W.C.T.U. Presses Claims Upon Anglican Clergymen. NEW YORK, Oct. 27 .- The conbristian Temperance Union adopted piscopal Church to "consider the opriety" of using unfermented wine the communion sacrament in place fermented wine, "which contains e narcotic poison alcohol." The resolution was a substitute for one originally offered setting forth that fermented wine "could not truly present the blood of Christ." This phrase was objected to by inglish delegates, who declared that it would antagonize the Church of England. The English delegates also bjected to an amendment declaring that "Jesus commanded unfermented wine in the holy communion."

He then (about 1870), came to Paris with Mr. David Brown when they established the Ontario Nut and Bolt works, the Standard Needle works, and with Mr. McGill the McGill Plaster Co., later to be come the Alabastine Co. The late Mr. Allan held many positions of trust, among others being chairman of the Board of Education, Alderman and Reeve of the town, President of the Horticultural society and Presdent of the Mechanics' Institute and Public Library. For many years no was chairman of the board of management of the Presbyterian church and took a very active part in the erection of their present magnificent edifice. Four daughters and one con are left to mourn his loss. They are Miss Lettie D., at home; Miss Margaret D., of Hartford Con ..; Mrs. Thomas Gibson of Calgary, Alta., Mrs. (Dr.) McLurg of Wilkie, Sask., and Mr. James Allan of Montreal. A public service will be held in the Presbyterian church to-morrow at 2.30 p.m. and interment will take place at 3 p.m. to Paris cemeetry. The injuries to Mr. James Scott who was hurt on Friday at the Municipal lighting plant, were not so serious as at first supposed and he will be around in a few days. Owing to the continued wet weather of last week, the athletic meet of the Paris, Brantford and Galt Junior Y.M.C.A's., which was to have been held here on Saturday was postponed.
