 GOD SAVE THE KING

His Excellency addressed the men in a very encouraging manner, reminding them of their duties as Newfoundlanders, Christians, sons of Empire who wished them bon voyage and believed they would have their share in the great and glorious victory impending. Major Montgomerie then thanked the ladies for their kindness in providing the club rooms for the men and for this entertainment. The C. L. B. Band gave an excellent list of selections at intervals, and refreshments were served by the ladies.

OUR THEATRES

THE NICKEL
 The popular serial, "The Strange Case of Mary Page," was continued at the Nickel theatre yesterday, and was witnessed by large numbers of interested patrons. Hundreds of citizens are following this great serial and they pronounce yesterday's episode one of the best yet. "The Girl Who Might Have Been" is a most impressive picture and Lenora Hutton, who played the principal part, did some very clever acting. "The Spell of the Poppy" and the comedy, "A Telegraphic Tangle," were also splendid. The whole show will be continued to-day and all patrons should attend.

THE CRESCENT
 Go to the Crescent Picture Palace to-day and see the great four-reel Biograph feature "Diconrons" featuring Mary Malatesta, Dell Henderson and Charles H. West. Its the witliest of all Sardon's brilliant comedies. Claire McDowell and Jose Ruben feature in "The Eyes of the Soul," which is a strong appealing drama. Professor McCarthy has arranged and plays a special programme of music to accompany the big show. On to-morrow a great three-reel feature "The Reaping," will be presented.

WOULD TAKE CHARGE OF THE REGIMENT

We are informed that there was quite a breezy conversation over the phone yesterday, between one of the humane officials of the Custom Department and a popular Captain of the Regiment, the former being hurt by the promotion of some other Non-Com. over his son, both of whom had been drafted with the Contingent. At the Club last night the matter was freely discussed, and the official in question severely criticized for his impudence in attempting to interfere with regimental orders. The matter will likely be reported to the authorities.

OF INTEREST TO US.

We learn from an exchange that His Holiness Pope Benedict XV. recently approached the Turkish Government, with a proposition relative to the care of the graves of the soldiers of the Entente Powers who fell at Gallipoli. The Porte assured His Holiness of its willingness to undertake this kind of duty—another instance of Turkish chivalry in this present great conflict. It will be a solace to many of our people who have boys sleeping their last sleep there to know that their resting places are properly looked after. This kindly act of the Porte will no doubt be appreciated by the friends of the soldiers to whom it applies.

MANGANESE DEPOSITS NEAR TREPASSEY

Mr. Simpson of the McKay smelter, a native of Pittsburg, P.A., not long since was up the Southern Shore and visited Trepassey and other parts. He did a deal of prospecting and we hear found a promising sign of manganese near Trepassey, samples of which he brought here and which will be reduced in the smelter to determine their value. Mr. Simpson, who is an expert mineralogist has hopes that the find will prove a good thing. He enjoyed some sea trout and cod fishing in that section.

Presentation To Private Otto Whiteway

Co-workers Present Him With Address and Gift on Eve of Departure For Active Service—Also Gets Address and Fountain Pen From His Old Comrades

Private Oughterson Whiteway (Otto), son of Mr. Jesse Whiteway, dry goods man, who is a member of "Ours" and goes forward to the Old Country with the next draft of volunteers recently received several reminders of the esteem and regard of his friends in the city and their recognition of his pluck and loyalty in going forward to defend the great cause we all have at heart. Friday last Private Whiteway was the recipient of a beautiful gift and the following address from his fellow employees in his father's business.

St. John's, Nfld., July 15, 1916

Mr. Oughterson Whiteway, "Musgrave" City.

Dear Otto:— As you are about to leave your Island Home, and your position in life, for the Defence of the Empire we desire to express our deep regret at the loss of your companionship, but mingled with joy and pleasure at your manly, noble, and self-sacrificing devotion to your King and Country we heartily congratulate you and with pride we will follow you everyfootstep through the great war and consider that it is us, your associates and co-workers that you are defending, as well as doing your part in the defence of the Empire.

Those of us who have known and worked with you from boyhood, feel the parting more than words can express, but in silence we grasp your hand on leaving, expressing the sincerest wish, that God in His Good Providence, may spare you to return to us safely, to once again take your place at your desk. In the discharge of your duties to your Superior Officers you show the same loyalty, obedience, discipline, and congeniality that you have shown us, since becoming associate with you, we would not be surprised to hear of your rapid promotion, and recommendation for a commission in very short time.

As you sojourne parts at present unknown to you, we trust you will enjoy the pleasure of this gift, given you with the very best wishes, from your loyal and devoted co-workers who are now gathered around you, and in remembrance of the many happy days we were associated.

We wish you unbounded success, the fullest measure of "good luck" and the very best of health. May God bless and keep you safe to return to your loved ones at home, is the earnest prayer of

Yours faithfully,
 J. Burt, C. Barter, D. Gallop, G. Coish, M. Skinner, M. Winsor, W. Escott, B. Squires, B. Rose.

The young soldier made a happy reply and while thanking his co-workers for their kind appreciation, modestly looked upon his unworthiness but assured them that he would try to keep in the same line as the others of the Newfoundland Regiment, and do his best to honor the Dear Old Flag, and the Oldest Daughter of the Mistress of the Seas.

