The Commissioners passed a resolution that licenses be granted to both, when strong objection to such action was made by the farvich temperance people, and their soficition. The Genet. They asked that the licenses be not granted until the certificates had been referred to the Clerk of the township to see whether they contained a sufficient majority of the electors duly qualified to vote at election for Legislative Assembly, in the polling sub-divisions in which the premises were petitioned to be licensed. A certificate was given to each applicant by the Inspector, advising them that the Commissioners had recommended them to a license and calling upon them to pay their fee into the bank. This they did and went on to repair their premises and to carry on the business of licensed hotel keepers. Both proprietors have been keeping hotel in this manner since May 1st.
