MONTHLY MAGAZINE

GENERAL LITERATURE & SCIECNE.

THE Catholic World contains original articles from the best Catholic English writers at home and abroad, as well as transations from the Reviews and Magazines of France, Germany, Belgium, Italy, and Spain its readers are thus put in possession of the choicest productions of European periodical literature, in a chesp and convenient form.

Extract from letter of Pope Pius IX. Rome, Dec. 30, 1868.

We heartily congratulate you upon the es-teem which your periodical, 'The Catholic World,' has, through its crudition and per-spicuity, acquired even among teose who dif-er from us, etc.

Letter from the Most Rev. Archbishop of New York. New York, Feb. 7, 1865.

DEAR FATHER HECKER: DEAR FATHER HECKER:

I have read the Prospectus which you have kindly submitted of a new Catholic Magazine, to be entitled: "The Catholic World," which it is proposed publishing in this city, under your supervision; and I am happy to state there is nothing in its whole scope and spirit which has not my hearty approval. The want of some such periodical is widely and deeply felt, and I cannot doubt that the Catholic community at large will rejoice at the prospect of having this want, if not fully, at least in a great measure, supplied.

With the articless which you have of draw-

With the privilege which you have of drawing on the intellectual wealth of Catholic Europe, and the liberal means placed at your disposal, there ought to be no such word as failure, in your vocabulary.

Hoping that this iaudable enterprise will uset with well-merited success, and under od's blessing, become fruitful in all the good od's blessing

I remain, Rev. Dear Sir, very truly, your friend and servant in Christ,

Archbishop of New York. "THE CATHOLIC WORLD"
