"Something more than a mere literary event. It attains to the dignity of a historical incident."—Daily Telegraph.

The New Eleventh Edition of the ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA

Is Being Published Simultaneously in These Seven Countries

Special Features of the 11th Edition

- (1) The new edition is being published by the Press of the University of Cambridge, England.
- (2) It comprises some 40,000 articles, 41,000,000 words, more than 7,000 illustrations, 450 full-page plates, and 417 maps.
- (3) Though a lineal descendant of ten editions of the Encyclopædia Britannica, the new work is in no sense a revision of the obsolete text of its predecessor. It has been completely recast and re-written, and is an absolutely fresh, authoritative and up-to-date survey and exposition of the whole field of Human knowledge.
- (4) The plan of the encyclopædia has been thoroughly reorganized with a view of combining comprehensiveness with brevity, exhaustive treatment of major subjects, with the greatest facility of reference in the case of minor subjects.
- (5) Something like 15,000 new headings have been added.
- (6) The articles have been written by 1,500 contributors—scholars of the highest distinction, and experts and practical men and women whose authority in their special subjects is unimpeachable.
- (7) A large and distinguished staff of editors (constituting with the 1,500 contributors a virtual College of Research) has been at work for eight years on the production of the new edition; and the organization and editorial control have all along been so perfect that an unprecedented congruity and co-ordination have been attained.
- (8) Each article is right up to date, and all the latest discoveries and results of research have been incorporated.
- (9) The whole work has been written simultaneously and is being published practically at one time, not volume by volume as heretofore.
- (10) To an extent never before realized the work is cosmopolitan—universal. Each article is the work of a first-hand authority, irrespective of whether he happened to live in Great Britain, Canada, France, Germany, Japan, the United States, or any other civilized country. On the list of contributors are to be found the names of 132 members of the staffs of 42 Canadian and United States Colleges and Universities.
- (11) The problem of the bulk has been happily solved by the issue of an edition on India paper with flexible bindings. In this format the volumes, though containing 960 to 1,064 pages each, are only 1 inch thick. There is also an impression on ordinary book-paper.

Any reader who has not yet received particulars of the new Encyclopædia Britannica may obtain illustrated prospectus (40 pp.), 56 specimen pages (printed on India paper to show the attractive character of the work in this popular form), and order form giving the present low rates and terms of purchase, by applying to the Canadian office of THE CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS.

The last day on which you can post your order for the new Encyclopædia Britannica in order to take advantage of the low advance-of-publication price is WEDNESDAY, MAY 31st. Orders bearing a postmark of a date later than this can only be received at the higher prices, which will come into effect on June 1st.

It is certain that hundreds of readers of this notice intend to purchase the new Britannica but are waiting to send in their application until nearer the closing date, under the impression that a few weeks' delay cannot greatly matter. It matters this much to the publisher that the delay of even one week means that thousands of other applications will have been registered ahead of theirs, with a consequent and inevitable delay in getting their sets; for all orders are filled strictly in the order of receipt, and the supply cannot at this period keep up with the demand.

Australia, India, South Africa, New Zealand, each have to get their share; there is the home demand to meet; and we in Canada are cabling to England every week the number of sets in the various styles which the week's orders call for, so that we may get them with the least delay possible, but—and this must be emphasized—there is a limit to the speed with which the office can fill our requisitions, which are rapidly growing to formidable figures; and five other countries have to be simultaneously supplied. Moreover, there is a limit to the speed with which Printers and Binders can turn out the work.

It is calculated that if the sheets of the two volumes of paper used for this edition were joined together they would stretch from North Pole to South Pole a few hundred miles to spare; that if the volumes were stacked one on top of the other they would make a pile 12 miles high, or twice the height of Mount Everest, with two miles to spare. Figures such as these drive home the immensity of the task of issuing at one time so vast a work. They are given here to show that the interval of time between the delivery of the first sets and the last must necessarily be considerable.

If you have made up your mind that the new Britannica is a book you need, whether for your business or your home, or for the benefit of your children, urge you to send in your application without any loss of time. By doing this you will secure for yourself early delivery, and at the same time you will be helping us to make provision for an adequate number of copies to be received here in Canada within a reasonable time. Applications may be made on the form printed on this page.

The appearance, within a period of a few weeks in all English-speaking countries of the completed 11th edition of the Britannica is a notable editorial and manufacturing triumph. The last wholly new edition (the 9th) was issued volume by volume over a period of fourteen years, from 1875 to 1889. Only the world-wide demand for this greatest of all works of reference justified the lavish expenditure necessary to publish SIMULTANEOUSLY the 29 volumes of the new edition.
