15. Piracy according to the law of nations;

16. Sinking or destroying a vessel on the high seas, or the attempt to perpetrate such acts;

17. Crimes arising from assault on board a ship on the high seas, with intent to cause death or grievous bodily injuries;

18. Crimes arising from the revolt of two or more persons on board a ship on the high seas, against the authority of the captain;

19. Extradition will also take place for the participation in any of the above-named crimes, provided that such participation shall be punishable by the laws of both the States of the High Contracting Powers.

ARTICLE III.

No British subject shall be delivered up by the Government or authorities of the United Kingdom to the Government or authorities of the Empire; and in like manner no Brazilian subject shall be delivered up by the Government or authorities of the Empire to the Government or authorities of the United Kingdom.

If, however, the person who has taken refuge in the territory of the other High Contracting Party shall have become naturalized there after the perpetration of the crime, such naturalization shall not be an obstacle to his extradition according to the stipulations of this Treaty.

ARTICLE IV.

The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed has already been tried and acquitted, or punished, or if he is under trial for the same crime for which extradition is asked.

If
