The ploughing match in connection, with the Clinton Branch Agricultural Society took place on the farm of Mr. Shipley, Clinton, on Friday last. The day was most unfavorable, a drizaling rain having continued to full during the entire day. The ploughmen and their animals must have had a hard time of it, and spectators were ecomparatively scurve. The field was not at all adapted to the purpose, being very uneven, the scd only being of one year's growth and the grass long at trough. We really thought that a better field might have been recured, but we doubt not the menagers did the beat they could in the interests of the Society, Mr. Biggins, the efficient and gentlemanly President of the Society, was on hard notwithstanding the weather, making things as pleasant as possible for all. The ploughing over, the ploughmen and a rumber of others and down to an excellent dinner at Mr. Mooney's Hotel, where, in the pleasures of the table the unpleasantness of the weather was quite forgotten. The princes were awarded as follows:—

CLASS II.—Over eighteen years of age—iron ploughs—lat, John Salkeid, S3: 2nd, Alex. Mattin, 1.

CLASS II.—Over eighteen years of age—iron ploughs—lat, Andrew Gireen, $3: 2nd, William Pearson, $2: 3nd, William Robson, $1.

CLASS II.—Under 18 years—iron ploughs. Ist, Stewart McDougall, $3: 2nd, Vm. Wise, $1.

CLASS II.—Under 18 vears—wood ploughs. Ist, Stewart McDougall, $3: 2nd, Vm. Wise, $1.

Considering the state of the weather and the field the ploughing was well executed. Had circumstances been more favorable, the skill of the ploughmen was equal to the task of making a field superior to anything that has ever been seen in Huron.—Caurier.

AN IMMENSE STOCK OF READY MADE CLOTHING ON HAND. This season, in order to meet more satisfactorily the wants of my customers in the Cloth Department, I have imported an extra large stock of superfine Tweeds and Coatings. I have also reengaged a well-known cutter, Richard Carr, whose style and fit have been giving unqualitied satisfaction. Gentlemen favoring us with their orders may rely on gelling a well-fitting gai ment, made up with the utmost care, as regards workmanship, and cut according to the latest Fashions, and at moderate prices.

WINTER OVERCOATS. I have got a variety of the above gaments, and up by good workmen, in the most fashionable style. Prices ranging from four to twenty dollars.

SCOTCH AND CANADIAN TWEEDS. It is not at all astonishing that Canadian Tweeds have got a world-wide fame, when we consider that as yet no quality of cloth or material produced in any country equals the Canadian in durability or in comfort.

FOR GENTLEMEN'S EVERY-DAY WEAR, FOR TROUSERS OR SUITS, for the working man who must economise his means, or for Boy's Clothing, nothing equals the Canadian Tweeds at WALLACE'S GLASGOW HOUSE. You get an immense variety of every pattern in those most desirable goods.
