"PERIQUE."

Dark Cut Tobacco in tins and packages. This is one of the

COOLEST SMOKES

On the market. Try a 10 cent package. You'll enjoy it. All up-to-date grocers and druggists sell it.

HICKEY & NICHOLSON Tobacco Co., Ltd.

Ch'town, Phone 345.

For New

We carry the finest line of

Hardware

to be found in any store.

Architects, Builders and Contractors, will find our line of goods the newest in design, the most adaptable and improved, and of the highest standard of merit in quality and

Also a full line of pumps and piping.

Stanley, Shaw & Peardon.

June 12, 1907.

Coal Company RESERVE COAL.

As the season for importing Coal in this Province is again near, we beg to advise dealers and conconsumers of Coal that we are in a position to grant orders for cargoes of Reserve, Screened, Run of mine, Nut and Slack Coal, F. O. B., a loading piers Sydney, Glace Bay or Louisburg, C. B.

Prices quoted on application, and all orders will receive our careful attention by mail or wire,

Reserve Coal is well known all over this Island, and is most extensively used for domestic and steam purposes

Schooners are always in demand during the season and chartered at highest current rates of freight. Good despatch guaranteed schooners at loading piers.

Peake Bros. & Co.,

Selling Agents for Prince Edward Island for Dominion Coal Company,

Charlottetown, P. E. I., April 21, 1909-4i

Spring & Summer Weather

Fall and Winter weather calls for prompt attention

Repairing, Cleaning and Making of Clothing. We are still at the old stand.

PRINCE STREET, CHARLOTTETOWN

Giving all orders strict attention. Our work is reliable, and our prices please our customers.

H. McMILLAN

Far-Sightedness

Uncorrected by glasses, imposes a severe tax on the eyes, which are needlessly weakened by the strain involved in trying to misuse them. Defects in vision grow, like weeds, sain to the historians of Orleans country whose language, history and so the witters of evil books may without cultivation, and it's dangerous to overlook them. of its inhabitants that the memory most unknown to outsiders. Whatever may be thought of a tax on income, a tax on the sight will never do, as it is apt to leave taxers out of sight.

Should you need glasses, better have your eyes tested eur. and fitted at once. You will find our prices quite

W. TAYLOR,

South Side Queen Square, City.

Buildings Just Received

New Hat Pins, Ladies' and Genand the perils that, at the present time, threaten its very existence as substratum underlying almost every the thoughts or arouse the passions. tlemen's Fobs, Chains, Lockets, Sterling Thimbles, Links, Bracelets, Brooches.

E. W. TAYLOR.

South Side Queen Square, City.

Are a nice thing to send to friends abroad. We have a nice selection of City and Provincial views to select from The following are some of the titles.

One color 2 cents each.

St Dunstan's College, Notre Dame Convent, Hillsborough Bridge Soldiers Monument

St Joseph's Convent, Ch'town | Bishop's Palace & Church Ch'town Interior St Dunstan's Cathedral, Charlottetown View of Charlottetown from Victoria Park

Colored Cards 2 for 5 cents.

Victoria Row, Charlottetown | Pioneer Family, five genera-Block House Poinl, City Hospital, Crossing the Capes Str Stanley in ice Str Minto in ice Apple Blossoms Travellers Rest Beautiful Autumn Terrace of Rocks Catching Smelts at S'Side Sunset at S'side Harbor Summer St, Summerside

High School,

Among the Birches A Morning Walk, Bonshaw Trout Fishing A Rustic Scene North Cape By Still Waters The Border of the Woods Harvesting Scene A Shady Nook Surt Bathing, North Cape Looking Seaward

We also have a large variety of Comic Cards at one cent each. Any number of cards will be sent by mail providing one cent extra is added for each 10 cards.

EUREKA TEA

If you have never tried our Eureka Tea it will pay you! to do so, It is blended especially for our trade, and our a feeling of good fellowship between against Christ, His Church and His authority. Thousands are flocking sales on it show a continued increase. Price 25 cents per 1b.

R. F. Maddigan & Co. sewn in northern France, for eximmoral whispers and inflaming of good books, and did onr part in ample, a fete of this kind was organimaginations. To read such books helping on the cause of Catholic is a moral contagion—it is to imliterature. The Catholic book, the bishops seized every opportunity of stance is but one example out of and immorality, which, for anything impressing upon their flock the duty many of Jeanne's happy influence they know, may serve to pollute of celebrating the fete of their in the land she loved so well. national heroine with due honor. Mgr. Touchet, Bishop of Orleans, severe loss, when on the 28th of generations yet unborn-living, and aptly pointed out that this year the March last the Vicomte Eugene spreading its baneful influence long added that it was the citizens of suddenly in Paris. He was the of the heroine, forgotten by medieval writers and disfigured by modern sceptics, has been handed down in all its simplicity, purity and grand-

Eureka Grocery, QUEEN STREET, CHARLOTTETOWN.

