GEORGE BRYCE.

ADDRESS TO THE QUEEN.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty:

We, the Ministers and Elders of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, desire to approach Your Majesty with renewed assurances of our loyalty to your Throne, and attachment to Your Majesty's person.

We learned with horror of the attempt recently made on Your Majesty's life, and respectfully offer our congratulations on Your Majesty's providential escape.

We rejoice to have once again amongst us the Consort of our Governor-General, a daughter of your Royal House.

We congratulate Your Majesty on the general prosperity of the Empire. We sincerely trust and pray that the troubles which agitate a section of the United Kingdom may soon give place to profound contentment.

We earnestly pray that the Lord of the nations may long spare Your Majesty to the people over whom your reign has exercised so beneficent an influence.

We commend Your Majesty, and all the members of your Royal family, to the keeping of Him by whom "Kings reign, and princes decree justice."

In name and by appointment of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

ADDRESS TO THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

To the Right Honourable Sir John Douglas Sutherland Campbell, Marquis of Lorne, Governor-General of Canada, etc.

May it please Your Excellency:

We, the Ministers and Elders of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, now in session, beg to renew our assurances of loyalty and attachment to the Throne and person of Her Most Gracious Majesty; and to express our regard for Your Excellency's character, and our confidence in Your Excellency as the Representative of our beloved Queen.

In common with our fellow-subjects, we rejoice that Your Excellency's Illustrious Consort has regained her wonted health, and has returned to her viceregal home.

We congratulate Your Excellency on the growing prosperity of the Dominion, to the promotion of which the efforts of Your Excellency have been so successfully directed; and we sincerely desire and pray that Your Excellency's administration may continue to be as pleasing and agreeable to yourself as it is advantageous to the Dominion.

To the care and guidance of the Almighty we commend Your Excellency and Her Royal Highness the Princess Louise; and we will continue to pray that you may walk together in the light of His favour and in the increasing enjoyment of His peace.

In name and by appointment of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.
