

Seventeen Sabbath Schools, chiefly in poor settlements, have received free grants of books. The value of these including grants on libraries sold, amounts to £95 3s. 6d.

Your Committee in the warmest terms would acknowledge the liberal support which the London Religious Tract Society and the Sunday School Unions of London and New York continue to accord to this Union.

The business of the Depository continues to be carried on under the judicious and obliging management of Mr. James Milne.

The following statements will exhibit the transactions of the past year:—

THE DEPOSITORY IN ACCOUNT WITH THE CANADA SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION, 1853.

Dr.

To Books on hands 1st January, 1853.....	£334	5	8
To Books purchased from, and grants made by the Religious Tract Society.....	206	1	6
To Books from Sunday School Union, London.....	23	19	2
To Books from American Sunday School.....	206	2	7
To Books purchased in Montreal.....	69	12	7
To Premium of Exchange.....	74	4	11
	£914	6	5

Cr.

By Cash Sales.....	£155	7	11
By Credit Sales, and to Agents.....	306	14	10
By Grants to Schools.....	94	2	0
By Stock of Books on hand, 31st Dec. 1853.....	358	1	8
	£914	6	5

(Errors excepted.)

JAMES MILNE,
Depository.

STOCK ACCOUNT.

Dr.

To Books on hand, per Inventory.....	£358	1	8
To Debts due by Schools, &c.....	187	9	11
To Cash in the hands of the Treasurer.....	2	14	8
	£548	6	3