

One Man
One Hammer
and the roll.

So runs the brief and simple story of getting a perfect roof with

REX FLINTKOTE ROOFING

It is made on honor and backed by a firm with a business reputation covering the past 70 years.

What Should a Good Roof Do?

Protect from water, cold, heat, sparks and fumes—be laid with economy, and wear without expensive repair.

Unlike shingles, REX Flintkote ROOFING will not blaze up at the first spark—unlike slate, it will not yield to the gale of wind—unlike tar, it will not melt and run—unlike tin, it will not rust nor leak at the first chance.

Unlike them all—it may be laid by any ordinary workman—with a hammer—everything else needed is in the roll.

Unlike them all it is suitable for every kind of farm building.

Samples and Book Sent on Request

Manufacturers of cheap roofing closely imitate the outside appearance of REX Flintkote ROOFING—the value is inside—it doesn't show when you buy it. It shows only 11 years of honest service. "Look for the Boy" in our trade mark—and buy without hesitation.

COSSIP.

Messrs. S. J. Pearson, Son & Co., Meadowvale, Ont., write: "We have sold some very fine young Shorthorn bulls lately, and have some good, low-down, thick-fleshed, smooth young bulls left yet. Some of them will make show bulls. Have had a big demand for Berkshires, of which we have a very prolific strain. Our old sows all farrowed twelve and thirteen pigs each this spring, and several of our young sows have farrowed ten and twelve pigs. We believe we have Berkshires as prolific as any other breed of pigs."

Mr. Douglas Thomson, Woodstock, Ont., writes: "My Berkshires were never in better shape than at present; every sow has reared me a splendid litter. Most of my pigs are sired by the great stock boar, Woodstock Laddie, the son of Polgate Doctor (imp.), the boar that was claimed by the best judges to be the greatest breeding boar in America. He was a son of Baron Kitchener, who, at eight years of age, won the championship at the great Oxford Show. He is one of the greatest sires living to-day, and the majority of the sows in the great Polgate herd, owned by the Duchess of Devonshire, are sired by him. Surely it would be a good idea for any of our customers to have a little of this blood to breed from."

Dr. T. H. Hassard, of Millbrook, Ont., has lately sold to Mr. Andrew Graham, of Garman, Manitoba, for the longest price of the year, the wonderfully-good Clydesdale stallion, Vigorous (imp.), by Up-to-Time, one of the greatest sons of Baron's Pride, and out of a daughter of Helvidere, by Knight of Lothian, by Darnley, thus making him one of the richest and most fashionably-bred Clyde stallions alive. Vigorous, we have considered one of the best all-round draft horses that has been imported, combining to a high degree great size, an exceptionally smooth, well-balanced conformation, and a grand set of legs and feet, with true and faultless action. It is a distinct loss to Ontario that such a superb draft stallion should have been allowed to leave the Province. Good luck to his new owner is the wish of the writer.

The attention of horse breeders and fanciers is called to the announcement in our advertising columns in this issue of an important, unreserved auction sale in England, on June 17th, the Monday following the International Horse Show, in London, when Mr. Douglas H. Grand, as auctioneer, a native Canadian, well known to horsemen in this country as a critical judge, will dispose of a large number of prizewinning Hackneys and harness horses, the property of R. G. Heaton, Esq., of Chatteris, Cambridge-shire. Included in the sale will be many famous and prizewinning Hackney mares with their foals, and a number of colts and fillies by such great sires as Garton Duke of Connaught, Mathias, St. Thomas and others. Also a grand lot of harness mares and geldings, sired by noted Hackney stallions. The Ferry Farm Stud of Mr. Heaton has produced many notable horses, including the great Forest King, champion harness horse of America, and many English championship winners. Mr. Grand, who is now a resident of England, and was formerly prominent in horse-dealing circles in London, Ont., Toronto, and New York, and who is a connoisseur in harness-horse stock, and enjoys an excellent reputation for fair dealing, speaks in the highest terms of the character and quality of this offering. Persons interested should look up the advertisement, and send for the catalogue, mentioning "The Farmer's Advocate."

Wonderful Development in Bicycle Industry.

Figures Show Great Increase in Output. Of late, considerable has been published to the effect that bicycles are regaining some of their lost popularity, and figures substantiating the contention are contained in a statement given out by a member of the Association of Bicycle Manufacturers, which has been in session in Buffalo. He says that the makers expect to sell 750,000 bicycles this year. Last season they disposed of 500,000, which was double the output of 1905.
