The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal is this season receiving a larger number of new subscribers than ever before. Their three beautiful premium pictures are general regarded as alone worth far more than the year's subscription price (one dollar), and it is no wonder that thousands of new subscribers are being added. Old subscribers, it is said, are renewing months ahead, just to get these great pictures. The publishers are at their wits' end endeavoring to catch up with the mailing of pictures and are appealing to subscribers not to become anxious, as they positively guarantee that every subscriber for 1902, new or renewed will receive the pictures.