On Saturday another address was made Private Whiteway which was accompanied by the presentation of a gold mounted fountain pen. The address read as follows:—

Dear Oughterson,— Your friends and associates who had the pleasure of attending the gathering at your residence "Musgrave" on July 5th, cannot allow the occasion to pass without in some little way, marking the event which was so much enjoyed by us all. We ask you to accept this small gift, (gold mounted fountain pen) as a token of our esteem, and as a memento of the happy time we all spent on that day. We trust that in the near future we shall all meet to gather again to celebrate your home coming, when victory shall be won by Britain and her allies.

We are your sincerely, the guests of Wednesday.

On their behalf,
 H. CHAPLIN,
 W. GAULTON.

What About Our Invalidated Soldiers?

Several of Them Returned Wounded and Unfit For Former Work and Are Left to Get Along as Best They Can—This Kind of Treatment Must Cease

We recently perused in a contemporary an indignant reference to the treatment meted out to a wounded volunteer at Channel, and we agree with all the denunciatory language used in the matter. But we fear this is not the only case and if the friends and relatives of some of our maimed and invalidated heroes would give the newspapers the information which is being circulated in a more or less suppressed manner, Newfoundland would be profoundly shaken to its very centre. We hear of brave young chaps who have been allowed to go adrift after returning here from the fray, bearing honorable scars and hardly in a position to take up the strenuous side of the world's work, and who as far as employment goes must do the best they can, or starve. Some we know have been driven to occupy most menial positions. We have not the full details of how some of these heroes have been cast adrift, but even the suspicion of such treatment to those of our own flesh and blood who have fought and suffered for us is enough to stir the people to the most violent indignation. We know of one poor young chap who was returned medically unfit, but who was eager and willing to do his bit and who is looking for employment and almost begging for it like a mendicant. Surely if any person is to be given preference in the matter of obtaining congenial employment it should be our returned volunteers, who have borne the heat and burden of the day. It is about time that there should be some plain talking done in this as in other matters. We see many self-constituted leaders of public opinion "straining at a gnat to swallow a camel." Innocent childhood is denied a day's recreation because of the necessity of "economy," while titled bores are seen nightly with their intimates "stuffing their devils" and spending the hours in roasting. Economy (!) so-called is being preached to the poor and others while certain classes vulgarly flaunt their gala dresses and drive in sumptuous limousines to the disgust of every sane-minded citizen. And these are the "patriots" par excellence. We see drawing-room soldiers on all sides with commissions for this and that, who have no more intention of going out on the firing line with a rifle than they have of taking an aerial flight to the planet Mars. Yet heroes of humble rank are allowed to come home out of the battle line and shift for themselves. The day for seeing these abuses and keeping quiet because of the danger of hurting some good old ady's nerves has passed. Plain speaking is wanted, and one thing we have decided and that is that the Mail and Advocate will not condone present abuses much longer.

A SAD CASE

The death of Donald Fraser McNeil, son of the late James McNeil, who succumbed to his wounds received in the recent drive, is mourned by many in the city who knew and respected this young man. His brother Malcolm, a promising young seaman and mate of the "Regulus" went down in that ship and two other brothers survive him. There are Q. M. Sergeant Hector McNeil of Company A, and Pte. Harvey McNeil, L.I. recently of Steer Bros' grocery and now in training with our regiment here. To the bereaved brother and relatives the Mail and Advocate extends its condolence.

STRANDED VESSEL BREAKING UP

Yesterday a report reached the city by telegraph from St. Pierre that another ship had stranded at Longlade but there is no truth in it. The Danish vessel Ranhilde and the Norwegian ship Inger are still on the rocks. The former has lost her keel and both ships it is now believed will be a total loss.

Halifax School For the Blind

The concert held last night in the College Hall by the pupils of the Halifax School for the Blind was attended by a very appreciative audience. The Chief Justice, Sir Wm. Horwood, presided and made a fluent and complimentary address laudatory of the school and the splendid and philanthropic work it performs. Mr. John Weir, Secretary of the School, followed, and in a most entertaining and very lucid speech gave details of the work of the institution, which held the audience deeply interested from start to finish. The programme of the musicale was an excellent one and the performers gave ample evidence of the talent they possess. Piano solos were given by Messrs. Roderick Frazer and Cyril Pretty, and the concerted items were beautifully given, filling the great auditorium with melody. Some beautiful solos were rendered by Miss Flossie Johnson (of Catalina), Miss May McNeill, and Mr. John Peterson. The other features were of a similar type of excellence and a second performance will be held to-night and should be largely attended. Yesterday the party visited the Presentation Convent, where given a kindly reception by the good Nuns and contributed selections, which were beautifully given and much appreciated.

GAVE THREE SONS

Mr. Rodger Callahan, the well-known and respected business man of Water Street, is anything if not a loyal and patriotic citizen. Mr. Callahan has given three sons to the cause of Freedom and Justice and we congratulate him. Privates Roderick and Walter have been months at the front and now Willie is emulating his brave brothers and will be off with the next draft. We wish this plucky lad as well as his brave brothers God speed and a safe and speedy return home with our victorious veterans.
