

Napoleon's Arc de Triomphe—
erected by him who conquered
a world . . . and standing today as the world's symbol of triumph over him who threatened again its freedom.

RETURNING TO THE TASKS OF PEACE.

FOR FOUR AND ONE-HALF YEARS, CANADIAN INDUSTRIES LABORED UNDER THE SPUR OF A GREAT PURPOSE, AND TO HELP ACCOMPLISH A GREAT TASK. NOW THAT TASK IS DONE. THE TRAPPINGS OF WAR BECOME RELICS.

INDUSTRY, THE GREAT TRANSFORMER OF EARTH'S RAW MATERIALS INTO PEACEFUL NEEDS OF MEN AND WOMEN, BENDS TO ITS FRUITFUL TASK AGAIN.

AN IMMENSE PROGRAMME OF RECONSTRUCTION IS TO BE CARRIED OUT, AND IF HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF, OUR GALLANT CANADIANS; BEARING AS THEY WILL FOREVER, THE STAMP OF WHAT THEY SAW AND FELT IN FRANCE; COMING INTO CONTACT AGAIN WITH COMMERCIAL ACTIVITIES: WILL PROVE THEIR WORTH.

The use of Shoes is still as essential as ever, whether in social, industrial or military walks; there, the "Hartt" Shoe will meet the demands of peace, as they have met the demands of war.
