

Old Maids and Old Bachelors.

Old maids are useful. They can cook, sew and take care of children, nurse sick people, and generally play the piano.

Old bachelors are useless. They do not even know how to drive nails or split wood.

Old maids are amiable. If one wants anything done that requires patience and kindness of heart, a single lady is sure to be the one to do it.

Old bachelors are ill-natured. They snub children, despise babies and hate young mothers, and are always so busily employed in seeing that other people take good care of them that they have not a moment to give to any one else.

Old maids are nice looking, and "young for their years." Old bachelors generally have red noses, rheumatism in their knees, bald heads, and mouths that turn down at the corners.

Old maids can make a home of one little room, and cook delicious meals for one over the gas-jet in cunning little tin-kettles, besides making all their own wardrobes.

Old bachelors need an army of tailors, waiters, cooks, distant relatives and hotel landlords to keep them comfortable. When old maids are ill they tie up their heads in pocket-handkerchiefs, take homoeopathic pellets out of two bottles, alternately, and get well again.

When old bachelors are ill they go to bed and send for four doctors; have a consultation; a mantel-piece full of black bottles; all the amiable married men who belong to the club sit up with them at night, besides a hired nurse; they telegraph to their relations; and do their best to impress the world with the idea that they are dying.

When an old maid travels she takes a sandwich, a piece of pound cake, a bottle of lemonade in a hand basket, and lunches comfortably in the carriage.

When an old bachelor travels he orders a dinner in courses at the station, and raves because he has not time to eat it before the "fifteen minutes for refreshments" are over.

Old maids drink weak tea and it cures their headaches. Old bachelors drink strong liquor which give them headaches.

Old maids are modest; they think their youth is over and their beauty gone. If, after a while, some autumnal love is given them, they take it as a sort of miracle, and hope people will not laugh at them for "marrying so late in life."

Old bachelors believe that all women are in love with them, and that they must carefully guard themselves from traps laid in inveigle them into matrimony. They also fondly cherish the belief that should they eventually become married men, the world expects them to exhibit great taste in women by their choice, and that the "other fellows" will laugh if their portion be not tender youth and beauty; also that when they marry, many women will expire of jealousy.

Words of Wisdom.

Persons often lack courage to appear as they really are.

A true faith in science knows no limit to its search for truth.

They are never alone who are accompanied with noble thoughts.

"See what I am!" not "See what my father was!" is an old and excellent Arabic saying.

Words should be subordinate to ideas.

We never place the pedestal on the head of the statue.

Self-denial is the most exalted pleasure, and the conquest of evil habits the most glorious triumph.

Never reflect on a past action that was done with a good motive, and with the best judgment at the time.

A woman may always judge of the estimation in which she is held by the conversation which is addressed to her.

Men, contrary to iron, are worse to be wrought upon when they are hot, and are far more tractable in cold blood.

Action keeps the soul in health, whereas idleness rusts the mind and corrupts as well as benumbs all its active faculties.

When the million applaud you, seriously ask yourself what harm you have done; when they curse you, what good.

The mind is weak when it has once given way; it is long before a principle restored can become as firm as one that has never been moved.

The expectation of future happiness is the best relief of anxious thoughts, the most perfect cure of melancholy, the guide of life and the comfort of death.

Could we rightly and duly reflect on the misfortunes of other men, we should be much more thankful than we are for the many undeserved blessings which we daily enjoy.

Success is dazzling. Men are so constituted that every body undertakes what he sees another successful in, whether he has aptitude for it or not.

A prosperous gold miner in California gives half a continent a fever for seeking gold.

One successful general fills the dreams of thousands of youth with the possibilities of military renown.

There is always room for men of force—live men; the smartest must take the lead. Most men are capable of greater things than they perform, and all require the proper opportunity.

A feeble man can see only the farms that are fenced and tilled, the houses and barns that are actually built; but a strong man sees possible houses and thrifty farms.

Women should all understand that no beauty has any charms but the inward one of the mind, and that a gracefulness in the manners is much more engaging than that of their persons; that modesty and modesty are the true and lasting ornaments. These are the only charms that render wives amiable and give them the very best title to our respect.

We must consult the gentlest manner and softest seasons of address, our advice must not fall like a violent storm, bearing down and making those to droop whom it is meant to cherish and refresh.

It must descend as the dew upon the tender herb, or like melting flakes of snow—the softer it falls the longer it dwells upon and the deeper it sinks into the mind.

The more quietly and peaceably we get on the better—the better for our neighbors. In nine cases out of ten the wisest policy is, if a man cheats, stop trading with him; if he is abusive, quit his company; if he slanders you, take care matter who he is, or how he misuses you, the wisest way is to let him alone; for there is nothing better than this cool, calm, quiet way of dealing with the wrong we meet with.

How to Get Rich.

The great secret of obtaining riches, is first to practice economy, and as good old Deacon Snyder says, "It used to worry the life out of me to pay enormous doctor's bills, but now I have 'struck it rich.' Health and happiness reign supreme in our little household, and all simply because we use no other medicine but Electric Bitters, and only cost fifty cents a bottle." Sold by F. Jordan.