The fetes at Oreleans were, this year, somewhat marred by the traditional ceremony; took place the mayor placed the maid's standard in the hands of the bishop, who stood on the threshold of the cathedral. In spite of the ill-will of the Government, this ceremony continues as before to excite much enaddress, Mgr. Touchet regretted hibited from joining the Church to well as a bishop. The next day, tian creed, M. l'abbe Gaudeau preached Jeanne's panegyrio. He drew a comparison between the material perils of the and associations kept aloof, while unction in the afternoon. "One reely realized the want of union hat existe," says a newspaper reporter. By its narrow sectarian prejudices, the Government has shorn a unique celebration of its picturesqueness and originality, besides inflicting a gratuitous insult as become a "clerical" and her past ervices are ignored by the atheists scale were made, and, as early as the morning of May 7 blue flags with Jeanne's portrait, the Papal standard, white and yellow, the the Maid's famous banner with its magic words: "Jhesus, Maria," were flying gaily from many windows. Then came, like a thunderbolt, the news that Edward VII had died the night before. This was followed by a notice sent to the newspapers by the archbishop, re questing Catholics, as a mark of sympathy with the mourning of a friendly nation, to abstain from decorating and illuminating as they had intended to do, but to be all the more zealous in celebrating the feast within the churches. The archbishop's tactful act must appeal to the English people, and in many a Paris church prayers were offered up in private for the dead king.

If the feast of the beroine was thus deprived of some of its outward splendor in Paris, the churches were crowded throughout the day. They had been appropriately decorinscribed the most glorious dates of her short life and the places most closely connected with her memory ; Vaucouleurs, Orleans, Reims, Rouen Rome. At Notre Dame, her panegyrio was preached by l'abbe Sertillanges, in presence of the archbishop and of the principal leaders of the Catholic party.

picturesque form, appealing strongof the French temperament. These so many into the vortex of crime in Secularism in education is confess. story to the uneducated, whose tarnished. imagination is struck by the pageworked hand in hand, and the work death. ing class was given an appropriate It is certainly a melancholy reflec from band to hand, to light up the part in the procession. The church, tion, that any such books should be darkness and to kindle the faith of usually empty, was filled to over-extant amongst us. It is sad to the multitudes.—The Tablet,

Jeanne d'Arc's Feast Day, flowing and the preacher attributed think that any of the human species many of the spiritual victories that should have so far lost all sense of crowned his efforts to the cordial shame, all feelings of conscience, as For weeks before May 8 the feast good will created by the celebrations to sit down deliberately and compile Blessed Jeanne d'Arc, the French in bonor of the Maid. This in- a work entirely in the cause of vice

French literature experienced a gate contagion and iniquity through seast fell upon the exact anniversary Melchior de Vogue, a member of the after the unhappy hand that wrote of the deliverance of their city; he French Academy, died almost it is mouldering in the dust.

> ANGLO-FRENCH CATHOLIC, In America.

Modern Literature.

The day has gone by when the discussion was between Christian weather. However, on May 6, the fight, a flerce struggle, every day and Obristian; it is now a stand-up becoming more firce, between faith and infidelity. A spurious philosopby has prevailed under one name or another in every age, from the days of Democritus down to our own: but it has received recently an impetus from the teachings of thusiasm. Replying to the mayor's Materialists. Emboldened by their that the army should now be pro- of the Materialistic school have atsuccess in research, the professors tempted to lift the mysterious veil honor the national heroine, adding of nature, and have challenged the that when he spoke thus he express- truths of Revelation on the most ed his feelings as a Frenchman as fundamental principles of the Chris-In fact the Materialistic theories matter eternal, and which recognize to faith and morals. a Cathelic nation; concluding that species of modern literature. It is Such reading familiarizes the young the Blessed Maid must again be this Materialistic philosophy in the with the details of vice, and their called upon to save her country! trappings of popular literature better nature is overshadowed by it, but the civil and local societies fluence has been stealing over the weakened. minds of men till it has succeeded the army had a separate military in shaking to its centre the whole and struggle—that warring of the civilized country. advertisements where their most And these works, adapted to every moment of final dissolution. class of readers, and to every grade popular mind can be reached.

