THE WAR

The war situation in Russia and Roumania is brighter for the Allies the last few days. The Germans have, since their capture of Riga, also captured the whole right bank of the Duna river for a considerable distance above Riga, but they have not advanced any great distance eastward from that river for the Russians are resisting strongly in that region. The German advance in Roumania has made little or no headway for some time.

In Russia there are revolutions and counter-revolutions, yet the government of Kerensky seems to hold power with a fair degree of security.

On the western front the British armies, the past week, advanced a mile along an eight mile front, gaining eight square miles from the enemy and holding it. The Canadians and Australians continue to distinguish themselves in every contest.

The German submarines, always a terrible menace, appear to be doing less damage the last few weeks than formerly.

China has decided to send 24,000 soldiers to Europe, and, if transportation can be procured, is reported willing to send 300,000.

Argentina, a South American State, with some seven or eight million people, nearly all White, appears to be on the brink of making war on Germany.

Germany and Austria have answered the Pope's peace terms, practically accepting the suggestions of His Holiness that the warring nations agree to a return to pre-war conditions, the final status of Poland, Alsace-Lorraine and Italian Austria and the amount of indemnity for Belgium and Serbia to be settled by negotiation. The Allies replied to the Pope's proposals some time ago insisting that negotiations were impossible with the present German government.

T. I. L. DISCUSSES CONSCRIPTION OF WEALTH

It was decided to call a special meeting of the League, the committee and Town Council for 8.30 next Monday evening, Oct. 1st.
Mr. Ander read the following letter re petition signed by 2312 voters sent to Ottawa last month asking for an election on repeal of the Scott Act:

Ottawa 22nd Sept. 1917
Sir:—I am in receipt of your letter of the 15th instant, in reference to the Northumberland petition.
"In reply I would state that this petition will receive attention just as soon as the Bill in its final amended form" (the bill to authorize the Government to suspend the Scott Act by a declaration) "is received from the King's Printer. The Act is at present available only in the form in which it was passed by the House of Commons, but some amendments were made in the Senate. These amendments do not, I believe, affect the section dealing with the suspension of the Act without a vote. You may rest assured that the matter will be attended to at the earliest opportunity."
"I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant,
THOMAS MULVEY,
Under Secretary of State.
J. ANDER, Esq.,

The map is not for sale at any price, but is given free to all who pay a year's subscription to that great paper. The price for the full map is $1.25, map included. It is wonderful value, and it is no wonder they are securing thousands of new readers. Renewals also, many months ahead, are being sent in order to get the map. Thank Offering Service At Trinity Church Blackville

A very large congregation assembled in Trinity Church, Blackville, on Sunday evening, Sept. 23rd to pour forth their thanks in prayer and song to Almighty God for such a bountiful harvest and all the other blessings vouchsafed to them during the past year.

The church was very prettily decorated with greenery, potted plants, cut flowers, vegetables, grain and fruit. The service consisted of Even song. Instead of the psalms for the day the Benedicite was sung, also special thanksgiving hymns.

Much credit is due to the organist and choir.
Mr. Forrester preached an impressive service dwelling particularly on the progress of the war and reasons for thankfulness to God for the blessings we enjoy in such an epoch in the world's history.

The congregation regret very much that this was Mr. Forrester's last service with them. He goes back to his studies and work in New York with their very best wishes and with hopes to see him again next year when he will be ordained at the Cathedral.

The September meeting of the W. A. was held at the home of the President, Mrs. H. Priestman Thursday Sept. 13th. The President presided. This proved to be one of the best meetings of the W. A. since its organization, a large number of members and visitors being present.

After the business was transacted and the different branches of the work discussed, Mr. Forrester read a portion of scripture from the second chapter of Revelation and meditated on it. He urged us not to lose our zeal in church work and to keep up the devotional side of the W. A.

On Tuesday Chief Oughlan of Chatham stored two barrels of whiskey at Chatham Freight Shed.

Worth Protecting

A good article is worthy of a good package. A rich, strong, delicious tea like Red Rose is worth putting into a sealed package to keep it fresh and good.

A cheap, common tea is hardly worth taking care of and is usually sold in bulk.

Red Rose is always sold in the sealed package which keeps it good.