The best known remedy for all affections of the Chest, Lungs or Throat is GRAY'S SYRUP OF RED SPURGE GUM. It is constantly used by thousands of persons suffering from the above diseases, and in nearly every instance it affords immediate relief. In cases of troublesome, tickling Cough, where the patient passes sleepless nights, one or two doses of the Syrup has such a quieting, soothing effect that the rest ensues and the Cough speedily disappears. Try it and be convinced. Sold by all chemists. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle.—ad

THE GREAT WANT OF THE NORTH-WEST is said to be women. It is heart-rending to hear of the desire of well-to-do old bachelors to get married when there are no women within several hundred miles. Old maids are said to go off like hot cake out there. Go West, young women!

Hamilton Times: The Government wants 100,000 gallons of coal oil for three years. First the Government makes regulations which enable the coal oil producers to charge double what their product is worth. Then a contract is made for a long term in advance at the artificial raised rates. Thus the reciprocity between the Government and the coal oil producers benefits to the people who pay the taxes! Thus is Canada enriched by the N. P.

SEE WHAT PHYSICIANS

And People in Canada say about Scott's Emulsion

Of Pure Cod Liver Oil WITH Hypophosphites of Lime & Soda

AS A REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION AND WASTING DISEASES

entirely, N. B., Nov. 5, 1880.

Messrs. SCOTT & BOWNE.—I have used and prescribed for some time "Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil," and find it an excellent preparation, agreeing well with the stomach, easily taken, and its continued use adding greatly to the strength and comfort of the patient.

A. H. FROCK, M. D. Penn. Med. College.

Amherst, Nova Scotia, Nov. 8, 1880.

Messrs. SCOTT & BOWNE.—Gentlemen: For nearly two years I have been acquainted with Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites, and consider it the finest preparation now before the public. Its permanency as an Emulsion with the pleasant flavor, makes it the great favorite for children, and I do highly recommend it for all wasting diseases of the system.

Yours, very truly, C. A. BLACK, M. D.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 10, 1880.

Messrs. SCOTT & BOWNE.—Gentlemen: I have prescribed your Emulsion for the past two years, and found it more agreeable to the stomach, and have better results from its use from any other preparation of the kind I have tried.

H. M. CAMERON, M. D. Belleville, Ont.

Messrs. SCOTT & BOWNE.—Dear Sirs: I feel it a duty to owe not only to you but to the community, to make the following statement: About three years ago my eldest daughter was taken with a severe cold which settled on her lungs, and not withstanding all that her medical attendant could do, she got worse and worse, and appeared to be in the last and hopeless stage of consumption. The Doctor said he could do no more, but recommended your Emulsion, and the effect of it was in the opinion of every one who knew her, simply marvelous. Before she had used the first bottle, she felt much better, and to the surprise of us all, she continued to mend so rapidly that in three months she was able to go about as usual, and has continued in such excellent health that she got married 18 months ago, and has now as fine and healthy a son as you can find in the country.

WILLIAM DLANO. Elora, Ont., July, 1880.

This is to certify that my daughter has had Lung disease for some time, and very much reduced in flesh, and had not strength enough to walk across the street. She was advised by a lady friend to try Scott's Emulsion, and to our great surprise before she had used three bottles her health was completely recovered. I recommend it to every one troubled with the same disease.

JOHN W. BOWEN.

THE GREATEST WONDER OF MODERN TIMES!—The Pills Purify the Blood, correct all disorders of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys and Bowels and are invaluable in all complaints incidental to Females. The Ointment is the only reliable remedy for Itch, Legs, Old Wounds, Sores and Ulcers, of however long standing. For Rheumatism, Diptheria, Coughs, Colds, Gout, Rheumatism and all Skin Diseases, it has no equal.

Beware of AMERICAN COUNTERFEITS.—I most respectfully take leave to call the attention of the Public generally to the fact that certain houses in New York are sending many parts of the globe spurious imitations of my Pills and Ointment. These frauds bear on their labels some address in New York. I do not allow my Medicine to be sold in any part of the United States, I have no Agents there. My Medicines are only made by me, at 333 Oxford Street, London. In the Books of directions addressed to the subscribers make it a caution against the Public against being deceived by counterfeiters. Do not be misled by this audacious trick, as they are the counterfeiters they pretend to denounce. These counterfeiters purchased by unprincipled vendors at one-half the price of my Pills and Ointment and are sold to you as my genuine Medicines. I most earnestly appeal to that sense of justice which I feel sure many treasure upon asking from all honorable persons, to assist me, and the Public, as far as may lie in their power, in denouncing this shameful Fraud. Each Pot and Box of the Genuine Medicine bears the British Government Stamp with the words "HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT, LONDON," engraved thereon. On the label is the address, 333 Oxford Street, London, where alone they are manufactured. Holloway's Pills and Ointment bearing any other address are counterfeits. The Trade Marks of these Medicines are registered in Ottawa. Hence any one throughout the British Possessions, who may keep the American Counterfeit for sale, will be prosecuted. (Signed) THOMAS HOLLOWAY Oxford Street, London, Jan. 1, 1879.
