Address.

To Mr. M. C. Hussey, Head Master of Burgeo Anglican High School:

Dear Mr. Hussey—We, your pupils, hear with sincere regret that you are not returning to Burgeo.

For five years you have been Principal of our High School, and during that period of time you have endeared yourself to all of us, by your kindly disposition, and energetic method of conducting the school.

We cannot allow you to go from us without expressing our appreciation of your services, and together with our best wishes for your happiness, we ask you to accept the accompanying cheque.

Signed on behalf of the scholars:
Fred Mitchell, Augustus Moulton, Harvey Hale, Pauline Clement, Melinda Bowdridge, Gladys Street, Mary Clements, Lelia Moulton, Bessie Vatcher, Alva Street, Jennie Guy.

REPLY:

To the Pupils of Burgeo Anglican High School:

Dear Children,—It was with many regrets that I myself decided to leave Burgeo and take up my work in another part of the country, but for reasons that would not be necessary to explain here, I at last made up my mind to do so.

I assure you that the five years I spent among you, were for me, five very happy ones. I am glad to be able to say, that as a teacher, I tried to do and believe I did my duty toward you one and all, and considered myself amply rewarded by the splendid results which you plainly showed from year to year. In simply doing my duty I did not think for one moment that I had done anything to merit such kindness from you as you have now shown towards me, and for which I feel deeply grateful.

I thank you very much for your kind appreciation of my work among you, and the very substantial way in which you have shown it.

With the cheque that you so kindly sent me, I shall endeavor to purchase something that I can always keep by me in remembrance of dear old Burgeo and the many pleasant days I spent among you, both in the school and out of it.

Although being absent from Burgeo I assure you that I shall always beg to hear that its people are doing well, and that the pupils of Burgeo High School are maintaining their reputation of obedient students always remembering the old watchword—No Failures.

Again thanking you for your kind remembrance of me, and with all good wishes for your future success, I remain,

Your friend,
H. C. HUSSEY.

SAVORY ROASTER.

Our many customers who had the pleasure of examining and trying our sample of this very useful household article will be pleased to hear that we have just received a shipment, so that all orders can now be filled. What is a Savory Roaster? It is such a good thing that it must be seen to be properly understood. A Savory Roaster is a Pan for roasting meat; but it is more than this, it is a self baster. No torment or burning your fingers removing it from oven to baste the meat. You simply place your roast of meat in the roaster, close the pan—trouble no more about it until it is cooked. The meat is really steamed all through. None of the nutritious properties of the meat can escape. It is a marvel and the price is within the reach of everybody, $1.50.

THE RIGHT HOUSE

Scribes and Pharisees.

The Daily News waxes wroth this morning. We have not the slightest doubt that Donald Morrison doth the same. No overt public act contributed so much to mark out conspicuously the chafardan and the Pharisee in public life as the claim of Sir Edward Morris that he and his Ministers and particularly his Minister of Justice have all the ideals of statesmanship; for he solemnly assumed to have them, and just as solemnly denies them in his opponents. It may be that so far as his Minister of Justice is concerned, Sir Edward made a miscalculation of the noble qualities of Donald Morrison, excusable, perhaps, from the fact he assumed to act as chairman of religious meetings, probably unaware of Donald Morrison's full qualifications. When Sir Edward Morris's own acts are contrasted with his claims, his performances are startling. If he had confined himself to bluster, of which accomplishment he is a master, or supported both sides of moral and economic questions at one and the same time, as Donald Morrison has reminded us, he would not have been led into claiming the support of intelligent men by assuming to be pure and undefiled in his political acts and in his administration of public affairs. Such will, however, come in for further review when time and occasion call for same.

The Morning Post in an editorial on the Mexican situation, referring to the suspicions which have arisen in the States that British policy is inspired by oil interests and urges the Government to sever all personal connections between the Government and Lord Cowdray's Company, so that whatever happens the Government may be free to disavow British policy with an eye single to the safeguarding of British interests.

Special to The Evening Telegram. MEXICO CITY, To-day.

With the election of Huerta and Blanquet what Washington proposes to do is the keeping of foreign residents and the majority of Mexicans in a state of painful suspense. On the surface, the Administration is giving little consideration to the subject, seemingly taking the ground that the Mexican people have declared in favor of Huerta's continuance in the Presidency; although openly charged in many quarters that it was official pressure that resulted in the rolling up of majorities for Huerta and Blanquet, which are now being officially reported from all parts where election forces were observed. The fact remains that there is no possibility of going back on the returns, as there is no thought that any other candidate polled nearly enough votes to place the Huerta Blanquet ticket in jeopardy. In view of Washington's previous representations on the subject, the next move of the American Government is awaited here with no little misgiving.

Sensation Promised

In Montreal in Connection with a Number of Arrests.

The Montreal Herald says: One of the most sensational raids in the history of Montreal is promised as the result of the activity of Dominion Officer Lambkin, with whom members of the city detective force have been co-operating in following up clues that are alleged to have led to the discovery of widespread activity on the part of "white-slavers" in this city.

The investigation that is now under way has revealed to the police the active participation in this nefarious traffic of persons living in the best residential section of the west end of the city; persons of presumably easy means, who live surrounded by every luxury, and by an appearance of wealth and culture succeed in blinding the eyes of their neighbors to their manner of making a living. The finely appointed equipages kept by these people are also alleged to have been used as a means to delude their victims, and the police are stated to have in their possession evidence of the fate of several young girls lured by this appearance of luxury, and blinded by the advanced age of the women who act as the agents of the traffic.

The men who are stated to have been taking their advantage from the traffic are men who are alleged to hold high positions in the business and social life of the city, and the arrests which the police hope to make are calculated to cause an enormous sensation.

This is the story of what happened to a Yale Padlock when the owner lost the key, as told to the makers in the following letter:—

"I thought you might be interested in this lock. It was attached to a chest, the owner of which lost both keys. He tried to pick the lock, but couldn't. He then called his son, and together they attacked the padlock with a seven-pound striking hammer and a three-pound ball pen hammer. For two hours it resisted their efforts. They were finally compelled to cut the shackle with a cold chisel. I stood by and watched the operations for the two whole hours, and therefore vouch for the accuracy of my statements."

Have you anything that needs padlocking? And if you'd like to keep it, it does need padlocking. We can show you the Yale Padlock that is made for the purpose.
