BY JEREMY TAYLOR o beauteous God! uncircumscribed treas O; an eternal pleasure Thy throne is seated far Above the highest star;

Where Thou preparest a glorious place Wallin the brightness of thy face, For every sparit To inherit.

That builds his hopes upon thy merit; And loves Thee with an holy charity. What ravish'd heart, seraphic tongue, or Clear as the morning's rise, Can speak, or think, or see

That bright eternity. Where the great King's transparent throt la et an entire jasper-stone ? When Thou dost bind thy jewels up, tha Remember us, we pray;

That where the beryl lies, And the crystal 'bove the skies, There Thou may'st appoint us place, Within the brightness of thy face; And our soul

In the scroll if life and blissfulness enrol. That we may praise Thee to eternity.