books are more generally read than the current literature. A spiritual good ones, and that newspapers pestilence is passing over the earth, wherein religion and morality are and the souls of millions are perish. outraged, have a very wide circula- ing through its foul agencies,

In the provinces, fetes in bonor take place and often assume a sities of human nature, and it is this magnificent works in building up familiarity with the face of vice the mighty fah-ic of the social world, ly to the emotional and artistic side which is so contagious, and draws and her lofty ideals of humanity. manifestations have a twofold ad- the large cities while its absence ing its failure at home and abroad. vantage; they bring home Jeanne's keeps country life so pure and un. The toiling masses are turning to ants of which she is the central the more dangerous among books - greeds are falling to pieces for want figure; they also frequently greate those which are written professedly of unity, cohesive principle and persons of different rank; and this, laws, or the furtive and stealthy back to the old Church in sheer in small provincial centres, has a literature which is penatuated weariness of spirit. The thousands deeper and happier meaning than through and through with unbelief would swell into millions if we were might be supposed. In a little and passion, false principles, up and active in the dissemination sown in northern France, for ex- immoral whispers and inflaming of good books, and did our part in ized on the occasion of a mission; is a moral contagion—it is to im- literature. The Catholic book, the women and young girls of all ranks bibe poison—it is certain spiritual Catholic magazine, the Catholic the minds of millions, and to propa-

It is a striking observation made Orleans who through years of obliv- first to introduce Russian literature by one of the Fathers of the Church ion, neglect and calumny, preserved to his countrymen and his studies that "as the authors of good books the tradition of her holiness and, on Russian history are more inter- may hope to find their future crown unlike many of their countrymen, esting than any novel. His lightened by the degree of wisdom never wavered in their belief in her marriage with a Russian gave him and virtue which their writings imheavenly mission. It is owing, he an insight into the intimate life of a part through successive generations, and to the deeply-rooted traditions literature were, at that time, al- well dread an in wasc of puotete ment in the fature world proportionate to the pollution which they spread, and the evil effects which their writings shall produce as long as they continue to be read." To what frightful deserts mus the writers of modern literature look forward in accordance with such a prediction! The literature of to-day, light and popular, stately and philosophical alike, teems with immorality and infidelity. It displays itself in every form of poetry and prose, in lectures, essays, histories, and in biblical criticism. There it stands palpable and terrible like Milton's Death, black and horrible, obstructing the light of heaven, and overshadowing God's fair creation. The Press is Catholic institution; a Catholic invented it; a Catholic first printed books, and the Catholic Church first fostered it. But the enemies of Catholicity have seized it and turn. of your extreme paleness?" which to-day defy reason and make ed it into an engine of destruction

France that Jeanne helped to deliver in matter the principle and perwhich is filling the earth with crime the vicious existences pictured, and making the lives of men a veri- while the moral strength to resist The municipal Council took part in table inferno. Its pernicious in- temptation is slowly but surely

> Then there is that inward strife tabric of social life in almost every passions from which no one is freethat tendency to evil which seeks to The religious works of the Euro- cast off the salutary restraints of pean continent have been translated religion, and which has carried into English, and circulated in every down with the current of innate variety of form from the most ornate corruption the greater part of manto the cheapest and most accessible. kind. All these things are borne in They are on the counters in the de- upon the soul, day by day, and year partment stores, in the most flashing by year, as though life were to last prurient qualities are held out as in- begins to abandon the absolute ducements to the buyer. Nor are realities of life and law and to dwell works of a similar spirit and tend in the house of a diseased imaginency wanting in our own literature, ation like a leper waiting for the tell you how I love you." Her-while fertile in the production of in this regard, the cultivation of about it." new ones, flatter the pride of the Catholic instincts, and the acquirunderstanding, stimulate the ing of Catholic habits of thought. passions of the heart, and diffuse While the banners of atheism and their poison in every department of anarchy are waving throughout buman learning and through every Europe, the forces of infidelity and after effects whatever. Be sure you form of publication by which the indifference are doing their deadly get Milburn's. Price 25 and 50 cts. work at bome. The spirit of re-An evil Press, largely circulated volt, born of corruption and bred and read by many who suspect no of disease, has swept across the evil, is rapidly sapping the faith of ocean and finds a resting place pearer home. The enemy has laid Unfortunately there exists in our hold of a great part of the press and nature a propensity to evil. What- is using it for the destruction of ever flatters our passions or vicious morality and the peversion of truth, business for it. inclinations we, as a rule, are readier The wells of knowledge and the to follow than what is good and vir- fountains of truth are being daily tuous. Hence we find that bad and hourly poisoned by means of tion. If anything more than bad If God, therefore, has given to example tends to propagate vice, it Catholica wealth of ability and is bad reading. Vice in itself is strength of mind, and richness of odious, but when decked out in the opportunity to engage in the in- deal more expensive to be the comfalse coloring of a cleverly written tellectual combat which is being book it becomes enticing. Young laught everywhere around us, they inquisitive people-and young peo ought to use these means to oppose ple are generally inquisitive-are the tide of infidelity and indifference which is sweeping over the nations After persuing such a book their by putting against it the barrier of horror of vice is much lessened, they good books and Catholic reading. veren't for the great poets we'd be take up another; and so, by degrees, In many quarters the mists are be- stumped many a time for something their ideas become perverted, ginning to lift; many intelligent to write in an autograph album," Nearly all men agree that it is the people are beginning to look to the familiarity with vice which develops Catholic Church because of her of the national heroine continue to all the immoral and vicious propen- openly proclaimed doctrines, her > the Church for the solution of the It is indeed hard to say which is vexed problems of labor. The newspaper is the flery eross spread

