AN "ASSASSIN."
Grand Jury Asked to Indict Men Who Sold Paper.
St. John, N. B., Aug. 24.—In his address to the grand jury to-day Judge Forbes asked them to find true bills against two Greeks who sold Free Speech, the paper edited by C. Bruce McDougall, who was arrested in Moncton last week, and is now in jail here. Referring to the paper, the Judge said: "No man is safe from this midnight assassin, who travels in the guise of a secretary, and imperils our families when we are not prepared to come down with the cash."
McDougall, it is likely, will be sent up for trial before Justice White in the Supreme Court. There are eight counts in the charge against him, and should he be convicted he is liable to two years in penitentiary on each count.

BUG-PROOF POTATO.
Massachusetts Minister Has Succeeded in Growing New Variety.
Montague, Mass., Aug. 24.—The Rev. Amos N. Somers, a Unitarian minister here, stated to-day that he has succeeded in growing a "bug proof" potato. He said: "The vines of my potatoes have a peculiar odor, which is offensive to the potato bug, for it never goes near them. I have taken bugs from plants of the usual type in the next row in my potato patch, and put them on my new vines, in half an hour I cannot find one."

How to Win Her in 30 Minutes; Love Rules of a Brave Man.

Love Rules of A Real Hero
Here are Gen. Hutchinson's love rules:
"If you meet a girl, look into her eyes and decide that you love her; tell her so that minute."
"Don't wait for her to say 'Yes' or 'No'—take it for granted that she is yours."
"Commence immediately to act as if she was your property."
"All women like to feel as if they belonged to a man."
"The girl will soon begin to take your viewpoint of the affair."
"It ought not to take any man more than 30 minutes to win a wife."
"If the young women's relatives object, just ignore them."
"If the girl and her relatives flee—follow them. They will soon capitulate."
Chicago, Ill.—"When you find the girl you want, take her. Don't waste any time. Tell her you love her right away. And then get her. I won my bride in just 30 minutes."
This is the philosophy of 32-year-old Gen. Thos. S. Hutchinson, of Tennessee, by gad sub, as gallant and impetuous as a lover as he showed himself a soldier in the Spanish war. And here's what this hero did:
He went to the Confederate veterans' reunion at Memphis in June.
At the grand ball there he saw a beautiful Texas girl, Miss Louise Cheatham. He got one look into her eyes. Then he hunted up Gov. Pattison—he serves on the Governor's staff, but that isn't how he got his title—and demanded an introduction.
He got it—glad to meet you—charmed you know.
Exactly 30 minutes later—just long enough to get Miss Cheatham out of the crowd of admiring young men—he had proposed.
And Miss Cheatham—who is a girl after Mr. Hutchinson's heart—had accepted.
Followed two months of trips—to Texas, to Memphis again, and to Chicago, convincing Miss Cheatham's relatives that they ought to have him in their family.
Then they were married, and are now on the honeymoon at the Auditorium annex, Chicago, where he told the story.
And both are very happy.
The bride is the daughter of the late Col. Daniel W. Cheatham, a noted Confederate soldier of Clarksville, Tex.
The general is several times a millionaire, and has a splendid Spanish war record.

AN AWFUL TALE. SUFFERINGS OF CASTAWAYS ON A PACIFIC REEF.

