

The examinations before the commencing Magistrate (Judge Courroy) were completed to-day and resulted in Messrs. Crichton, Norman and Heale being committed for trial. The accused were released on bail, to appear on the 21st November in the Supreme Court. D. J. Greene, Esq., has been retained by the defendants—Telegram Sept. 8.

WRECKS AT LABRADOR—By the arrival of the Labrador mail, intelligence have been received of the loss of several craft on the coast during the recent gales that have prevailed there. Three of these craft belonged to this place. The first of them, the schooner Helen McGregor, was lost on the 27th July by striking on a rock in Flagstaff Tickle near Hopedale. When the water fell she broke in two and went to bottom. This vessel was in charge of Mr John Meaney, a dealer in charge of Mr John Munn & Co., and at the time of the disaster had on board no fish. She was a schooner of 45 tons and was owned by Messrs John Munn & Co.

The second, the George S Fogg, was owned by Captain Nicholas Fitzgerald and was driven ashore on the 24th of August at the Farm Yards. She had a quantity of fish in at the time.

The other was the Ornament belong to Messrs Paterson & Foster. We have not heard particulars. The tonnage of last two mentioned craft was 103 and 51 tons respectively.

Besides these craft we hear of the loss of three or four others belonging to the Northward. Amongst them was a vessel owned by Captain Barber of Swain's Island. This vessel, unfortunately, had a full load of fish on board at the time of the disaster.—Standard.

TAKE NOTICE—On the 13th December last Miss Fanny Coleman, a native of this town, died at the New Royal Infirmary, Edinburgh, Scotland. As no clue to her relatives can be obtained by a party in town who has made careful enquiry, if this should meet the eye of any relative we shall be glad to furnish the name of the gentleman, and he or she may hear of something to their advantage from him. We will be obliged if the newspaper in the colony will copy this paragraph Times.

Married—At Hearts' Content, on Saturday last, 3rd inst., at the residence of Alfonso Coopard, Esq., by the Rev. Richard Walsh, C. C. Carbonear, Mr. Charles P. Wallace, of the Anglo-American Telegraph Company, to Miss Elodie Debroisse of St Pierre.

To the memory of Mary Joseph, wife of Mr John Thomey, who died at Harbor Grace, July 22nd, 1881.

When a child she was loved for her gentle emotions
Her faithful obedience to parents and friends
Her duty to God and her fervent devotion
Proved she often reflected life's pleasures would end.

Though young, but unteemed, with consent of her parents
She married, left Small Point and lived in sweet peace
Eighteen months scarce passed, mortal aid unavailing,
She succumbed to death at her home Harbor Grace.

Farewell Loving wife, and faithful companion,
Farewell beloved sister your troubles are o'er,
By sorrowing friends your death is lamented
From Bay of Conception to bleak Labrador.

Let us hope you're but gone to a home that's eternal
Where peace everlasting you are destined to share
Though divided by death, yet death may unite us
So we will remember you Mary by prayer.