Had Weak Back.

Would Often Lie in Bed For Days, Scarcely Able Te Turn Herself.

Mrs. Arch. Schnare, Black Point, N.B., rites:—"For years I was troubled with weak back. Oftentimes I have lain in bed for days, being scarcely able to turn myself, and I have also been a great sufferer while trying to perform my household duties. I had doctors attending me without avail and tried liniments and plasters, but nothing seemed to do me any good. I was about to give up in despair when my husband induced me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and after using two boxes I am now well and able to do my work. I am positive Doan's Kidney Pills are all that you claim for them, and I would advise all kidney sufferers to give them a fair trial." them a fair trial."
DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS are a purely vegetable medicine, realizing quick, permanent relief, without any after ill effects. A medicine that will absolutely oure Backache and all forms of Kidney and Pladler Dream.

Price, 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25, at all dealers or The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

"I tell you I must have some mon ey!" roared the King of Maritania, who was in sore financial straits. "Somebody will have to cough up!" "Alas!" said the guardian of the treasury, who was formerly the court jester, "all our coffers are empty."

Beware Of Worms.

Don't let worms gnaw at the vitals your children. Give them Dr. Low's Pleasant Worm Syrup and they'll soon be rid of these parasites. Price 50c.

Gladys: "Well, what did Miss Doctor Cleverton say was the cause Grace: "Well, she has prescribed for me a hat and waist that will go beautiful with it,"

Sprained Arm.

Mary Osington, Jasper, Ont., writes :- "My mother had a badly sprained arm. Nothing we used did her any good. Then father got Hagyard's Yellow Oil and it cured mother's arm in a few days." Price

Real Estate Agent-"I tell you, sir, the death rate in this suburb is lower than in any other part of the Near-Victim-"I believe you. I wouldn't be found dead here myself."

Minard's Liniment Cures

Him-"I-I don't know how to "Don't worry about that-I'll take it What we want thus to day is an as it comes. What you want to get of intellect revive the old errors arousing of the Catholic conscience nervous about is how to tell papa.

> Milburn's Sterling Ueadache Powders give women prompt relief from

"Cholly's club and Fredy's club got up teams and played a game of ball for the benefit of a hospital." "No, but they made considerable

Minard's Liniment cures

"I want the office, of course," said the aspiring statesman, "but not unless I am the people's choice." "We can fix that, too," said his campaign manager; "only you know it's a good

Could Not Sleep In The Dark. Doctor Said Hears and

Nerves Were Responsible. There is many a man and woman toss-There is many a man and woman tossing night after night upon a sleepless bed. Their eyes do not close in the sweet and refreshing repose that comes to those whose heart and nerves are right. Some constitutional disturbance, worry or disease has so debilitated and irritated disease has so debilitated and irritated the nervous system, that it cannot be quieted.

Mrs. Calvin Stark, Rossmore, Ont., writes:—"Ahous two years ago I began to be troubled with a smothering sensation at night, when I would lie down. I got so bad I could not sleep in the dark, and would have to sit up and rub my limbs, they would become so numb. My doctor said my heart and nerves were responsible. I saw Milbum's Heart and Nerve Pills advertised and got a box to Nerve Pills advertised and got a box t try them. I took three boxes and can now lie down and sleep without the light burning and can rest well. I can recom-mend them highly to all nervous and run down women."

Price 50 cents per box or 3 for $1.25 or mailed direct on receipt