Captain Drowned Before Wife's Eyes—Woman Drowned Children Fearing Cannibalism—No Food or Water for Two Weeks.
Victoria, B.C., Aug. 24.—Because no wreck had occurred in the vicinity for years, the British government some time ago ceased leaving supplies for shipwrecked mariners at desolate Middleton Island, in the South Seas, and because supplies were not found there, as they had been led by the sailing direction to expect, the crew of the Norwegian Inga, a small schooner, the Caribbro (Castle), experienced all the agonies of approaching starvation during the awful two weeks in which they had no morsel of food nor drop of water. Several of the seamen went insane, and others, including Capt. Anderson, perished in their endeavors to make and float a seaworthy raft. Mrs. Anderson, the master's wife, sacrificed her four children, and then committed suicide, when, after the death of her husband and father, she heard the seamen discussing a project to resort to cannibalism.
The story of the marooning of the Inga's crew, and their subsequent experiences, was brought here by the Australian Line Makara, this morning. The survivors of the Inga's hapless company had reached Sydney shortly before the sailing of the Canadian-Australian steamer, having been rescued by the steamer Tofu, after two weeks of torment on the reef, following June 18. None were able to give a clear account of their sufferings, and two, if they live, will be mentally unbalanced.
Patrick Palmer, a seaman, has the best recollection of fourteen days of horror on the reef. "We are the last of the twenty-two," he said. "That's including the captain's wife and four children. Five of us got away from the wreck on a raft. We went all over the reef in search of water, but found none, and one died on the reef. We had difficulty in building the raft, and the captain and second mate both got drowned assisting. The captain's wife stood within a few feet of him watching him drown. As she stood there, wringing her hands, she had her four children, from the baby one year old to the eight-year-old girl standing beside her. We thought we would be able to find water on the reef, but the sailing directions lie. There was another wreck on the reef, and we thought it was a store ship. We boarded it, but found nothing to eat. It was musty and old and all it held was a bottle with about two gills of water, that must have been there for years from the horrible taste of it. The carpenter and I drank that. We afterwards found some more water, and although it was in a bad state, we drank it. We then decided to build a punt from the wreck-age, and while we were working on this we lived on shellfish."

HUMAN PIN-CUSHION. Sixteen Blackened and Bent Pins Taken From Girl's Arm.

New York, Aug. 24.—Miss Adelina Newkoff, 18 years old, employed as a window in a silk mill at Paterson, N. J., has been found to be a human pin-cushion. Within three days sixteen pins have been taken from her right arm, and she cannot tell how they got there.
A few days ago the girl felt intense pains in her right arm, found a pin protruding and removed it. More pins soon found their appearance, and Dr. Flood was called in, and he took out sixteen pins, all shaped like the first one and blackened.

DAYLIGHT SAVING BILL.
Select Committee of Commons Reports Against It.
London, Aug. 24.—The Select Committee of the House of Commons on the Daylight Saving Bill has ended its sittings, but has not yet issued its report. It is known, however, that the report pronounces against the bill on the ground of the great diversity of opinion on the subject, and the serious doubts as to whether the object could be secured without much inconvenience.

SHELLED MOORS.

ATTACK ON PENON CONTINUED FOR 24 HOURS.
Tribesmen at Last Yield—Another Town Fired on by the Rebels—Elude the Discharges of Spanish Artillery.

Madrid, Aug. 24.—The Moorish attack on Penon, which began on Saturday, continued until Monday, when the gunboat General Concha approached and shelled their strongholds, scattering the Rifians.
The Rifians also persisted in their attack upon Alhucemas, where they fired upon the Spanish positions all night, and at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, when the last report was received by Gen. Marina, the fighting was still being continued there, the Moors using their artillery. According to a report, they fired four shots against the town, but without effect.
Yesterday's convey was attacked like previous ones, but there were a large number of assailants, and they showed great determination. Ten Spanish soldiers were wounded.
All reports, whether official or private, agree in the statement that the Kabyles have increased the number of their fighting men and are again showing great boldness, although they were apparently tamed after the combat of July 27.
The Spanish notice that the new arrivals in the Moorish ranks are dressed in white, from which circumstance it is surmised that they come from the interior. El Chaldi, who seems to be the leading chief of the Kabyles and director of their war against Spain, probably intends to keep the Spaniards busy so as to prevent the execution of Gen. Marina's plans.
When the Spanish artillery opens fire on the heights of Gurugu, aiming at places pointed out by an officer from a balloon, the Rifians scatter in small moving groups, thus making the efficiency of the shells a mere matter of chance.

RESERVISTS ORDERED OUT.

Madrid, Aug. 24.—Sixteen thousand more men of the reserves are to be mobilized immediately for service in Morocco.
ARMY CANNOT ADVANCE.
Melilla, Morocco, Aug. 24.—The present situation of the army of 35,000 men sent over to Africa by Spain to advance against the Moors is causing widespread and great discontent. Owing to the lack of proper transport for water and supplies, as well as for strategic reasons, any advance is impossible for a fortnight or more. The commanding generals seem in no hurry to move.
Spain made every effort quickly to concentrate this army, and now the her soldiers are here they are cooped up in unhealthy camps, and if they do not move soon they probably will be decimated by an outbreak of disease. The soldiers are discontent at the delay. Officers and soldiers alike detest the country and are anxious to return home.

