

Telegraphy

has long been the best starting point for a successful railway career. Nearly every Railway Manager and Superintendent began "at the Key."

It Pays Very Well

now at the start. R. Richardson, a young man of the ordinary type, spent from January to July—six months—in training, and writes that his September salary was $65.50. Not bad for third month. He is with C.P.R. at Sturgeon Falls.

The Demand is Keen

Our graduates have no trouble at all in securing employment. The Railways write: "We can take all the good material you can turn out. Send them to us."

"GUIDED BY THE KEY" is the title of a book which explains how you may become an operator. You may have it with sample lesson containing Morse Alphabet, by sending six cents in stamps to the

Central Telegraph School

1 Gerrard Street East
TORONTO, CANADA

W. H. SHAW,
President

T. J. JOHNSTON,
Principal

LEARN TO DRAW FOR MONEY

Illustrating is the best paying profession of the age. The demand for practical drawings and designs is unlimited. There is a constant cry for "Competent Illustrators."

The salaries are inviting. The work is fascinating and congenial. Last week we had three requests for graduates in one day. Do you like Drawing? Here is your chance. Write us to-day for our free prospectus. Address

The Shaw Correspondence School
393 Yonge Street, Toronto [T.M.]

$100 for a Short Story

This is about the minimum price paid by reputable magazines for a bright, clever, interesting short story. The demand is unlimited. Editors everywhere are simply at their wit's end to know where to get them. If the story's a good one the editor will jump at it—and remember—he has the money in his hand. He will gladly accept and pay well for any story that is a good story, no matter who or where the writer may be.

We Can Teach You

in a few months of your spare time at home the ART OF SUCCESSFUL STORY WRITING. Our Instructor is one of Canada's most able writers.

Story Writing

is an "ideal profession" for all who have any literary taste or inclination. Our little booklet is brim full of interesting information. Write for it.

ADDRESS

The Shaw Correspondence School
393 Yonge Street Toronto
(T.M.)