THE ACADIAN.

WOLFFVILLE, N. S., DEC. 27, 1895.

Local and Provincial.

Rev. Mr. Thorpe has conducted very acceptably the services in St. Andrew's church for the past two Sundays. Next Sunday Rev. Mr. Sinclair will preach.

Christmas passed off very quietly in Wolffville. A number spent the day with friends in other places. Skating on Tannery pond formed a pleasing variation to the monotony of the day.

The new dynamo for the Electric Light Co. arrived last week and is now attached and in use. The dynamo formerly in use was being overworked and the additional machine makes quite an improvement in the light. The company is now well equipped.

Attention is called to the adv. of Whiston and Frazer's Commercial College. This institution is doing excellent work as the following statistics show: Number of students during the year 294.

Number of graduates 17, most of whom have obtained employment. Typewriting department 17, most of whom have obtained situations. Besides the graduates who have got employment, a large number obtained situations before completing the course. This record speaks well for the esteem in which the College is held by business men, and its value as a stepping-stone to honorable and lucrative employment.

It has been suggested that the committee in charge of the Howe monument fund secure a few thousand pictures of Nova Scotia's greatest statesman and patriot, and sell them at a nominal price to the admirers of him, whose memory we fondly cherish. We quite agree with the suggestion. And while a monument to his memory might be erected in Halifax without outside aid, thousands throughout the Province, in the home of the farmer as well as in the finer residences in our towns, would have the face of Howe to gaze upon and from it gather inspiration to do, in a small measure, what he did in his busy and eventful life—to devote our services to our country's welfare.

Dolls and Toys we are selling away down at the Wolffville Book Store.

Mr. Smith P. Harris, daughter of the late J. L. Armstrong, and granddaughter of the sainted Father Harding, passed to her rest on Dec. 17th, leaving a sorrowing husband and a large family to mourn her departure.

For her, to die was gain, but the entire circle of relatives feel that their loss is great and irreparable.

As a wife, mother, and sister, she was devoted, wise, and loving, and all who came in contact with her could not fail to be helped and made better by the influence of her humble, Christlike life.

"Sister thou wast mild and lovely, Gentle as the summer breeze, Pleasant as the air of evening When it floats among the trees."

Dearest Sister thou hast left us; Here thy loss we deeply feel; But 'tis God that hath bereft us; He can all our sorrows heal.

Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life is fled; Then in heaven with joy to greet thee, Where no farewell tear is shed.

Town Council.

A special meeting of the town council was held on Friday evening last. The Mayor and all the Councilors were present. The chief business was the considering of the renewal of the contract for street lighting. After considerable discussion it was decided that a contract be made to continue until April, 1897, at $7.75 per annum per light—the rate offered by the company.

The matter of unpaid taxes received a considerable amount of attention, and a resolution was passed authorizing the town clerk to proceed by process of law to collect all taxes overdue.

CHRISTMAS-TIDE brings no visitor more welcome than the special Christmas Number of The Youth's Companion. Original, bright and striking, it is filled with a feast of good things, bringing pleasures alike to young and old. To the entire home circle its weekly visits are such a source of pleasure and profit, that the small subscription price of $1.75 should head the list of necessary household expenses.

We would advise Sewing Circles, etc., to take advantage of the BIG SALE at Carver's, Windsor, N. S.

Angus D. Gildert, the Nova Scotian who was last summer convicted of murdering little Alice Sterling of Dorchester, Mass., has been sentenced to death at Boston. The execution, which will take place February 21st, will be the first that has occurred in that state for about 20 years.

Ask for Rand's Emulsion and be sure you get Rand's. Don't take any substitute even if it is "just as good."
