom seen. Some laughed ; some cried ; all were so transported that they could hardly speak. O how much better is it to go to the poor, than to the rich ; and to the house of mourning, than to the house of feasting !
