

Bandelion Days

These are the days when, host on host, the simple flowers May loves the most, And man esteems the least, invade Meadow and wayside field and glade.

The Surgeon's "Miracle"

He had quizzical, black eyes topped by long gray hair and dark brows habitually raised in a half-questioning, half-scowling expression, a humorous, clean-shaven mouth, a wonderfully young complexion for his middle-aged years, and he had been, until now, but an occasional visitor at the Emergency Hospital.

Pains in the Back

Are symptoms of a weak, torpid or stagnant condition of the kidneys or liver, and are a warning if it is extremely hazardous to neglect, so important is a healthy action of these organs.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cures kidney and liver troubles, relieves the back, and builds up the whole system.

I would like to believe, Sister Angela, but—but I can't. And he walked on.

With passionate devotion Sister Angela commenced her bombardment of the heavenly citadel for surrender of the Surgeon's atheism.

Quite a conflicting state of affairs and one that Sister Angela finally shelved in despair, relying upon heaven to do all things for the best.

And it is possible, my son, she said frankly, that you will come into your reward today.

The patient's tired eyes brightened faintly.

'I am not afraid,' he said.

'And I want you to do something for me,' Sister Angela hurried on.

'If he dies, she supplicated the Surgeon, 'I have something to say to you.

'The promise was given.

'Now, Sister Angela, confided to herself, 'I, too am not afraid.'

'The verdict of the consultation of the staff's physicians, however, preceded her ultimate resolution.

'There is just one chance,' was the unanimous verdict.

'With—' he hesitated, then said abruptly, 'I will try.'

'The little nun had never faced quite so puzzling a situation.

'There, on the one hand, was the patient—a wonderful soul with the perfect confidence of a true child of God in His all-wise and all-just ordinances, anxious to live, desirous of working out a full life of labor and of watchfulness for the loved ones of his heart, but willing, too, to die;

'He—By Jove! I should never have thought it. You look every bit as young as he does.'

5 Children Had Dysentery. Mrs. D. Mitchell, 19 Kingsley Ave., Toronto, Ont., writes:—'It is with great pleasure that I recommend Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for dysentery. It is really wonderful how quickly it acts. My five children had dysentery last summer, and we tried everything we could think of until a friend advised us to use Dr. Fowler's. A few doses soon gave them relief. Now we always keep a bottle of it in the house.'