A STRONG PATRIOT.

Says He Manipulated Contracts For French Citizens of Montreal.
Montreal, Aug. 24.—A humorous turn was given to the work of the civic Royal Commission, when Mr. Rodolphe Brunet, the famous middleman for the distribution of road contracts, came into the limelight on the witness stand. Mr. Brunet described his work as a patriot; triumph for the French-Canadians, as opposed to their English-speaking fellow-citizens.

What Fire Chief Tremblay Said at Grand Rapids Convention.

Montreal, Aug. 24.—Fire Chief Tremblay, head of the Montreal fire brigade, returned to-day from Grand Rapids, Mich., where the international convention of fire engineers was in session. In an interview here he stated what had taken place when he called the meeting to task for not displaying any British flags in the decorations.

ANXIOUS TO SHARE.

Daughter Nations Want to Aid in Imperial Defence.
London, Aug. 24.—Sir Edward P. Morris, Premier of Newfoundland, prior to sailing for home, said the Imperial Defence Conference had been a wonderful success. "It will be regarded by the historian as the most effective step taken in our day to preserve the peace of the world by maintaining Britain as mistress of the seas," he declared.
"During the conference there was not a discordant note. Every British colony was anxious to share the burdens and to contribute to a central fund for the maintenance of the whole family."
"They do not want their lives, trade and liberty any longer to be protected alone by the British sailor and soldier without contributing to the maintenance of the world's peace."

FOUND A POCKETBOOK.

John Hall, of Stratford, Sent to Penitentiary for Theft.
Stratford, Aug. 24.—John Hall, a colored man, cook at the American Hotel, was to-day sentenced to two and a half years in Kingston Penitentiary for the theft of a pocketbook containing $68. The pocketbook was owned by J. M. Wilhelm, a farmer of North Easton, who dropped it on the market on Saturday.
Hall was seen to pick it up, and on being confronted with the fact produced the purse, declaring it was empty when found. However, the evidence showed that before he was apprehended he had given a bar tender the money to keep for him.

Child Smothered to Death.

London, Ont., Aug. 24.—While in its buggy on the veranda this afternoon, the five-months-old child of P. H. Ecott, 781 Richmond street, rolled over on its face and was smothered to death. The mother left it for a few minutes, and came back to find the child lifeless.

A LOST CAUSE.

Strikers at McKee's Rocks Attend Funeral of Dead Companion.
Charge of Peonage to be Investigated by U. S. Officers.
Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 24.—Gloom covered the little manufacturing village of McKee's Rocks to-day. Long funeral processions wended their way from the Greek Catholic Church to Saint Mary's Cemetery, a small burying plot just outside Schoenerville in the van of these funeral trains.
The finding, late to-day, of three more bodies of beaten strike sympathizers was horrifying in its ghastliness, for troopers, detailed to the work of searching for dead and wounded, made little effort to spare the feelings of the men who gathered about them when the bodies, two under a pile of railroad ties and one under a culvert on the tracks of the Pittsburg & Lake Erie Railroad, were pulled into sight. The corpses were hastily piled into a morgue wagon and turned over to the county officials.
An official investigation of the condition inside the stockade of the McKee's Rocks plant of the Pressed Steel Car Company will begin to-morrow morning. From the Department of Justice at Washington, United States District Attorney John H. Jordan late to-day received orders to move at once on the big plant in an investigation of the charges of peonage which have been made against President Frank H. Hoffmann of the car company, in conjunction with Samuel Cohen of the employment bureau at the car-making plant.
Attorney Jordan is under orders to make the investigation most complete and as secret as possible, yet he is empowered to take with him in his search through the plant those who may prove that they have an interest in the workings of the plant. It is understood that the strikers, who have made the charge of peonage against Hoffmann and Cohen will be given ample opportunity to send a committee with Jordan through the mills to make good their claims that workmen are held there against their will and that they are insufficiently fed. The strikers and their sympathizers gave up a mass meeting planned for the late afternoon. Eugene V. Debs, the socialist orator, was in McKee's Rocks to address the strikers, but even he declared that words were of little avail now, as the riots of Sunday night had for once and all placed the strikers in the position of outcasts whose cause was all but lost.
And on every hand to-night it is conceded that the strikers have lost their fight. The Pressed Steel Car Company plant to-day was in operation, with over 1,000 men at work.
